Bak Library July J

Butter Savings Bank Butler, Pa.

"Do you know where Mrs. Mayberry is?" I asked in a hushed voice, for the presence of Death brooded over the The old man's face took on a look avage hatred. He made a gesture in rest paid on time deposits.

TME

savage narred. He made a gesture 1 the direction of the terrace. "Roaming about outside." he replies succinctly. "She's crazy-like herself. A certain sa tisfaction in his expres-sion suggested to me a wretched fore The Butler Savings Bank is the Oldest Banking Institutionin Butley County.

BUTLER, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1899

With this I left her and re-entered him, and felt that not yet was the thus I never have seen her thus fully ripe for a reconciliation. The genuineness of her love for him through illness, and with possible com-through illness, and with possible com-balance of the state of the state of the state of the state balance of the state of the state ecture and suspicions rife among the ervants, such as I should never have reamt of but for Mrs. Mayberry's was somewhat awk-comfortable. I fell great-o have another and an at the head of the household as matron of the establishment. I had abstracted from Madam's fing-ers the fiftle packet which Alice had

It b. to avidently a letter from to the small compass folded is darrow black about with sould have legacy which is ser pos-ago delivered into .

him which Madam had so-highly great privacy. By her grave stood but three persons besides the customary officials: Mrs. Spencer-good, kindly soul, who had lost sight of all resett-ment in her abundant pity and sym-pathy-Darracott, and David Spencer The Ivies upon the very night of h daughter's death. If, in this terribly apprehensive frame of mind, Darracott was capable of experiencing any feeling of gratifi-cation, I think that the relief afforder the would not There was no chapte fe but was revealed that interval. Freely by the assurance that he would not be obliged again to encounter the housekeeper was the source of such emotion. Whither Mrs. Mayberry man should know the sionate sufferings of when, for no fault

she does, ated rejoin be oblight again the course of such emotion. Whither Mrs. Mayberry went, or in what fashion, what her fate has been, or where she now is we have never learnt. I alone, I think, of all who dwelt within The Ivies, felt real sympathy and sorrow for the poor creature. Her moral weakness was like a phys-ic d deformity in my eyes and I could not but feel it an extenuating eir-cum tance in her wretched system of doubh dealing and pitful treachery towards a mistress whom she adored even while she cheated and betrayed ries. There were some puite so admirable as work in the writer's mind: scenes where passion and against an untoward fate the ightness of a noble and soul; but these only ender hero more warmly to him, not for his for his weakness also

"The result of awakened love, Doro-thy! O Father in Heaven, restore to me the heart of my boy!" He spoke to me freely of the pa had been deprived of the one bles which seemed to him of all other most to be desired. The loss of h mother's love was an injury to whic "It was not merely the fact she had no affection to If was a sad, a miserably distaste ful mission I had undertaken to per-form-worse even in fulfilment than stance of witnessing stance of witnessing her monstrativeness towards Go when that day arrived upon darling and idol committed a me, beneath my very roof, the act of treachery which one ma was for him and his sin that bled, although her sense of justice "But she loves you now she does," was my constantly relter ated rejoinder; at which he would smile incredulously and shake hi That evening Darracott and I tool head. One day, to this oft-repeated sponse of mine he return that aroused fresh suspici-Mayberry in my mind.

"If she loved me, really loved n with genuine and not perfunct fection," he said, "would she ha stantly besought me in her I glanced up at him inquiringly. His face looked tired and white, but it wore an expression of peace which was new to it. "I opened his letter this afternoon not to return, to remain away hite shrunken fect faith a little tremholding Madam's whi hand within my own. "Dear Madam." I said

You know what I answered. I have

She nodded her hear "You remember she from your son Gerald?" from duer assenting mot The hirle picket where the owner's from your son dermin. Another assenting motion. It is, I think, a letter. What if it is, I think, a letter. What if it bids you desert the son who remains to you, and adopt in his place, as to you, and adopt in his place, as daughter, the afflicted girl whom your de d son loved?' Ma, ham had no knowledge of Alke's Ma, and this was indeed a crucial 4 da. ling of her old age and r. qu. st of the idol of a life-r. qu. st of the idol of a life-r. qu. st of the idol of a life-r. go back into the past and review by-go back into the past and review by-successful and happy as that of the insertion of sig advertisement for a companion. And so I, when I is my turn re-se the variation of operations upon old age" and idol of a lifetate in he. discuel. and the main hand from no grasp, as if in sup in its fellow, ra. sed both to benuil plication, while a bright an sup ful light dawned upon her , countenance, giving it if heavenly rac.

