

THE CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, July 26, 1900.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE: All advertisements intended to make names in their respective lines, or to give information to the public, should be sent to the Editor of this paper, and not to the printer.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Wondrous sunsets. —You're a Shanghai liar. —Horrible harvest weather. —Don't get excited! Keep cool. —Beware of the "Yellow Peril". —West Jefferson St. is impassable. —Days are becoming a little shorter. —The Park is to have a permanent band-stand. —There's a rush in the larger towns to enlist for China.

—The people of W. North St. are preparing to pave. —When two men argue, each usually thinks the other a fool. —The crop of rice here is said to be unusually large this year. —John Baldeger keeps an excellent boarding house at Troutman. —You can't tell by the height of a man's collar what he amounts to. —Harvey Colbert is building an addition to the rear of his store-room. —Our merchants are having a lull in trade now; farmers too busy to come to town. —Gen. Sherman's terse description of war would have fitted last week's weather. —China will soon be wanting somebody to help her get on the Russian bear's tail. —The old pipe, from the Hospital to the borough, line is said to be in a dangerous condition.

—The census enumerators are waiting for their pay, and the public is waiting for the figures. —Cotton shipments to China have been suspended. Cotton wants to know who is king in that country. —Now that the Centennial Souvenirs are down to 25 cents everyone ought to buy one and save for the next. —The C. E. Society of Buffalo church held a lawn fete this evening, to which everybody will be made welcome. —The Street Car Co. has located its power house near Stamm's brick yard, in a lot purchased from Chas. Duffy. —The doctors say that too much ice cream soda is injurious but it's a mean man that will quote that his best girl.

—The most hopeless kind of a skeptic and drifting wreck," says a western paper, "is a woman who has lost her faith in doctors. —A petition is in circulation asking the County Commissioners to build a better band-stand in the Park, and put in some benches. —"This would be a happier world," said the orn'd philosopher, "if more of us got what we wanted and fewer of us got what we deserved." —The farmers of Crawford county are paying $2 a day and board for harvest hands, and it is said that they are glad to get labor at that price. —The proprietors of the "Child's Eye" and "Giant of California" gladiators would like of envy if they could see the looks of six-foot beauties.

—The Boys Brigade of the Y. M. C. A. goes into camp at Slippery Rock Park Friday. They will be on ten days and under control of Physical Director Harrison. —A young man in this town gives the following advice: There is nothing that tends to shorten the lives of old people and to injure their health so much as the practice of sitting up late evenings, especially if there is a grown daughter in the family. —Wednesday last week the Prospect baseball club drove to Renfrow and were beaten by the Renfrow club 8 to 3. John Waddell and Os Shaeffer were the Prospect battery. Two weeks before Renfrow played at Prospect, the latter winning 12 to 9.

—A case of rabies has appeared in Washington county on the farm of Samuel Thomas. About six weeks ago a dog appeared on the Thomas farm, and was chased on the enclosure where blooded sows were kept, but not before it had bitten three of the animals. For several weeks the swine seemed all right, but recently went mad and died in great agony. —A man in Herkimer, N. Y., thinks he has written the shortest poem on record. He is employed in a Herkimer hotel and has posted this notice on the door: Don't set on the step. He doesn't explain why he calls it poetry, and the matter has been referred to the new poet laureate of the Commonwealth.

—The appearance of a sea serpent in Long Island Sound with eyes as big as saucers, a ferocious-looking mouth, etc., induced a local poet laureate, to get off the following: It may have been a jaberwock. Or an antediluvian snake. That, liberating an oar or so, Of a sudden became awake. It lit a hole in the outer bar, And swallowed a breaker or two, And scared all the lather-out of the surf As all sea serpents do. But 'twasn't a serpent of the sea. This monster, newly found, Was something stranger far than that. A serpy of the South. —LOST—A lady's brown jacket, near White Oak Springs Church. The finder is requested to leave it at the Cretzen Office.

—Try Brown & Co. on a Sewing Machine. We sell the New Royal and New Home Machines. Price $16.75 up. —Bradley's Pure Vegetable Oil. Trade Mark. All Headaches, Catarrh, Neuralgia and Muscular Rheumatism cured or no pay. Apply to Hotel Waverly. —A 100-gal guaranteed agents (man or woman) selling one high grade laundry and toilet soap. For exclusive territory write Milton Soap Co., 612 P. Adams street, Chicago.

PERSONAL.

