

THE CITIZEN.

WILLIAM C. NEBLEY - Publisher

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1900.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY of Ohio. For Vice President, THEODORE ROOSEVELT of New York.

Electors-at-Large. CLARENCE WOOD of Philadelphia. FRANK H. BURN of Mercer.

And for Governor, E. H. HARTENBERG. Congressmen-at-Large, GALUSIA A. GROW, R. H. FORBES.

For State Senate, A. G. WILLIAMS. For Assembly, J. B. MATES, N. H. THOMPSON.

For Jury Commissioner, JOHN G. CHRISTY.

PLATFORM.

PROTECTION PROSPERITY PROGRESS

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Friday, Oct. 12th, at Hilliards; Hon. J. B. Showalter and J. M. Leighner.

Saturday, Oct. 13th, at Prospect; S. F. Bowser and J. D. McKinley.

Saturday, Tuesday, Oct. 14th, to be addressed by Col. Thompson and Hon. J. B. Showalter.

Butler, Wednesday, Oct. 24, Hon. J. D. Darghery of Kittanning and Hon. James Francis Burke of Pittsburgh will be the speakers at the Republican Mass Meeting to be held in Butler, on Wednesday, the 24th.

Nirvana.

"This apathy of which so much is said is the apathy of contentment. Our people are attaining the sublime contentment of Nirvana." - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

And as he preached he formulated a system of religion, the goal of which was Nirvana - Quay at Meadville.

Nirvana? Nirvana? What is a thing like that? Some twenty-five hundred years ago, a young Indian prince whose name was along the Ganges, and who had spent his early manhood in such luxury and licentiousness as to cause his relatives to complain of it, suddenly became good and began preaching.

"Murdered."

"I am under some obligations to Greenville and to Mercer county. I remember well when the time of the Stewart, your member of Congress, was my kind friend in the time of need. That is long ago. Afterward a member of Congress from this district, the Honorable John Allison, whom some of you remember, a son of Beaver county, became one of your citizens. He was also my friend and my connection by marriage. And then there was good and honest and true and a man from the Haywood. He was murdered by the men who are now endeavoring to assassinate the Republican organization." - Quay at Greenville.

"Murdered."

Isn't that a strong word to use Mr. Quay; and shouldn't a Bill of particulars be drawn up with it? Will it Wamaker, or Chris Magee, or Dave Marton or Bill Flinn did it? And how wonderfully people have been mistaken on the matter. There are thousands of Republicans in this State today, who are under the impression that the Republican Party has to leave the state on account of his political and business relations with yourself and your agents; that Haywood's death was from the same cause, and that Cashier Hopkins and Josiah H. Adams put pistols to their heads for the same reason. Now they will have to revise those impressions.

"Murdered."

But if they are all in the Bud-dist heaven of Nirvana, what difference does it make?

POLITICAL.

County Chairman McQuiston and candidates Williams, Thompson and Mates are traveling over the county visiting party workers and marking the poll books. Gov. Roosevelt had a remarkable experience in Chicago last Sunday morning as he was leaving the Trinity reformed church. A crowd of boys invaded him and followed his carriage to his hotel. One wonders where the police of the town were.

ROOSEVELT VISITED ILLINOIS

last week, making from ten to twenty speeches a day.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EX-PRESIDENT

Harrison will take the stump for McKinley is another milestone to democratic hopes. Harrison has been variously reported. First as lukewarm; then as against McKinley's war policy, and some even went so far as to place him among the wavering supporters of Bryan. The ex-president will speak and there will be no mistaking his sentiments. He is among the very ablest men in the Nation. A profound lawyer, a diplomat, a strategist; he took to the presidential office with the equipped mind for the noblest purpose and unending integrity that were found there for many years. When Harrison speaks it will not be through his hat, neither will it be from manuscript hunged to death. It will come in a form and substance that will command attention and give to the campaign the quintessence of dignified literature. - Ex.

IN GREAT BRITAIN THE POLITICAL campaign, whose duration is confined to about five weeks, is in full swing.

When Parliament was dissolved the impression prevailed that the Conservatives were going to be badly defeated. The Liberal party was badly disorganized. They lacked a vigorous and united leadership, nor had they any issue in sight upon which to make an effective appeal to the electorate. The only doubtful point was thought to be the size of the Liberal majority, which was confidently expected that it would be substantially increased.

It is still not believed that the Opposition party, that is the Liberals, have any chance of winning, but they are said to be making a much better fight than had been expected, and the political situation is remaining in a state of uncertainty. They are beginning to fear that their majority in the House of Commons will be smaller, not larger than before.

"This country always has expanded and always will expand, until it falls to the ground under its own greatness." - said Quay at Meadville.

No danger of that, but the Cameron secret society for the purpose of controlling Republican nominations has been so expanded by you till it reaches every village in the state, and it is now falling to pieces of its own rottenness.

THE LAST OF THE LOG HOUNDS.

Mr. Editor: - Last week Mr. Thomas Hays, owner of the Hays home, at this place, purchased from Jas Bredin the old log house and lot on McKean street, known as the old Graham house. This old house and lot is immediately across the alley from the Waverly. Mr. Hays has torn down the old building and is erecting a new one in its place. There would be nothing unusual in this save for the fact that the house was not only the last of the kind on McKean St, but likely the last in the borough of Butler. It was the first time that the Graham house, here was a house-hewed log, weather boarded. This one remained an object lesson to all. Previous to the late Centennial it was thought a photograph of it should be taken and put in the "Souvenir" of this city.

Doctor James Graham, the owner of this house and lot, died here about 1842. He was buried in the cemetery here before and began teaching school in this old log house. It has therefore been known as the old Graham school house. Few if any but the writer of this, are now living here who went to that school. Doctor Graham had been educated in the Waverly, and had been a member of teaching. And thereby "hangs a tale" - or rather, hangs "a tale of nine tails," or "laws," which hung upon the walls of his school room as a warning to all his students as to the discipline and behavior. An account of his use of this gift is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners to John Negley by deed of Feb. 9, 1867, and from him to John Maginnis by deed of March 23, 1867, and from him to David McKunkin by deed of the 9th of Sept. 1867, and by him to Dr. James Graham by deed of March 29, 1865. As the house was there, and some doubt is given in the late history of Butler county, page 165. He was a very disciplinarian, and was a heavy set, strong built man. He was not related to our other Graham people. He was married, but had no children, but we believe had two sisters, one becoming the wife of the Col. Jacob Brenner and the other of Mr. Alexander Henry, who removed from here to Kittanning about thirty years ago.

We cannot ascertain the exact year this old house was built, or who built it. But it is built on lot No. 42 in the original plan of Butler, and the title of that lot passed from the County Commissioners