ance of expression. "Oh, if indeed God would afford me hea.

opportunity for atonement!" which . softly, 'Oh, to be allowed that infinite : sorthy. On to be anowed that minute  $u_{i}$  and  $u_{i}$  over the opproblum  $u_{i}$  of iter, you would still cleave to the slower judgment  $o_{i}$  if selection the slower independence to the slower independence in the slower independence

Then you would still cleave to Darracott?' The slower judgment of the solution of the solution

The man behind me was striding impetuously forward. I hurriedly asked another question before his presence should thrust mine aside. "And this tardy justice is not simply the result of awakened conscience, Madam?" My utterance was almost breathless in his haste. My dear lady gave a sharp, quick cry, that was all

"Oh. no! Oh. no--no!" she returned

I turned then, and sped from the room. I had no longer a right there. In the hall I met Dr. Spencer, and to him I made full confession of my guilt. I was obliged to acknowledge t, for the tears were streaming down my face, and he was inquisitive con-cerning their cause. He looked grave and shook his nead, but I remained obstinate in approval of my conduct. "Even if she should die from the effects of what yeu call my imprud-ence," I retorted, 'the brief joy of re-union with her sta is worth twenty years of continued estrangement and enforcing " years of continued estimatement and suffering." But she did not dle. From that hour she mended, having a cause to induce her recovery, and Dr. Speneer has always generously acknowledged that I was the physician to restore her to health.

our stroll on the terrace after dinner. He seemed much preoccupied, and was but a duil companion. Finally he

"We have been doing my brothe Gerald an injustice all this time."

RESOURCEFUL ENGINEERS. Qualities Exhibited by a Corps of Elect cians in an Emergency. It has been stated that one of ading qualities exhibited by electr

s ouring the war was resource. This is well in a story told by one of officers of the corps. There was good deal of uncasiness about time around Boston, as no one k out that the Spanisa fleet raight for the city, and shells within twenty-four we to a squad of engineers to ) before night a complete isol ant for searchight work on on charge of getting the he bay could get no su down the oay could get no suita boat anywhere, so they simply plag the holes in the boiler, rolled it off pier, hitched it to a tug, and towes down the harbor, kept afloat by air inside it. The men who had take down the engine and dyna managed to get their machines hand but there they waited with annexit managed to get their machines they have but there they waited, with apparen-no prospect of going further. On whole island there was only one try strong enough to carry the machi-from the dock to the fort, and t from the dock to the fort, and t day: "My dear daughter Dorothy, when I From the dock to the fort, and that was in charge of an Irishman in the employ of the city of Boston, who doggedly maintained that he took ne orders except from the city officials, and the authority of the United States government was nothing to him. It was already late in the afternoon, and there was no possibility of reaching the office of the authorities in time to secure the permit. The wen simply book the driver to their barracks, got him dead drunk and did their own "ving. And the searchlight shone the bay that night. the varies occasions upon the varies occasions upon there over the legaling of the over the legaling of the pulse which over now. h upplies which over now.

port of Bill Blue as an engineer in the the trunk lines in duties was to over the his Willian Blue v.

c. his pet engine blew out and he was stalled, blocking the main line. He reported the matter to the division unwittingly

Arabic coins have a sentence from the Koran, and generally the caliph's name, but never an image. Nearly all the gold coin in circula-tion in the Sandwich islands is of United States mintage. A curious remedy for sleeplessness is used by the inhabitants of the Samoan islands. They confine a snake in a hollow bamboo, and the hissing sound emitted by the rentile is said to mulekly This order is stuck up in the cab of Engine 2. emitted by the reptile is said to quickly induce slumber. The desert of Sahara is as large as Induce slumber. The desert of Sahara is as large as all that portion of the United States lying west of the Mississippi. An interesting test has just béëll made by a French woman. With 4 view to testing the sustaining powers of chocolate she lived on that alone for 60 days and lost but 15 pounds in the interval. At an Auburn, Me., wedding, the other day, the ceremony was performed in the room in which her mother and grandmother had both been married born and in which her mother and grandmother had both been married born and in which her mother and grandmother had both been married before her. The first use of Niagara's power was made in 1725, a primitive sawmill be-ing operated. Nothing more was done until 1842, when Augustus Porter con-coived the plan of budrandic carpele carbon in the sum of all straight down ceived the plan of hydraulic canals, and in 1861 one of them was completed.

