Superintendent Hutchinson said Barr had the substratum of alcoholic insanity, and if he were released he might take to drinking again and do violence to his family. He admitted there had been an inprovement in the patient's condition since he has been in Dixmont, but thought he should be kept there a little longer. He said he considered Barr had been a lunatic for years. Drs. R. S. Sutton, L. H. Willard and Samuel Ayres appeared as witnesses in behalf of Barr. They had all examined him since he has been in Dixmont. They agreed that he
