A World's Record Broken by

Butler.

The New Castle News gives the following history of the hose racing events in that City last Thursday and Friday.

"The First Ward Hose company, of Butler, broke a world's record at Highland park Friday morning during the prize contests incident to the fireman's convention. The company ran 200 yards and laid 150 feet of hose, making a total run of 250 yards, in 33 2-5 seconds.

An unusual number of well known woung Butlerites selected Wednesday, October 10, 1900, as the date of their morning. ALLEGHENY TWP—Skiles & Co of Pittsburg are drilling on the Royle farm adjoining the Durnel.