ceived the plan of hydraulic canals, and in 1861 one of them was completed. OUT OF THE ORDINARY. Japan has seventeen shipyards. Japan has two electric railways. Germany reports electric plowing. Wisconsin exports cattle to Japan. Russia has seventy platinum mines. Cuba has 17,000,000 acres of virgin forest. Russia's empress has a $5,000 hand-kerchief.

IN THE MIND'S EYE.

No.20

QUEER TRICKS THAT OUR VISUAL ORGANS SOMETIMES PLAY ON US.

We See One Thing or Another According to the Mind's Impression-Fictures That Change When Stared at Steadily-Some Amusing Tests.

That we sometimes see with our ninds as well as our eyes is brought at interestingly by Joseph Jastrow in he current Popular Science Monthly. The following sections, with their il-nstrations, afford striking examples if the tricks our striking examples f the tricks our eyes sometimes play

True seeing, observing, is a double process, parily objective or outward-the thing seen and the retina and partly subjective or inward the pic-ture mysteriously transferred to the mind's representative, the brain, and there received and affiliated with other images.

If we view outlines only. shading or perspective or anything to definitely suggest what is foreground and what background, it becomes posand what background, it be sible for the mind to supply tails and see foreground ground and vice versa.

ground and vice versa. A good example of this is seen in "i.e. 1, which represents in outline a "od pyramid with a square base, "i.e. "of the pyramid slop trunca. "of the pyramid slop trunca. "are the larger and . "y from you to-ing aw." "the rear? Or a square in . " hollow of are the sides

FIG. 2.

Here (Fig.2) is a skeleton box which outlining the sides. Now the front, or side nearest, seems directed down-ward and to the left; again, it has shifted its position and is no longer the front, and the side which appears to be the front seems directed upward

G. F. KECK, 🖂 🖂 🖂 🖂 Butler, Pa. 142 North Main Street, hants, farmers and others. All basiness entrusted to us will receiv

Fits and Workmanship

Right up to date, the latest styles, shades and colors that could be bought. Call and Guaranteed.

SPRING SUITINGS.

xamine them

A STREAM OF NEWNESS Butler County National Bank, Butler Penn,

New goods are coming in daily. The thought and care which were lesto on their selection are manifest. We've been telling you about Silk's and 1 ods. Other lines deserve mention

Embroideries and Laces.

The newest and daintiest productions await you here Beautiful assortments at temptingly little prices. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Embroideries with Inserting and allover to match. Vals, Torchon, Orientals and a vast assortment of other Embroideries are priced like this:

1/2 to I inch wide

Hosiery and Underwear-

The wanted sorts are here in ample variety. Careful selection has brought here the thoroughly good and dependable kinds. An opportunity to buy—and save in the buying—is presented here.

GLOVE TALK—Those of you who know our Dollar Kid Glove know that nothing is retailed at the price that equals it for uniformity of skin and perfection of finish and fit. "ROYALE".-Best Dollar Glove in America. Black and all shades—Button, Hook or Clasp fastening.

L. STEIN & SON, 08 N. MAIN ST., BUTLER, PA

We call your attention to our large and well selected stock of Choice Millinery. We have endeavored to make our stock surpass all previous years in style, desir-ability, quality and prices. We feel sure we have more than maintained our reputation in the selection of CHOICE MILLINERY GOODS. We can show you an immense variety of Hats, Flowers, Ribbons, Braids and Chiffons and all U at goes to make up an UP-TO-DATE MILLINERY STOCK, and at prices that will surprise you. We would call especial attention to our Ladies', Misses' and Chil-dren's TRIMMED HATS, in which we have always excelled. You can always get the right goods at the right prices at

ROCKENSTEIN'S,

28 South Main St., - - - - - - - Butler, Pa.

I general banking business transacted. Interest paid on time deposits. Money loaned on approved security. We invite you to open an account with this one. Weither Street Stree

Braun's Pharmacy. Cor. 6th St. and Duquesne Way. Pittsburg, Pa,, L, D. Telephone 2542.

