To His Farm. To aid and stimulate nature. The human system is just the same as farm; nature at times needs help, and there is nothing that equals little good whiskey to tone up a run-down system, to build up strength bring back vitality, and to make a man feel that life is worth living after all. All whiskies are good, but some are better than others. We sell only the best, and guarantee them to be absolutely pure, and free from all impurities.

Here are some of our prices: Anchor Rye, a good whiskey for the money $2.00 a gal. Cabinet Rye, can't be beat $3.00 a gal Bear Creek Rye, a very fine whiskey $4.00 a gal Gin, Rum, Kummel, Brandy $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 per gal.

We have some very fine California wines of 1892 vintage—Port, Sherry and Angelica at $2,00 per gallon. They are of good body and of exquisite flavor. It is "The New-York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the eading National Family Newspaper.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, he publisher of "The CTIZEN" (your own favorite home paper) has entered into a alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish an alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to farmish both papers at the trifling cost of $1.50 per year.

Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way, brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospects for different crops, the prices in home markets, and, in fact, is a weekly visitor which should be found in every wide-awake, progressive family.

Just think of it! Both of these papers for only $1.50 a year.
