REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

The affection of the Republicans of this county for the Grand Old Party—the party of Protection, Prosperity and Progress—was again demonstrated last night by the enthusiastic meeting in the Opera House.

Delegates from all parts of the county were in Butler, and when the red-fire parade headed for the building the house was soon filled to overflowing, with every seat taken and hundreds standing in the aisles and lobby.

At 8 o'clock Chairman McQuiston called for order, and introduced the Butler Club, by a song as a rally song; and then Chairman announced that Col. Thompson had been selected to preside.

John S. Burke of Pittsburgh was then introduced, and he made a rattling speech, taking for his text some questions asked by a local Democratic paper—he answered them so completely and effectively as to carry the whole audience with him.

Through there have been a few surprises in this campaign, the election of McKinley and Roosevelt is considered a certainty by our wisest politicians: our State ticket will have a tremendous majority and as for our local ticket Messrs Showalter, Williams, Mates and Thompson are all reputable men, nominated according to our party rules, and by them entitled to the suffrages of all the Republicans of the county.

At Georgetown, Ky. last Saturday, Henry M. Yontsey, ex-Gov. Taylor's attorney was convicted of being one of the principals in the murder of Goebel, and the jury fixed his punishment at imprisonment for life.

On Saturday last the English government made public the text of an agreement entered into by Great Britain and Germany regarding the settlement of Chinese affairs.

OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

When Joseph B. Showalter was born in Fayette county, this State, Feb. 11, 1851, he had been a resident of Millerstown, this county, since 1873, when he commenced operations in the oil business. He graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., in 1884 and practiced until 1890. In 1886 he was elected by the Republicans to the Legislature, and in 1888 to the State Senate and he is now on the Republican ticket for Congress, his third term.

He deserves the support of all Republicans.