Wholesale and Retail.

Importer and Jobber of Drugs, Chemicals, Perfumes, Soaps, Brushes, Etc. The only house west of New York carrying a full line ot Meyers' Grease, Paints and theatrical goods.

Physicians' Prescriptions

Compounded Day or Night by Registered Pharmacists" only. Wholesale and retail dealer in Lubricating and Illumniating Oils, Capital Cylinder, Dynamo, Water White at Conduct Conductor Conducto

Engine Oils, Gasolein, Benzine, Paraffine Wax and radiant. Petrolatum.

Address all mail orders to

W. F. Braun.

LC. WICK, DEALER IN

OF ALL KINDS. Doors, Sash, Blinds, Mouldings, Shingles and Lath Always in Stock.

LIME. HAIR AND PLASTER Office opposite P. & W. Depot.

BUTLER, PA.

mmm Butler Steam Laundry, 220 West Cunningham Street, J. E. ZICKRICK, Manager. People's 'Phone, 296.

He nodded grimly. "Indeed I have," he returned drily. "Few pleasures come in my way,

He chuckled vindictively. I cast one look upon him filled with withe ing contempt and scorn, and hastene

"Oh, Franklin" I cried, "you have

MADAM OF THE IVIES

BY ELIZABETH PHIPPS TRAIN.

[Copyrighted by the Author.]

CHAPTER XIL

It was just ten years ago to-night ince the occurence of the tragic even together the hearts of parent a child, I think my dear lady grew as Darracott's wife), was buried w.

mysteriously disappeared towards a missies whom she hadred even wible she cheated and betrayed her. Therefore it was that I begged to be allowed to inform her of the double tragedy which had taken place within our beautiful old hall, instead of letting her hear of it through the medium of servants who felt for her only an intolerable aversion.

much. I sought Mrs. Mayberry firs in her own room, and then in Alice apartment, but she had discovered he laughter's absence and wa's herse ngaged in a search. 1 was hurryin

as the second se

5 -----

on. He had not overshot the mark if describing Mayberry's condition a "crazy-like." She scatter recognize me as I came up with her, and I ha actually to lay hards on her in orde to gain her attention. She was a most running up and down the broa gravel sweep, weinging her hand most running up and down the broad gravel sweep, wringing her hands, tossing her head, muttering and cry-ing to herself, calling out fierce. de-nunciatory epithels and broken set-ences; appealing tow to the forgive-ness of God for the result of her own misdeeds, which she wholly attribut-ed to others, and again, reviling the memory of the poor misguided girl whose spirit had gone forth to meet its Judge.

When I succeeded in arresting he steps, I actually shrank from the vretched spectacle she presented. It vas difficult to show tender regard r so wild an object. But I did m est. "Mrs. Mayberry," I began gently you know Alice is dead?" about Her eyes roamed restlessly about but she nodded.

"Yes," she said. "A good thing! She has cheated the hangman." She has cheated the hangman." I shuddered and drew away. What nature had the woman? Yet I had pity for the terrible retribution that had overtaken her. "Hush!" I seid. "How can you speak thus of your own child?" "She would have killed Madam," she returned ent/enty

she returned suh'enly. "It is not so,' I answered, glad to be able to say something in the dead glrl's favor. "She had no thought of

For the first three the wandering gate fixed itself steadily on mine. A dawning hope environment the work-"What?-what?" she stammered un-

Cylinder, Dynamo, Water "It was not Madarn whom she at White and Standard Gas tacked," I replied 'quietly, "but her son." The woman's face, became positively

"Oh!" she burst forth wildly, "i

"Oh." the burst forth wildly, "is this tru e? Bay-is it, is it?" I relate d the det alls of the scene to her, and gained such regard as I might have expected from one of her small and despicable calibre. Her face glowed i vith satisfaction, and she cast a sly, in druating look upon me as I conclude. "Ah! she had method in her mad-ness, after all, "By poor Alice!" she croaked, in those twice sylich, always horrible to me, w we doubly so now by reason of the i mister excitation they manifested. "I can forgive her if she did not aim at 1 fadam. It is ex-cusable for a lealous wife to attack her husband when she weat him pay.

for a jealous Wille to atta band when she wess him pa ing court elsewhere.'

