Maker to Wearer. Every self-respecting man desires to e well dressed; his friends and neigh-ors respect him all the more. A well-dressed man is always at peace with himself and the whole world. The Chicago Tailors' Association, is a union of practical Tailors, asking only fair wages for their labor. They are all artists in their line—it is impossible for them to make other than high-grade garments. Even the lowest $9.33 sui (express prepaid) cannot be duplicated at anywhere near our prices. It will pay you to call on the Salesman or send him a postal and he will call on you with the finest line of cloths ever shown.

FOR SALE.

Another large invoice of Bedroom suits just received at Amy' & Brown's. Competition is not in it when you compare quality and prices here. Think of it! A fine Oak suit (three pieces) for only $19! See them quick while they will be the plumber. The prices are right and before purchasing elsewhere, you will do well to call at Geo. W. Whitehill's, the plumber.

Reuben Shanor, the well known post-master of Prospect was severely hurt last week by being thrown from a buggy. He had driven to Harmony and back in a two horse rig and had stopped in front of the post office before driving to the barn. The horses frightened at something and started for Dick's livery barn. As they wheeled into the drive-way leading to the barn. Mr. Shanor was thrown out against a tree. His arm and several ribs were broken and at work in the machine shop at the Roy McIntyre of the Evans-Templeton machine shop had the end of a finger of his left hand torn in the machinery last week.

The terrible accident in a railroad unnel in Philadelphia, last Saturday, proves the folly of entrusting an important tower station to one man. This time the one man fell asleep, and allowed the second section of a fast freight to crush into the rear of the first see tion, killing the engineer and fireman. Then 4000 gallons of oil took fire and that tunnel was turned into a great furnace. The bodies of the engineer,
