Honest Elections.

Our neighbor, the Eagle, of last week, in refering to our article under the above head, among other things says, "But the logic of the (CITIZEN) editor's opposition to Machines is the substituting one Machine for another which promises no improvement whatever."

How the amiable editor of the Eagle than the first day the joint assembly shall meet each succeeding day and vote until a Senator shall be elected."

Expect he ignores his people as to his so who have the member choice, and thus their candidate is never even "na

ing one Machine for another which promises no improvement whatever." How the amiable editor of the Eagle can arrive at such a conclusion we are at a loss to know, his reasoning is evidently a little on the bias, as we said nothing that would lead to such a conclusion. Our opposition to machine politics is because it is wrong in principle, and in time grows into the conditions we have in this state where we Webster's Dictionary defines the word we have in this state where we have a lot of political freebooters who have no regard whatever for what the people want; what the machine wants is the only thing they consider, and by having the "machine in good running of the word and the North American Indian word cawcawwassough, or cau cau-asu," meaning "one who urges or pushes. a promoter."

have no regard whatever for what the people want; what the machine want is the machine want is the machine want is the only thing they consider, and by having the 'machine in good running order," like the highwayman we read of, they say to the people "stand and deliver"; having no regard for the rights of the people in our affairs. What we are in favor of is a full, free, fair, expression of the will of the people at the polls, either primary or general elections, without the interference and "bull dozing" of ANY machine bosses, and when that will is so expressed to the meeting of the machine of the complex of a first order the min of the people away from its subservies, to the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from its subservies cyto the "Quay Machine," the measurement of the people away from the people away f the Legislature.

The Eagle refers to the nomination of Hon. John Dindinger for the Legislature in 1898 and tries to insinuate that he was nominated by Democratic votes. Such an assumption is wholly unwarranted, and a reflection on the honesty of the Republicans of Zelienople and vicinity, and on the candidate who was elected and faithfully stood up for the interest of the people when in the office to which he was chosen. For the information of the Eagle, for it don't seem to know, there is quite an addition to mation of the Eagle, for it don't seem to know, there is quite an addition to the borough of Zelienople, called "Zelienople Extension," adjoining, but outside the borough limits in Jackson township, where quite a number of Republicans live. To vote at their township polling place they would have to go all the way to Harmony or near there, quite a distance for many of them, and as they were all well known Republicans, the election officers in a sort of neighborly spirit, seem to have relaxed the rules a little, a thing that is not advisable, and permitted them to vote at ern California some thirty years ago to take charge of a large landed estate Scott and others, and he speedily won

After the organization, "America," was sung. The devotional exercises were con-ducted by Rev. Hazlett, of Sarversville. This is all there is in the "tempest i a tea pot" our neighbor tries to raise, and we think it should apologize to Mr. Dindinger and the Zelienople Republi-cans for the inferential attack on the

Prof. J. E. Kocher, Prin. of Zelienople High School, gave a very interesting talk on "Brevity in the crowded school room." He said, variety is the spice of life and brevity is necessary to permit variety. The action of the House and Senate Committees in reporting a bill for the immediate construction of the Nicarau gua Canal, before the expert commission appointed by the President has had time to make its report, is one of the most humiliating affronts ever offered the control of the most humiliating affronts ever offered the control of the most humiliating affronts ever offered the control of the most humiliating affronts ever offered the control of the contr to the Chief Executive of the American nation. to the Chief Executive of the Anerican nation. Unfortunately, the whole Isthmian Canal question is so technical and so little understood, that the shameful significance of what is just now happening in Congress is little likely to be realized by the mass of the American people. Nevertheless, it is a fact, and we say so deliberately, that the conspiracy on the part of the Honse and Senate committees to jostle the President and his commission out of the way, and jam this canal bill through Congress with a rush, is a proceeding so brutal, so redolent of the "pot-house politician," as to be almost without a parallel in the history of was when the people commence to think more of their children than they do of their domestic animals then the advantages of a higher education will be greater. Both gentlemen showed that there is quite a defect in our present arrangement and asserted that something better is coming and is most likely the form of a Center High School. The question is, are we going to be first or last to get it? The speakers of the evening were Miss Laura Limberg, Mr. John Pollock, Mr. J. T. McCandless, and Mr. Elliott, each gave a lot of good thoughts. The music was rendered by the Middletown school, which was well devotion when she falls a sacrifice for scholaristic skill and composition and was highly appreciated by the audience.
