Men as Nurses.

There isn't one man in fifty thousand who is a good nurse. The average man feels as much out of place in a sick-room as a bull must in a china-store. His heart may be ever so full of sympathy, but his feet are heavy and his fingers clumsy.

In most cases when a woman's general health breaks down the original cause is weakness or disease of the distinctly feminine organism. The only permanent cure lies in the correction of all these disorders. Husbands should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine that invariably cures all ailments of this nature without "local treatment" and "examinations." It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned. It makes them well and strong. It allays inflammation, heals all internal ulceration and stops debilitating drains. It soothes and tones the nerves. Found at all medicine stores. An honest druggist won't urge upon you a substitute.

"I had female trouble for many years," writes Mrs. A. Lingelbach, of Granger, Sweetwater Co., Wyoming, "and tried many physicians until I was completely discouraged. Finally I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for six months, and I soon found that I was completely cured. I had been so bad I could hardly walk across the floor, but I am now well and strong, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It used to cost $1.50; now it is free. Paper-covered copy, 21 one-cent stamps, to cover mailing only; cloth binding 31 stamps. Over 1,200,000 American homes now contain copies of this great work. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CITIZEN.

The State Treasury.

(Phil'a Times.)

The fundamental error of the prosecution, for which District Attorney Rothermel was not responsible, was the assumption that a conspiracy could be inferred by the political and business operations of political leaders which have been as open as noonday in this State for half a century. There never was a conspiracy to use the public money unlawfully, for the reason that there was no need for such conspiracy. All parties and all leaders who have had control of the Treasury of our State for fifty years past have held the Treasury as a great engine of political power and generally of profit. Without the pretense of concealment, the leaders who control the election of a State Treasurer could control his deposits and thereby, when necessary, if sufficiently credited with the banking institutions, obtain discounts which others in the regular course of business could not obtain, and all this has been done as visibly to the public as the sunlight of an unclouded noonday. The use of the State money for profit has always been unlawful, but not more so than the use of political power to control public honors and emoluments to serve individual or political ends. A criminal conspiracy means much more than the political combinations which are made and confronted in the political conflicts of each year without attempt at disguise.

It is not disputed that our Treasury system in Pennsylvania has been a loose, corrupt and profligate one. It has debauched our politics; it has given individual favors to political leaders as they in turn would unhorse each other, and it continued until two years ago, when a most unwilling Legislature was compelled to bow to aroused public sentiment and place our Treasury on a business basis and compel its profits to inure to the State. Our Treasury has long been a seething cauldron of corruption and favoritism, but it was made and continued so by political mastery won in open day and in face to face conflict, and the criminal element of conspiracy was unknown in it. It is not suprising, therefore, that the fierce partisan accusation made against Quay as a conspirator to rob the State of its legimate profits for deposits, was dissipated like the mists of the morning before the sunlight of the law.

If Senator Quay has been guilty of a conspiracy to use the money of the State unlawfully, there is hardly a single banker in this city, and few throughout the State, who have not been at one time or other guilty of like lawlessness and should have been sent to prison by the criminal courts. Men with political power could control State deposits when there were millions of idle money in the Treasury, as was common some years ago; and times without number such desposits have been obtained for particular banks or bankers who, because of the desposits given made liberal discounts to those who controlled the deposits; and yet every such transaction was a criminal conspiracy and should have been punished by the law if Senator Quay was a conspirator to that end. This trial has cleared up the political atmosphere that has been made foggy by the fiercest factional conflict, and the courts will not likely be soon summoned again to the support of those who are too feeble or too cowardly to make a successful battle against political leadership.

Senator Quay's acquittal will be accepted by all as a complete personal vindication, and the several other indictments against him and his son will doubtless be nol prossed at an early day, as no Judge in this city, since the retirement of Gordon, would be likely to permit a rehearing of the case. But those who assume it means the re-election of Mr. Quay to the Senate and the restoration of his absolute political mastery in the State, have little appreciation of the political conditions which exist entirely independent of the criminal prosecutions. If the legislature were in session today, Senator Quay's acquittal would not bring a single vote to him that was cast against him the day before adjournment, and while he is unquestionably strengthened in his political position by his acquittal, the vital issue that divides his party is over and above all issues involved in the criminal prosecution.

As a house-hold medicine the work and worth of Hood's Sarsaparilla are known the world-wide.

The following problem was submitted at a recent examination for graduation in a neighboring township. A tin peddler cheats a farmer's wife out of 11 cents on her rags and 17 cents on a calf skin, while she works off two dozen bad eggs on him at 14 cents and stuffs a pound of hen feathers in a sack of goose feathers she sells at 40 cents a pound. Now how much is that tin peddler ahead?

"Some one asks what it is from which maple sugar is made. I answer it is the frost that accumulates in the pores of the sugar maple, and warm weather melts or liquifies it when it drops in the pails and is made into sugar or syrup. The theory that prevails in the minds of quite a number that sugar is made from sap is ill founded from the fact that as soon as the sap rises sugar-making ceases, and what little sap that is obtained makes a terrible stuff not fit to be used."—Ex.

WHY DOES A Farmer Add Phosphates To His Farm.

To aid and stimulate nature. The human system is just the same as farm; nature at times needs help, and there is nothing that equals little goo! whiskey to tone up a run-down system, to build up strength bring back vitality, and to make a man feel that life is worth living after all. All whiskies are good, but some are better than others. We sell only the best, and guarantee them to be absolutely pure, and free from all impurities.
Here are some of our prices:

Anchor Rye, a good whiskey for the money ..... $2.00 a gal.
Cabinet Rye, can't be beat ..... $3.00 a gal
Bear Creek Rye, a very fine whiskey ..... $4.00 a gal
Gin, Rum, Kummel, Brandy $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 per gal.

We have some very fine California wines of 1892 vintage—Port, Sherry and Angelica at $2.00 per gallon. They are of good body and of exquisite flavor.

Remember that we pay expressage on all orders of $5.00 and over except where a transfer is necessary from one Express Company to another, when we pay expressage to point of transfer.

NEARLY

Fifty-eight Years Old!!!

It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American People has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast today, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides.

As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of its youth, strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century.

It has lived on its merits, and on the cordial support of progressive Americans.

It is "The New-York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the leading National Family Newspaper.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of "The CITIZEN" (your own favorite home paper) has entered into an alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the trifling cost of $1.50 per year.

Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family
