HEARTY EXPRESSION.

Hundreds tell of the Charge Which they Have Feit.

The Time Comes for Butler People to Tell What Has Been Done for Them.

The time has come when people in Butler feel the change. Many people in this city have given voluntary endorsements of the great change they have felt after using Morrow's Kid-neo-oil.

Kid-neo-oil will cure a lame back, kidney trouble, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and all the ills which are the result of a weak and worn-out system.

We always like to give reference as to the merits of Morrow's Kid-neo-oil, and it is time to refer you to Mr. D. A. Heck, Clothier 121 North Main street, who says: "For about a year I have had a dull heavy pain in the small of my back, and it is time to refer you to Morrow's Kid-neo-oil, which would cure me if it were not for the fact that I have used it for several months, and I feel that I have been cured."

He no longer treated her like a spoiled child or a frivolous girl, as he had done at first, and she indeed seemed pleased when in his company. She had undergone a metamorphosis in his eyes—one that was most trouble for me.

It was significant that none of us referred to the proceedings of the day before. We observed an unnatural reticence regarding them.

As for Daly, he discreetly kept himself aloof from the rest of us, performing his duties silently and with a certain little of interest occurred. Of course we took longer to go back—being heavily laden—than in coming, but on the morning of the third day Gordon sallied up the horses for Nora Mackenzie and his sister, telling me to get ready and accompany the two women to the station, which we would possibly reach in the course of the afternoon. He said he would come on himself about night-fall. The teams would probably reach the station about the middle of the day.

We talked of many things as we rode back, but we never once mentioned what had occurred at the Macarthur camp. I saw little or nothing of Gordon at several times. It was a strange thing that I should have been so blind as not to recognize her in the character of that half caste, who had been with us in the course of the afternoon. He was those great soulful eyes that had been so struck when I looked upon the face of the woman who had been with us in the course of the afternoon. He was those great soulful eyes that had been so struck when I looked upon the face of the woman who had been with us in the course of the afternoon.

"Prisoner at the bar you are discharged. I regret that in the exercise of justice you have been placed in such a position. The facts of this case have been of such an extraordinary nature that I have not had time to do more than to state the facts of the case. I have not had time to do more than to state the facts of the case. I have not had time to do more than to state the facts of the case."

"You worship," interpreted Saville, "he says you are already 'twice-tongued' in March last, on the ninth day of March, when Farquharson said to have started out with you. Freddy here was with this man, and at Bowen down, some hundreds of miles from the prisoner, who says he saw the prisoner," Saville looked significantly at Saville, who seemed simply bored of speech.