Ing court elsewhere," There was no mistaking, "Ea meaning of her glance or the point of her ro-mark. Both were tipped with venou and plainly directed at me. A by sym-pathy congealed into cold coutemp I withdrew the renssuring band <sup>1</sup> I ha-placed on her shoulder. "You are a magligant an 'd wore hles-woman!" I said with fre wing di-nity, turning to leave her. "You are beneath the consideration of even the man." I said with fre ezing y, turning to leave her. "You eath the consideration of even beneath the consideration of even of most kindly disposed. I came there comfort you as well as I mi tht, b you have turned my regard for your trouble into disgust for your char acter. I will leave you, Your chary ter still lies in the hall. If you have any natural humanity in you, I w "outh advise your paying some structure."

advise your paying some attention. her removal; else it may fall to the mmmm my home. society until she should be better able and read it to my mother, by her wish It seems that he and—the woman did to bear the companionship closely associated with her grief and loss?" Then it was that a light dawned upnoon, I was sitting by Madam's bed side. Darracott was also in the room but at a distance, sitting by a wind ow reading. Madam had recovered nsciousness and was aware of pendition and surroundings, but Di pencer had forbidden conversation of Spencer had forbidden conversation of exertion of any sort, for she was still very weak from loss of blood. She lay with her eyes wide open, gazing steadfastly before her, but seeing nothing. Presently she spoke.

"Who is with me?-you, little Doro

"Yes, dear Madans." A brief silence. Then —"No ha"m came to him—to my child, Dorothy?" I quivered at the appellation which I had felt reserved exclusively for an-other, and I could hear a deep breath hrawn over there by the window. "No harm, dear Madam," I said. "Thank God! O my God, I do thank Thee!"

There was another pause; and the

There was another pause; and thei I was possessed by an impulse to de-something which would have disqual-lifted me for ever as a nurse in Dr Spencer's sight. I rose, and approach-ing her closely, knelt down and tool-her hand in mine. Then to her I put a question that brought about result which were a better panacea for he-ills than were all the doctor's medi-caments.

"And if he had been injured, dea "And if he had been injured, dea Madam," I suggested, "what then

t is only Darracott, you know-no

thy?" "Yes, dear Madam."

It seems that he and the woman du not leave here together, as we had always supposed. He fied in order to preserve his honor, being aware of the temptation her society exposed him to; and she followed him without States.

on me. "Did you know that Mrs. Mayberry wrote those letters?" I asked. "Might it not be that she expressed sentihis knowledge, discovered his asylun and insisted upon sharing it. I an glad that I can think more lentently of him, and I am also thankful that ments of her own, which were entir strangers to her mistress's breast? He looked surprised.

of him, and I am also thankful that my mother's memories of bim will be less painful." No one could doubt the sincerity of his words. To his noble nature it was, I knew, a matter of profound thanksgiving that the brother who had been so deeply indebted to bim had been proved less unworthy his benefactions. My heart grew warm within me at this new evidence of his magnanimity. Truly, he was a wor-thy son even of Madam as I had first conceived her-flawiess, impecable, above suspicion or reproach. Again silence fell between us. We were both busy with our own He looked surprised. "Mayberry!" he exclaimed. "Oh, no; they were in my mother's hand-writing." "Or in an excellent imitation of it," I returned; and then for the first time I made him a ware of the fact that Madam had employed her house keeper as amanuensis, that she might keep from him the knowledge of her affliction affliction. From the look that came into his face as I threw this strong doubt up on that conclusion which he had form ed concerning his mother's wish to keep him at a distance I imagined that this last act of treachery of May-berry's—as I could not but believe it, and as I afterwards proved it to be vere both busy with our own houghts. Suddenly he put a question with our own o me so abrubtly that it alm red me speechless.

and as I afterwards protect in the be-had been the thorn that rankled sorest in that sadly-misprized fillal affection of his. He seemed much brighter, in far gayer spirits, after my suggestion had taken effect. A few days after this, late one after-nean L was after this, late one after-"How do you feel about widowers, Dorothy?" he asked. My heart gave a quick leap, and then I controlled its impetuosity and answered flippantly with a counter-uestion. Real States II and the second F

HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT WIDOWERS, DOROTHY?

"Genus or individuals?" "Oh, genus!" he replied, with a quiz-ical look in his grey eyes. "I don't fancy them," I returned, as

"Why not?" "They are apt to dwell too wear!-omely upon the virtues of the dearted. "But if the departed were with-

"It is a quality easily manufactured fter death," I replied.

Gerald. Surely I was a bold and ventu some maiden. My dear lady thr my hand from her with some violen "Only Darracott! Only Darracot "It is a quality ensity manufactured at the exclaimed. "Only Darracott! Only Darracott?" and without imagination sufficient for the undertaking?" he continuct: and withes in every respect? Only the son who, child and man, has studied and considered my comfort and withes in every respect? Only the son who child and man, has studied and considered my comfort and withes in every respect? Only the son who child and man, has studied and considered my comfort and withes in every respect? Only the son who child and man, has studied and considered my comfort and withes in every respect? Only the son who child and man, has studied and considered my comfort and withes in every respect? Only the son who child and man, has studied and considered my comfort of my dol age, for whose happines and well-being 1 would gladly lay down my life? Oh, Dorothy, how little you imagine when you say only Darracott' that it is in very truth 'only Darracott' who fills every nook and corner of my heart!" The desperate longing and regret in her voice would have tonched the most callous breast. I heard a movement behind me, and knew that Darracott, any his advance, for I divined what ere ther words had produced unon with the the words had produced unon what the et her words had produced unon the words had brow what the et her words had produced unon the words had brow what the et her words had produced unon the wor

10

kerchief.

Italy exports chestnuts to the United Practical Philanthrophy

Practical Philanthrophy. A young Philadelphian went to a mil-lionaire friend and asked pecuniary aid to start him in buşiness. "Do you drink" asked the millionaire. "Once in a while." "Stop it! Stop it! Stop it for a year, and then come and see me." The young man broke off the habit at once, and at the end of the year came to see the millionaire again. "Do you smoke?" asked the success-ful man. "Now and then." "Stop it! Stop it for a year, then come and see The largest sewing machine in the world is in operation in Leeds. England. It weighs 6,500 pounds and sews The facilities for inland transportation are so limited in Brazil that the inhabitants of the ports find it cheaper to import grain from North America than from their own farms.

Buddhists might include it am

Such a Brute.

ful man. "Now and then." Stop it: Stop it for a year, then come and see me again." The young man stopped smoking, but he did not go back again, "He'd have told me," he said, "that now that I have stopped drinking and smoking I must have saved enough to start myself in business, and I have." A farmer in West Bath. Me., be ieves that it is contrary to nature to nut shoes on horses and makes all his orses, from colthood up, travel on their hoofs.

To protect passengers from the exto Costly Setting for a Tooth. The solitary tooth of Buddha is to be contained in what will probably be the most valuable coffer in the world A Shan chieftain recently sent to Moulmein, in Burmah, an emerald worth, it is declared, two lakbs of rupees, in order that the Burmess Buddhiets micht include it among the tion of cabmen in Havana the lam posts are painted in various co red for the central district, blue for the cotton belting.

second, green for the third, etc. USEFUL INFORMATION.

A whale yields 48,000 pounds of oll. A lady's foot should equal in length one-seventh of her height.

buddnists might include if almost jewels which they are going to see to Ceylon in order to adorn the tool holding coffer. Jewelry worth 50.0 rupees has been already received fre Rangoon and Mandalay; and the Mo There are 40,000 native pupils in the Sunday schools of the Fiji islands. There are more public holidays in nein Buddhists have themselves cured jewelry to the value of 85,00 rupees. Thus the total value of th jewelry adorning the coffer will b Honolulu than in any other city in the world.

Tea is very cheap in China. In one about three and a half lakhs. province of the empire good tea is sold at 11/2d per pound.

Close Figuring. The friends of a popular preacher who recently died in Louisville, Ky., undertook to raise a fund for his family. One man gave his note for The highest trees have most pointe Frog's skin, though one of the thin nest, is also one of the toughest leathninety days for a certain amount, and ers tanned.

