LOVE RULES ALL

And said I that my limbs were old?

And said I that my blood was cold
And that my kindly fire was fled
And my poor withered heart was dead
And that I might not sing of leve?
How could I to the dearest theme?
That ever warmed a minstrel's dream,
So foul, so false a recreant prove?
How could I name love's very name
Nor wake my harp to notes of flame?

In peace Love turns the shepherd's reed;
In war he mounts the warrior's steed;
In halls in gay attire is seen,
In hamlets dances on the green.
Love rules the court, the camp, the grove,
And men below and saints above,
For love is heaven, and heaven is love.
—Sir Walter Scott.

Dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures the worst forms of the disease. It cures when all other medicines have failed to benefit. Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He indicated the road to destroy, a branch or feeder of the Union Pacific.

Smith soon had the old road torn up and the new one laid down. Then came war. Stockholders of the Union Pacific learned of the enterprise and haled Smith to court to answer for tearing up a railroad that belonged to them. To their questioning he admitted all and had no excuse but that Jay Gould ordered him to do it.
"Who is Jay Gould?" some asked.

"What has be got to do with it?" Up rose a young lawyer from New York to inform them that Mr. Gould owned all the bonds of the Union Pa-cific road, though not a dollar of its stock, and that he was absolute pro-prietor of the feeder that Mr. Smith had torn up. There never was a more surprised and mystified lot of men.

SHE HAS A NEW VALISE. Why She Bought It and Why, Alse

She Will Not Lend It. A Portland woman tells this story which may have a moral: Several years ago her husband made her a present of a traveling bag made of black Russia leather, handsomely mounted and strong and serviceable She had had it only a few days when the sister-in-law of her boarding mis tress borrowed it to take with her to much nicer than her own was her apology. It had only been returned a few days when a friend who was going to take a little journey up among the hills of Oxford county beg-ged the loan of it, and again it was taken down from "the upper shelf."

Then another friend was to make visit of a few weeks in Montreal

Could she take it? She could and did. By this time the new look had vanhed, and still its owner had had no occasion to carry it. One evening a favorite cousin called. He was captain of a brig which was to sail for the coast of Africa the next day, but he himself was going on a steamer via England. Did his cousin have a valise she wouldn't need for six months or so? Reluctantly the traveling bag was produced, and that was the last time the lady saw it for two years, when it reached her by the hand of a sailor from the brig. But it was in such a battered and forlorn ondition that she consigned it to the waste barrel. In the meantime she had bought new valise, which she declined to lend. -Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

Cart Londed With Bricks That 1899. BUT. Posed on the Roof of Harvard Me-morial Hall-A Weird Decoration "In all ages," said the man who observes, "boys have been boys, and it at times their play may smack of brutality, at others it is amusing and even clever. At length they tried to re us with the hose, but having and pated the move we were without range. But unnoticed behind us been standing the principal of school. On his august person stream of water descended like avenging fate, and before the pa stricken firemen could turn it away was wet to his respectable skin. water froze as it struck, and we w presently gazing upon a human ici "At length we recovered sufficient to go to his aid and, wrapping him in coats, drove him rapidly to his home, during which the entire school shook in its shoes, while the wretched firemen were for resigning in a body. But he was a thorough good fellow, and beyond a few words as to the wrong we were doing in interfering with a public servant in the discharge of his duty he allowed the incident to pass by unnoticed.

"The town hall was one of thos hideous and bleak structures so common in the New England towns of 20 years ago, where the only attempt at decoration was a funereal cupola in the exact center of the roof, on top of which was a large figure of Justice To the horror of the selectmen the town awoke one morning to gaze upon a transfigured Justice. A light blue crinoline skirt and red shawl enwrap ped her figure, and she looked coquet tishly out from beneath the shadow of an immense poke bonnet. As a particularly happy thought, she was weighing two babies in the scales.

"Then came an awful row. The town had no hook and ladder truck without the aid of which no one could be found to remove the garments. The nearest hook and ladder company was 12 miles distant and required not only permission of the town council but the expenditure of cash to bring it over. The selectmen declared that as it was manifestly a trick of the students the faculty should pay. The faculty firm-ly refused, holding that there was no proof that such was the case. For ten days the controversy raged, and then the selectmen gave way and paid for the book and ladder truck. The day the hook and ladder company was to come a storm sprang up which lasted for three days. When the god-dess was finally stripped of her clothing, the dyes had run, and she emerged tinted with all the colors of the rainbow. She had to be painted afresh, the selectmen footing the cost with sullen faces.

"The secret was successfully kept as to how the goddess was decorated The night previous to the occurrence there had been a show in the town hall. When it was over, the captain of the football team and two fellow conspirators had sneaked beneath the balze fronted stage. When all was quiet, they had ascended to the roof. Once there one end of a long rope had been attached to the captain's waist and the other to that of one of the others. The third man accompanied the climber to the base of the figure with the bundle of clothes. The skirt and babies were easily placed, but the shawl and bonnet came as harder work, the figure rocking fearfully on its base. The idea of the rope was that in case the dresser fell he would he saved from rolling to the ground. capacity of a wooden bucket. In dry measure, 830 tamarind seeds make when he bounded from the sloping sides of the roof he undoubtedly would have carried the football captain to the make one "kwien," or cart. This is ground with him. They didn't think an example of the primitive origin of of this, however, and it gave them a greater feeling of safety."-New York