John C. Kelly has moved from Carr to Butler. —Mrs. James McMarlin is sojourning at Cambridge. —A. J. Riggall, of Great Belt, was in town Tuesday. —C. E. Herr and wife are on a trip up the Cheat river. —Thos. Cooper, of Jefferson twp., was in town Tuesday. —Dan Kennedy has purchased the Reitz grocery, in the West End. —J. Raylor, of Fairview twp., was in town last Friday for a load of feed. —Charles A. Clark and family of Grecco have moved to Robinson's Mills, W. Va. —Amos Sexton of Ear Collins has been a business visitor in town for a few days past. —Rev. D. C. Martin and wife of East End, Pittsburg, are the guests of J. J. McCandless and wife.

—W. W. Harrison, of Bennett, and J. H. Stoddard, of Wm. Gallagher, of Great Belt, last week. —Mrs. J. W. Hutchison and children are spending the hot season with her parents in W. Scenery. —Mrs. Joseph Crawford of Butler twp. returned Saturday, from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Stevens. —W. C. Barron has sold his interests in Wood county, Ohio, and is now located in Slippery Rock, Ohio. —Prince Tuan, the alleged brother of the legation, is the latest to send assurances via Shanghai of their safety. —Mrs. Elvira Lyon and Miss Anna Adams returned Saturday, from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Stevens. —John Breesehan of Water St. came home Tuesday, after a stay with his family. He is working in the W. Va. oil fields. —Miss Clara Florence and Jennie Connelley, of the estate of the late Mrs. L. Reynolds, came to Chantanooga yesterday. —Dr. Samuel D. Bell of Tronson, Arizona, arrived in Butler Tuesday, and is visiting his children, Dr. Harry Bell and Miss Leola Bell.

—Esq. George Turner, of W. Scenery returned Tuesday, from a visit with his brother, Clerk Courts W. P. Turner, who is quite ill. —Harry H. Negley Esq. and Will Ritter of Boggs & Buhl, came out from Pittsburg Saturday for a short stay with Butler relatives. —Miss Nova Negley, a daughter of Major F. C. Negley of Pittsburg, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Susan Patterson, last week. —Miss Gertrude Siebert of W. Wayne St. is attending the teachers' assembly presided over by State Super. Schaffer at Chantanooga, N. Y.

—Miss Irene Evans, of North Main street, who has been visiting friends in Pittsburg, has returned home on account of a severe illness. —County Auditor, P. H. Seehler of Prospect is said to raise remarkably large rainbows. Lately he sent one a yard long to F. M. Honro. —Lieut. William Varnum, of the Navy Department at Washington, D. C., is spending a short vacation with his family at the farm of Mrs. M. E. Chittenden, near the mouth of the Cheat river. —Mrs. Dr. Krescenz of Farnham, Neb. formerly Miss Maggie Kelly, is visiting her friends in Butler and vicinity, and S. R. Kelly of New Castle is also here. —Miss Myrtle Uhrey of Hilliard and Scott Campbell, of The Westbury store and Weaver, returned Tuesday, from a lecture by the Rev. M. E. Chittenden.

—F. M. Honro has moved his marble shop from Cunningham St. to the second floor of No. 315 S. Main St., over Sutton's drug store, where he will be pleased to receive his patrons. —Dr. W. H. Brown left Butler, Monday afternoon, for his sister at Denver, Colo. He expects to be gone for a number of weeks. Dr. Williams will look after the office. —Henry Pillock who had both bones of his left leg broken at the shin by a kick from a horse three weeks ago is able to enter the medical department of John Hopkins university at Baltimore Md. this fall. —Robert Fisher and wife of the Butler Dye Works, left Butler this morning for a five week's visit at Jamestown and Chantanooga. Their son, who is on a four week's trip over the same route, Tuesday.

—Arthur Black, formerly of the Cretzen and now with the Pittsburg Milling and Flour Co., and Miss Minnie E. Zimmerman, daughter of Jeremiah Zimmerman of the West End, were married at the bride's home, Wednesday. The bride and groom will make their home in Allegheny City. —Miss Alice Collins and Mrs. Mattie Renfrow of Maita left Monday afternoon on their trip to Europe. They sailed Wednesday from New York on the American liner St. Louis and are to tour the British Isles, Holland, Germany France and perhaps Italy, winding up with the Paris Exposition. —Jose Heyrick and Esq. Kennedy returned, Monday, from the Indian Territory, where they completed the lease of a large tract of land. They are returning to a company of which they are part. Their dealings were with headquarters while in the territory were in a town of same name. They brought home a bottle of lubricating oil from the territory, and also a specimen of copper and zinc ore, and they are greatly pleased with the result. —The Indian Territory, which is part of the territory are the citizens and land owners, and the white men there are the laborers. The Indians are the owners of the land, and the white men are the laborers. The Indians are the owners of the land, and the white men are the laborers.

