

THE CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1900.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads. should notify us of their intention to do so at least three months before publication.

Executor's notice, estate of Elizabeth McCandless.

Jury Lists for Dec. Term.

Brown & Co.'s Clothing.

Douglas & Graham's Clothing.

Celery King.

Kirkpatrick's Jewelry.

Newton's Piano.

Brown & Co.'s Locals.

C. & C. Carpet.

Administrators and Executors of estates can secure their receipts books at the CITS office, and persons making public sales have note books.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The oil market remains at $1.10.
The B. P. R. Co. is one thing and B. R. P. Co. is another thing.
The "dawn's early light" is snuffed out by the fog these mornings.

Where there's smoke there's fire—don't always hold good in the smoking car.

A Blair county hunter mistook two girls for game and filled them with shot.

While we are suffering for rain St. Louis and vicinity was flooded, Monday.

The hospital has eight typhoid fever patients and ten others, the largest number they have ever had.

Geo. W. Whitehill, the plumber, has received his calendar for 1901, and some of them are beauties.

John A. Richey is making pop corn balls for a Pittsburgh firm, and will pay from 2 to 2½ cents for the corn in the ear.

G. B. Timbrell writes us that his horse was cut with some sharp instrument, and not shot as reported; and was found dead next morning.

The mail carriers complain of the screen-doors being fastened on the inside—any way it is high time they were put away for the winter.

A Lawrence county farmer waylaid and attempted to shoot Dr. McMillen, of New Castle, for making public a scandal in his family.

The Women's Hospital Association will hold the regular Annual Meeting to elect officers for the ensuing year on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1900, at 3 p.m., in Y. M. C. A. rooms.

A number of "Beaute" officials who had been inspecting their read-book took dinner in Butler, Monday; and a number of B. & O. officials inspected the P. & W. this week.

Germany and England have formed an alliance to preserve the entity of China. This is following up President McKinley's policy of protesting against its dismemberment.

Four Polish miners attempted to rob a pay wagon in the coal regions of Westmoreland Co. Tuesday afternoon, and all were killed or captured, though they killed one of the pay clerks.

The proposal of Director Wilson of Pittsburgh to sell $2,000 per acre for some of the cabbage-patches near Aspinwall for a site for a filtration plant causes some of the papers to put up a "kick."

Cornelia Alford, who stole $700, 000 from a New York bank, was captured in a Boston hotel, Monday. He seemed very proud of his achievement, and boasted of it. He wanted to shoot himself but his wife would not consent.

An eagle flew from north to south With Mrs. Burton in her hands. And when he found he had a fool He dropped her in the Goffstown school. A New Hampshire school boy wrote this to his teacher, and she whipped him for it till the "blood ran down his legs," and now they are in court about it.

There are fourteen machine shops in Butler, employing about 300 machinists, blacksmiths, apprentices, etc., their wages ranging from $1 to $6 a day. They are engaged almost entirely in making oil well supplies and their business comes from the whole oil region from New York to California. Last week J. B. Sherman got an order from the Pacific coast for six casting cutters, and other machinists also receive orders from that field.

Charles Duffy to Harry Korn lot in Butler for $50.

Elizabeth Love to Rebecca Morris 11 acres in Clinton for $300.

John J. McCafferty to Elizabeth Love 45 acres in Clinton for $300.

John McCafferty to Martha J. McCafferty 64 acres in Clinton for $1.

H. G. Clark to Annie M. Holman 25 acres in Butler for $300.

Alfred Hunt to W. P. H. Stine 95 acres in Brady for $300.

John A. Bortman to John M. Brown 8 acres in Franklin for $400.

John E. Tinker 151 acres in Marion for $300.

Henry Stahl to Margaret Pfaff lot in Millerstown for $300.

John A. Bortman to John M. Brown 8 acres in Clay for $300.

"We vote as we eat." is the new campaign slogan.

Of course, if its a tidal wave, we'll all have to take water.

That explosion in New York shook some of the sky-scrapers.

Last night was a good one for raising h—, and lots of it was raised.

By this time, next Thursday, lots of political predictions will be knocked into the middle of next week.

A street car ran across the P. B. & E. track on Centre Ave. Wednesday, the motorman being unable to stop it.

President McKinley has named Thursday, the 29th, as a day of thanksgiving and praises to Him who holds the Nation in the hollow of His hand.

Hundreds of men will be working the P. W. & F. from Butler to Foxburg, next Sunday changing it to standard gauge. Work will begin Saturday evening and the contractor expects to have the job done by Sunday evening.

Proposed for carrying the mails on the Star Route in this county will be received by the Department up to Dec. 4th. All bids must be by persons who live in the neighborhood and intend doing the work themselves and the successful bidders will be required to leave individual or family mail in boxes along the route, upon approval of the neighboring postmaster.

