Mother's advice is worth more than the advice of any other woman to the daughter who is perplexed by the prob-lems of physical health and conifort. There's no need therefore to "write to a There's no need therefore to "write to a woman," who is a stranger. There may, however, be need for a physician's advice to supplement the ad-vice of the mother. In such a case the offer of free consultation by letter, made by Dr. Pierce, opens the way to health, and at the same time avoids the un-pleasant questionings, the repulsive ex-aminations and offensive local treatments which less experienced physicians often

Tested Her Strength. Charley M. was at home from college, spending his summer vacation. The M.'s were people fairly well to do, and Charley was passing the forenoon very comfortable on the cool and shear comfortably on the cool and shady eranda. Down by the barn yard fence, in a neglected place, a crop of strong, healthy weeds had sprung up and flourished under the summer sun. Left unmolested in the rush of work on the farm, they were fast becoming a blot on the otherwise orderly premises, and that morning Charley's father-the "old man"-had sallied forth and was now making a vigorous assault upon the patch. Suddenly he left off his work and came up into the yard. Taking a broomstick which happened to be lean-ing against the veranda, he laid it on the grass, then turned to Charley and

"Losh mail" cried the farmer, throw-ing down his hat on the ground in astonishment at his own stupidity, "I
