FIRES.

The Evans City Opera House was struck by lightning last Monday afternoon, and somewhat damaged by fire.

At 1:30 Sunday morning fire was discovered in J. G. & W. Campbell's old brick foundry near the Main St. bridge. The firemen responded in very quick time considering the hour and two streams of water soon put the blaze out. The interior of the casting hall was wrecked. The damage, about $2,000, is nearly covered by insurance. The loss would have been much greater had the fire got from the foundry into the casting room which was saved by the fire.

The foundry building is one of the oldest in Butler. In 1875 a boiler in it blew up, passing through the walls and landed on the 14th side of the creek.

About the year 1810, two young men came here from Fayette county seeking a place to erect a foundry. They were John and Alfred McKearns—some descendants of John we believe are still in this vicinity. They bought the lot of ground and put up the first small building and cast for a while only plowshares. The buildings were soon enlarged and cooking stoves and other articles of iron made. The works finally became the property of the late J. G. & W. Campbell, and are now owned by William, Jr. and John S. Campbell.

LEGAL NEWS.

On February 3 to pay the premium on a life insurance policy, payable in four months. On April 12, G. B. Givens gave Dunthorn a check for the $150 and asked him to return the note, which he promised to give a receipt when the note was delivered. Nothing more was done in the matter until the collection of the note was attempted. The National Bank of Pittsburg attempted to collect from Givens the amount of the note, which Dunthorn had presented three days after he received it.

The bank secured a judgment against Givens and the false pretenses defense is the only one. Dunthorn's defense is that the cash payment was on the next year's premium.

III HENRY-FRIDAY, AUG. 25TH.

The theatrical season of 1899-1900 opened in Pittsburg with a hot weather attraction at the Bijou.

It would have taken a much longer time to get the young man to keep Pittsburgers away from minstrelsy and rollicking variety acts. As a consequence the attention of the young man to satisfy the heart of the most exacting manager. Hi Henry's ministrals bid for patronage at the Bijou brought them a much more profitable business.

Hi Henry has one of the best popular minstrel