—The Protected Home Circle picnic at Horn Park, Youngstown, Ohio, next Thursday, Aug. 2, is a picnic in the park. The P. & W. Railroad will leave Butler at 8 a. m., local time, stopping at Renfrow, Colliery, Youngstown, and Ellwood City. It will leave Youngstown on the return trip at 7:30 p. m., and will stop at Renfrow, Colliery, and Ellwood City. The round trip, half for children between 5 and 12 years of age. The Park is enclosed and contains 450 acres of woods, forest and stream, the natural beauty of which is unsurpassed by any other in the country. The attractions of the Park are further enhanced by beautiful Lake Collins, the old Idora Mill and Falls, a large dancing pavilion, capable of sheltering several thousands of people in case of rain, beautiful Open Air Theatre, Electric Merry Go Round, Bowling Alley, commodious Dining Hall, equipped with Stoves and all modern conveniences for the picnic. —Since last season the Park & Falls Hallway has been double tracked and its equipment of Observator Cars greatly augmented. The cars pass within a half a square of the Pittsburg & West End Passenger Station, and Youngstown are therefore easily accessible to excursionists arriving by that line. Far from Youngstown to the Park, including admission to the Park. The Circle anticipates the greatest outing in its history.

—Brown & Co. are selling from beds at reduced prices. Get one while they are here, at the time, and get one at reduced prices. —BROWN & CO. —M. C. Beckenbender has removed into Duffy Block 3 doors south of his old stand where he can be found with a full line of shoes, hardware, sewer pipe etc. We still do roofing, plumbing and jobbing, will be glad to see all my old customers at the new stand. —WANTED—Boarding, lodging for a young man on a farm during summer and fall months, at fair prices and accommodations. Address J. Citizen office. —New, four-room house for sale in quite at this office.

—WANTED—Boarding, lodging for a young man on a farm during summer and fall months, at fair prices and accommodations. Address J. Citizen office. —New, four-room house for sale in quite at this office.

LEGAL NEWS.

NOTES. —Peter Slater has been committed to the Polk institution for feeble minded on petition of overseers C. Sharrach and H. Stoddard Miller. —David S. Holliday who is charged with aggravated assault and battery has been committed to jail. —Edward Rollins, a twelve-year-old colored boy, is in jail charged with robbing a peddler. —Saturday, Aug. 4 will be the last day for filing accounts to next term with Register Adams. —E. T. Sasse of Mars has been held out for $200 for two men, who were charged with a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Harry W. Roth. —G. C. Sackman, a storekeeper at Conaway, 10 miles from Sistersville, W. Va. killed Cal Jordan, a drifter from Brady's Bend, Pa., on Friday. There has been a feud between these two men, who is wealthy and has a family in jail. —Letters of administration on the estate of John C. Clark, dec'd., of Marsh twp. have been granted to Sarah A. Clark. —Letters of administration on the estate of William Snyder, dec'd., of Marsh twp. have been granted to Esq. Samuel A. Leslie. —The Commissioners of Clarion county offer a reward of $200 for two men, who escaped jail, also a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the person who furnished them with dynamite. The men effected their escape by blowing out the window of an unoccupied store, breaking the glass windows a square away and around the whole neighborhood, but the men had fastened the jail and it started to run. Mrs. Mervor stepped forward, her head on the ground, and the horse started on a chase around the barn yard dragging her feet. After several times around the yard the horse jumped the fence and the strap broke, releasing the horse, which was considerably frightened but otherwise unharmed. —It seems that the breaking of the strap was that which saved her from more severe or perhaps fatal injuries. —New Wilmington Globe.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon. —Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

ACCIDENTS.

—Ross Shackley of near Petrolia was caught in the belt of an engine on the Parker farm, a few days ago, and crushed to death. —Mr. J. H. Decker, of Franklin township fell and sprained her left knee one day last week, and as her right knee was weak, she may be a cripple for life. —Friend Ekke was thrown from his bicycle on Fairview Ave. Saturday evening and badly bruised. —George Evans carriage was upset by a collision near the Plate Works Saturday evening, and he and his two sisters thrown out. —George Slentz was burned about the face and shoulders by a gas explosion at the Lead Works, Monday. —Crawford's little girl had an odd experience last week. While out walking one evening mosquitoes stung her face and neck, and she closed her eyes. The next day her left eye was closed by the swarms. There are two kinds of mosquitoes, one of which is called the "mosquito" and the other the "mosquito". —Monday evening while Mrs. R. A. McCarty and Miss Gertrude Cameron, of H. J. Klingler & Co's office, were driving on Locust street, they were frightened by a man on a bicycle. Both ladies were thrown from the buggy and Miss Cameron was bruised about the head and back so as to confine her to bed for several days. The horse dashed along the street until he finally ran into a front yard and broke through the fence, breaking his neck and causing his death. The horse was a fine pacing animal, white, with a black saddle, brought with him to Butler, King Mac by name and having a record of 2:20. —Mrs. Lucy Mervor, living north of New Wilmington, had a horse which escaped one day last week. She led a horse out of the barn and was holding it by a long lead. The horse was a loop. After holding the horse in this manner she allowed the line to fall to the ground, and the horse started and it started to run. Mrs. Mervor stepped forward, her head on the ground, and the horse started on a chase around the barn yard dragging her feet. After several times around the yard the horse jumped the fence and the strap broke, releasing the horse, which was considerably frightened but otherwise unharmed. —It seems that the breaking of the strap was that which saved her from more severe or perhaps fatal injuries. —New Wilmington Globe.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

PLICIES AND REIMBURSEMENTS.

