Out of Style. Out of the World!

Our garments have a style that is easily distinguished from the ordinary. They are the result of careful study and practical application of the ideas gathered by frequent visits to the fashion centers.

MAKER OF ALAND, MEN'S Clothes

Spring STYLES. Men don't buy clothing for the purpose of spending money. They desire to get the best possible results for the money expended.

G. F. KECK, 42 North Main Street, Butler, Pa.

LAVATORY APPLIANCES nowadays have to be of the best to receive any sort of consideration. Closed plumbing is a relic of the past--open work only receives attention.

Memory, Not Mystery.

"Memory can play the strangest of tricks," says a specialist, "and it is responsible for not a few superstitious fears in sensitive people."

Never bear more than one kind of trouble at a time.

Where large streams are adjacent to fruit lands and diversion at a sufficiently high level is not practicable, elevation by pump to a proper point for gravity flow or direct application from the discharge pipe of the pump are being largely resorted to.

The importation of the mongoose, a little animal which is a native of India, has been forbidden by act of congress.

"Say, captain, I've got something very important to see you about. I'll just close this door, and it's just as well that no one knows what we do or say."

Two Tight Corners.

"That's all right, my friend. I'm perfectly willing you shall carry out your mission; but, to tell the truth, I hate to see blood all over my furniture here. It wouldn't be nice to dirty up the office, would it? Suppose we go in the back room?"

How a Friendly Ox Treated a Dog Too, Too Kindly.

One time as the Ox wandered about the field he found the Dog asleep in the shade of a tree, and as he came to a halt and looked down upon the canine he said to himself:
