BOSS POLITICS.

The Eagle, in its last issue, under the head of "The Majority Rule," has an article advocating that principle, with which we agree-which is "that the will of the majority, freely and fairly expressed, must be respected." All fair minded men agree with this, and the surprising thing to us is that The Eagle will talk in that way, and at the same time gc on supporting the Quay machine, and the set of fellows, who for many years have made it a study how the "will of the majority" could be set aside and the "will of the Boss" made Harrisburg, Feb. 27.—By the time this letter reaches its readers Mr. Quay's case will have doubtless been taken up in the senate of the United States for discounter It will be fusal to recognize the caucus action.

It is simply a demonstration of what has been so often claimed by the Republicans who are opposing Mr. Quay's re-election that whenever it suited the purposes of the Quay people to ignore they did it without regard for precedence or established rule. It is so in this case. The vote by which it was agreed to permit the Quay case to come up was 34 ayes to 24 nays, Demo-crats as well as Republican senators voting on the question.

Among those who voted against taking up the case were administration leaders like Hanna, Proctor and other who when the case comes for direct vote before the senate will doubtless vote to seat Mr. Quay. But by voting against taking up the case now the were voting to sustain the action of the caucus. On the other hand the recognized the binding effect of a cau eus and did not propose even in a scrupies, and on the piea that the case involved the highest privilege, he called it up and declared that he would push it to a conclusion no matter what stood in the way or what caucus plans were set aside.

CAUCUS NOT BINDING. The plea the Quayites and the ma The plea the Quayites and the machine is making in this state to secure the election of Quay members of the house and senate is that Republicans who refuse to enter a Quay caucus at Harrisburg are not regular Republicans, and are outside the pale of the party. It suits the machine and its puposes to do this, but when it suits the purpose of Senator Penrose or Mr. Quay to ignore a caucus in Washington to accomplish their ends they ignore the cry they raise in Pennsylvania and act as they see fit. By this acnia and act as they see fit. nia and act as they see it. By this ac-tion Senator Penrose has established a precedent for ignoring a caucus at Harrisburg or anywhere else. A GREAT VICTORY.

This victory over the combined forces of the Republican machine and their Democratic associates is one of the greatest ever achieved in Philadel-phia. It wrought consternation in the Quay camp and created such havoc among Democrats that it is more than likely that the present Democratic organization in Philadelphia will go to pieces. As it is, these Democrats are not Democrats. It is merely an organization of the most disreputable elementaries that the second ments in the slums of the city, banded together to make whatever they can ballot box stuffing in conjunction with he Republican machine.