—The ninth annual reunion of the Sixteeners of the Mercur Soldiers' orphan school will be held at Mercur on Wednesday and Thursday, August 15th and 16th. Wednesday afternoon will be spent in reviewing the history of the school, and the evening will be given to the home grounds and other places of interest. In the evening a suitable program will be given, and a general picnic arranged for all. On Thursday morning a business meeting will be held for the election of officers. —The Annual Meeting of the West Pennsylvania Association will be held at the home of Curt Wick near West Sunbury. Every body welcome. —Butler Patriot, Secretary.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

RAILROAD NOTICES.

—Excursion to Atlantic City. —And other Atlantic Coast Resorts via Pennsylvania Railroad. —Thursday, August 2 and 16, are the remaining dates of the Pennsylvania Railroad's annual excursion season for 1900 to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Avalon, Annapolis, Wildwood, Holly Beach, N. J., Rehoboth, Del., or Ocean City, Md. Tickets good to return within sixteen days, including date of excursion. —A special train of Pullman parlor cars and day coaches will leave Pittsburgh on above-mentioned dates at 8:55 a. m., arriving at Atlantic City at 12:15 p. m., where stop for dinner will be made, reaching Philadelphia 6:25 p. m., in time for supper, and arriving at Atlantic City, via the Delaware River Bridge Route, the only all-rail line at 4:30 p. m. —Passengers will spend the night in Philadelphia, and proceed to the shore by a regular train from Market Street Wharf. —A stop over ten days will also be allowed at Philadelphia on the going trip, if passengers will deposit their baggage at the Market Street Wharf. —Passengers for points other than Atlantic City will spend the night in Philadelphia and use regular trains the next day from Market Street Wharf. —A stop over ten days will also be allowed at Philadelphia on the going trip, if passengers will deposit their baggage at the Market Street Wharf. —Passengers for points other than Atlantic City will spend the night in Philadelphia and use regular trains the next day from Market Street Wharf.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

THE ONLY WAY

Of getting what you want is to purchase from reliable sources. You may not need our goods often, but when wanted you want them promptly and want the best. The sickroom is no place for experiments. Our prescription department is the most important one with us and we leave nothing undone to secure only the best. A drug may be pure but not up to the standard in strength. Nothing short of the best is thought of with us. Our trade is large enough to keep goods moving so that we have no old stock. Our methods of doing business we think will warrant you in coming back. Every article bearing our name is guaranteed to be just as represented or your money back.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

THE RUSH OF THE SEASON

Should Occur this Week. PHENOMENAL VALUES ARE TO BE CONTINUED. The value of an honest dollar is as much in the spending as in the making. If looking for good values come to us and we'll bet the best suit of clothes in our store to a straw hat we'll sell the clothes. Here are some sensation-ally low prices in suits. All Our $7 Suits, Cheviots and Cassimeres ..... $4.90 All Our $9 Suits, Absolutely All Wool ..... 6.25 All Our $12 Suits, Absolutely All Wool ..... 8.00 All Our $14 Suits, Absolutely All Worsteds ..... 10.00 All Our $16 Suits, Absolutely All Worsteds ..... 12.00 All Our $18 Suits, Absolutely All Worsteds ..... 13.50

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

EVERY DAY A RECORD BREAKER.

EVERY DAY OF OUR GREAT CLEAN-UP SALE has surpassed in every particular the one preceding. Phenomenal has been our success during this great slaughter of bargains and our stock looks a little as though a Kansas cyclone has struck it. But there's quite a few good bargains left and you'll know they are bargains, too, for we've left the old price tag on making the sale price along side. This is no "Fire" or "Water" sale, but a genuine clean-up of new, fresh goods, all stylish, nobby and strictly up to date. Don't delay any longer, but be in the swim.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

—Robert McKissick's house at Enclid, near the house in which the two women were struck, was destroyed by lightning last week. The two women have both recovered, but Miss Stoner has some marks upon her face. —A large barn on the Martin Hemphill farm near Chicon was struck by a bolt of lightning, and destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon.

DOUTHETT & GRA