The government wishes to deal directly with the carriers, as heretofore the Post-Route speculators have made money off them. For instance the Government pays $364 annually for the route between North Hope and Butler, while the man who does the work has been getting but $400. The Harmony Prospect figures are $35-$300. Mt. Chestnut, Butler, $239.70-$180, and so on.

More new Couches and Dave sports at Brown & Co., Get our price before buying.

PERSONAL.

Parks Jamison of Venango twp. was born in yesterday.

J. Bailey of Marion twp. called on Butler friends, Monday.

Dr. Atwell and bride returned to Butler last week and are at the Willard.

William Thompson of W. Sunbury has been changed from the Jarecki building to that of William Dindinger.

The Forest Oil Co. on Tuesday handled Reg. and Rec. Adams 112 leases, assignments, etc., for recording.

Jackson Armstrong and wife of Washington twp. visited friends in Butler, yesterday.

Mrs. Vera Beam and Mrs. Wm. Martin of Beaver twp. were visitors in Butler, Tuesday.

Ad Gibson of Allegheny and T. M. Campbell of Parker did some shopping in Butler, yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Bigelow of Slipperyrock via Butler, and friends of N. Washington St., last week.

J. H. Walker Suppt. for the Mrs. Mary J. Brown of Middlesex twp. was in town Saturday. A new trial has been granted in her case at Beaver.

Deputy Sheriff Dodds and bride returned to Butler last Thursday, and will have room still spring in the Roome building.

Harold Jiles and bride have returned to their future home near Persh, Ind., after visiting his father Chas. Jiles of Thorn Creek.

M. L. Matheny and quite a number of the people of Karns City came in to the Republican Convention last Wednesday.

Miss Lizzie Sterling of Bakerstown returned home, Tuesday, after a visit with the family of her uncle, Thomas Frazier, of Ziegler Ave.

James Graham of Butler is the only veteran of the Mexican war, (native of Butler county) left living in the county today. He is the son of James McBride, chief attorney for the prosecution, and Arthur Goebel, brother of the murdered man, for doing it.

These cases were put on the Quarter Sessions by the Clerk of Courts. There are Edward Johnson, Harry Tark and Stevenson, Larvency, W. M. Kennedy, complainant, Ira Stevens and Everett Johnson, Larvency, W. H. Ensinger, Chapman, Wm. C. Chapman, and Robert H. Agnew, add. Miss Hockembry, comp. same, David Hockembry, comp. Otto Paterson, looking like act. Jas. A. Thompson, comp. W. R. McMillen, comp. and several other felonious embezzlement. Gen. M. Cote, comp. (three cases); L. J. Sneyer, public minister, (fencing up an old road used by R. Thompson the com. in the third), and Robert H. Agnew, (conduct, etc.) Geo. Gees, Yonne, comp., Smith, add. Harry Barnes, comp., Smith threw Barnes out of his restaurant.

A Milwaukee Judge has undertaken to employ the power of injunction to prevent women from talking too much. The respondent in the case was the wife of a Milwaukee groceryman who sets forth in his petition that he is compelled to speak to the store and in interacting with business hours on his eloquence.

Jas. Craft, the progressive miller of Bakerstown, has recently purchased the large flouring mill at Fayette City, owned by the late Com. of the Dutchman in the Woman in the Case Co., is not only made of rubber, but is also the star performer of the best company that has yet been here. This is a brother of Treasurer Rankin.

Harry Barnett, the tall, dark, and handsome son of the Com. of the Dutchman in the Woman in the Case Co., is not only made of rubber, but is also the star performer of the best company that has yet been here. This is a brother of Treasurer Rankin.

E. John Humphrey purchased the skating-ring lot on S. McLean St. nearly opposite the "Waverly," and proposes building a handsome residence upon it. The old "ring" has been torn down.

Harry Barnett, the tall, dark, and handsome son of the Com. of the Dutchman in the Woman in the Case Co., is not only made of rubber, but is also the star performer of the best company that has yet been here. This is a brother of Treasurer Rankin.

Miss Anna Schwille of Butler and Mr. McLean of Clinton were married at Elkhorn, at noon yesterday. A wedding dinner was served at the bride's home and they left on the evening train for Charleroi, their future home.

James A. McMarlin returned, Saturday, from a trip to the old battle fields near Richmond and Petersburg, Va., all of which are now covered with pine trees and brush. He has a poor opinion of Virginia, for agricultural purposes, and is not particularly fond of the country which is fine country.

Frank Kohler, Esq. returned from his European tour, last Thursday. He was with the Ritter and Duffy party through Ireland, England, and Scotland, and left Paris and traveled through southern France, Germany, Switzerland and Italy in company with Rev. Hay, a native of Middlesex twp. He took a tour of cities and towns in France, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa. The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding of last Tuesday, was that of Miss Anna Cos and Everett E. Ralston, which took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cos at Harrison, Pa.

The couple were well witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. John Henderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and experienced some rough weather between the Azores and New York. He saw the best of the sights of Europe, was entertained by the French, and is looking well.

A quiet wedding