Hyenas always fight kneeling, the shank of the foreleg being the most vulnerable part of their body. The Bagfish. The Ragfish. There is a creature known as the hagfish, or myxine, which is in the Labit of getting inside cod and similar fsh and devouring the interfor until only the skin and the skeleton are left.

The condor possesses a greater vital tenacity than any other creature. The Polar bear comes second. In proportion to their weight, dogs can absorb without danger 16 times as much arsenic as would kill a human left. being.

FACTS OF REAL INTEREST.

Observer-Do you think that you can ever learn to ride a wheel? Beginner-Indeed, I do. After the difficulties I have sarmounted in get-The average number of horses killed ting one, I feel competent to accomp-Spanish bull fights every year ex- lish anything. eeds 5,000, while from 1,000 to 1,200 bulls are sacrificed. Wife of His Shirt Bosom-Are these Excepting grape wine, the oldest alnolic beverage known to man is sake, a rice wine. It has been used by the Japanese for over 2,000 years. Experiments made in Paris sho that an electric wagon costs 47 per cent. less to run than a horse wagon, and 32 per cent. less than a petroleu Underground London contains 34,000 miles of telegraph wires, 3,003 miles of sewers, 4,530 miles of water mains, 3

200 miles of gas pipe, all definitely fixed. France has as many as 45,000 fam lies, with 130,000 individuals, claiming a title of nobility, but, as a matter o fact, only about 450 families can prove their claim to descent from a noble family in feudal times.

HERE AND THERE. Policemen in Turkey get 12 to 24 A university in Cairo is said to have 11,000 students, more than attend any other two universities in the world. conts per day. The number of Belgian brewerles in creased from 2,977 in 1896 to 3,057 in Cuban Tobacco. Before the war Guba contributed about one-twelfth of all the tobacco 1897. The Chinese believe that the most nourishing article of food is the brain used in the world.

FIG. 3. ever, to be a view of the under side of a series of steps, the view repre-senting the structure of overhanging The blocks in Fig. 4 a marked fluctuation. solid surfaces represent blocks, all pointing downward

the left, and now the black surfaces have changed and have become the tops pointing upward and to the right. For some the changes come at will;

FIG. 4. for others they seem to come unex-pectedly, but all are aided by antici-pating mentally the nature of the transformation. The effect here is blocks se when the committee explained to him that cash was needed he agreed to pay the note in cash if the committee would discount it, which was done. nost animated and mo

All these diagrams serve to illus-trate the principle that when the ob-jective features are ambiguous we see one thing or another according to the impression that is in the mind's eye; what the object factors lack in definiteness the subjective ones sup-ply; while familiarity, prepossession, as well as other circumstances in-fluence the result. These mustrations show conclusively that seeing is not wholly an objective matter depending upon what there is to be seen, but is very considerably a subjective mat-ter depending upon the eye that sees. BLASTS FROM RAM'S HORN. All these diagrams serve to illus BLASTS FROM RAM'S HORN. A clean man will not live in a dirty Too many make a god out of the ma-your new collars. Husband-Yes, dearest. W. H. S. B. (in a tone of grieved astonishment)-But these are 16's and jority. Adversity tests faith, and prosperity I wear 14's; and those last neckties you bought didn't match a single gown I've got. Every humbug puts a plous motto over his door. Largest Room. The largest room in the world is at St. Petersburg. It is 620 feet long by 150 in breath. It has been used for You may backslide, but you never up-slide. We are made by our enemies and marred by ourselves. military displays, and a whole bat-talion can completely manoeuvre in The arm that is swift to strike may e strong to succor. A blunt tool with a man behind it is etter than a Damascus blade without one. The way to watch, is to work. It requires abundant grace to with-stand abundant prosperity. Your position in life to-morrow, de-pends on your character to-day. A high ideal is a standing invitation

o reach a more exalted position. The man who loses his life in love ows the seed of untold noble lives. The sermon on the mount is higher than some church members care to

The man who will not suffer for the truth, will have to suffer for neglecting ft.

A Daughter of Eve. Mother-Why didn't you scream when he kissed you? The Girl-His mustache was in the way, and when it was all over I saw that screaming wouldn't better the situation. The University of Cairo of a duck.

