THE LITTLE MINISTER-OCT. 13. The season will offer nothing better than Chas Frohman Company present ng Mr J. M. Barrie's "The Little Min is ing Mr J.M. Barrie's "The Little Min ister," the author's own stage version of his great scotch novel of the same name which comes to the Park, October 13th. Mr. Chas. Frohman, in all of his long and successful careeer, has never offered a more popular attraction than "The Little Minister", has proven to be. The quaint people of "Thums", seem to have been taken right into the public's good graces at once, and there are not today a more popular body of people in America than the Scotch people who help "Gavin Dishart", the "Little minister", tell the story of how "Lady Babbie" won the Parish Preacher. They seem to carry with them "one touch of nature that makes the whole world kin"
