
FITTING TRUSSES

Is not guess work. We are not satisfied simply to sell a truss that approximates the size of the customer, for we want the truss we sell to do the work they are expected to do and to be comfortable at the same time. Sometimes a little intelligent bending of the truss band is needed. We do it, and we promptly order special sizes if necessary.

Nerves Unstrung.

Weak Stomach; Pain in the Chest; Sleepless, Nervous, Irritable; all run Down. Cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Nearly every disease is the sign of poverty, either of the blood or of the nerves. When the brain cells and nervous tissues are used up faster than they are repaired, not only the brain and nerves, but every vital organ of the body cries out for help. Headaches, neuralgia, heart disease, nervous dyspepsia and liver and kidney troubles run rampant in the helpless system, destroying whatever strength remains until at last the break-down comes and then—

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is doing a world of good for such weak, nervous people, whose brain and body are overtaxed, but who may yet be saved from a state of indescribable wretchedness, and restored to lives of happiness and industry. By soothing and strengthening the secretive glands of the digestive organs it facilitates digestion and assimilation, while the nervous system is rapidly built up again and put to work without confusion, thus bringing all the important organs into harmony and restoring perfect health.

"About seven years ago I was all run down with nervousness and heart trouble and was so bad that I had to give up work. I was nervous, sleepless and irritable all the time and although several doctors treated me I did not improve any under their care. Hearing Dr. Miles' Nervine well spoken of for such troubles I commenced using it and grew better from the start. When I had used three bottles I felt that I was cured; but I still keep a bottle of the Nervine on hand, and when I am unusually tired or nervous I take a dose and am all right again. I took Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills along with the Nervine and found them the best Liver Pills on the market."—ALBERT CRANE, Newark, Ohio.

TROUBLE FOR PAW.

READS MAW A JOKE WHICH SHE FAILS TO COMPREHEND.

And the Head of the Household Gives Way to a Very Unseemly Fit of Temper After Endeavoring to Draw a Diagram of the Jest.

Paw was reading in analmauniek that I Brot home from the drug Store last nite, and pritty soon he commenct to laff.

"What's rong?" maw ast.

"This is one of the Best joaks I ever seen," paw says. "Lissun and I'll read it To you. 'Why is The mistake of a Dockter not as Bad as that of a Dentust?' Do you no?" paw ast.

"No," maw told him.

"'Becoz,' paw red, 'one fills six feet and the uther fills an alker.'"

"How do they do that?" says maw.

"Becoz they make a mistake," paw answerd.

"Which makes it?" maw ast.

"Both of them," paw says. "Didn't I just read it? That's why the mistake the dockter makes ain't as Bad as the dentust's."

"Why not?" maw ast.

"The dockter only Fills six Feat," paw answerd, "and the Dentust fills an alker."

"I don't understand about the Feat," maw Told him. "Why does he Fill six feet, and what Does he fill them with?"

Paw began to look kind of glassy out of his eyes, and he Red the joak again to Himself so he would be sure he Didn't make Enny mistake. Then he says:

"Why, you see if a Dockter would make a mistake it mite be fatle, and So he would fill Six feat of erth with a man, Becoz the man would be About six Feat long, you no."

"I don't see mutch to Laff at about Sutch a thing," maw told him. "May be it miten't be a man at all, or else he mite Be short."

"Oh, well," paw says, "it Just says he would be a Six footer so to Make it come in funny with the alker."

"What does it mean by that?" maw ast.

"That's the joke," paw says.

"Which is?" maw Told him.

"Why, the alker, you no." Paw answerd.

"Where are they enny joak about That?" maw ast.

"The dentust Fills it, you no," paw sed, but he Didn't seem to be very sure about it by That time.

"Yes," maw Says, "but you sed he made a mistake."

"Don't you No what an alker is?" paw ast. "A tooth that you fill is an alker, you no, and they have alkers of ground."

"But where Does the mistake come in?" maw told him.

"Why, he Fills the rong one," Paw answerd, wiping his Brow and kind of looking around like if he was trying to see if the escape was all cut off.

"Well, then, how Does he Fill the alker," maw ast, "if the Tooth he Fills Is a Good one and duzzent need To be filled? It wouldn't be an alker if It was all rite, would it?"

Paw got up and Threw the Allmanack in the wastebasket after he Tore it in Two and sed:

"There's no Use trying to Bring enny sunshine into this Family, and I want to drop the subjeckt rite now. The man who rote that joak was a fool and the Fello that printed it in the Allmanick was a worse one, but I ain't going to rong Either one of them By unjust suspishens. Mebby they didn't ever try To tell it to a woman."—Georgie in Chicago Times-Herald.

Providing Against Emergencies.

"Leonidas," said Mr. Meekton's wife severely, "do you think a man ought to go down town and avoid his home and stay awake at night?"

"Certainly not, Henrietta; certainly not—that is, of course, not unless he's told to."—Washington Star.

Appropriateness In Attire.

"Uncle Rastus, they are discussing the question in the east whether it is good form for a preacher to wear colored shirts. What do you think of it?"

"Hit's all right, chile, ef de preacher's cullud."—Chicago Tribune.

A Transferable Tale.

"And what did he say when he heard that story?"

"Oh, he laughed heartily."

"What, at himself?"

"No. You see I put you in his place."—Boston Courier.

"WITH BRAINS SIR!"

A great artist was once asked what he mixed his pigments with to obtain such wonderful effects. His reply was: "With brains, sir!"

This would be the real answer to hundreds of people who are all the time asking what Dr. Pierce's medicines are mixed with to produce such marvelous cures. These medicines are the result of Dr. Pierce's thorough professional education; his deep study of the principles of materia medica and of the human physiology in health and disease; and above all his unparalleled practical experience.

"I thank God for giving you wisdom and knowledge, and guiding you in making these medicines," says Mrs. H. A. Alsbrook of Austin, Lonoke Co., Ark. In an earnest letter to Dr. Pierce. "After five months of great suffering I write this for the benefit of other sufferers from the same afflictions. I doctored with our family physician without any good results, so my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines—which I did, with wonderful results. I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

There is no medicine in the world that has helped and cured so many weak and ailing women, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was devised solely for that purpose by one of America's most eminent specialists in this particular field of medical practice. Any woman may write to Dr. Pierce for advice which will be sent confidentially and absolutely free of charge.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent for the mere cost of mailing; paper-bound for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. It is a grand and useful book. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
