GETTYSBURG. Nov. 19th.

The play that will be seen at the Park Theatre is one of the present sea--According to our exchanges. two swindlers are abroad in the land sell-sons successes. The story of the play is told in an intelligent manner, and the scenes and situations possess marked strength. Special Scenery is carried by the Company in order to produce the play in a proper manner, every scene shown on the bill board and in the win-dows will be faithfully presented, the play has received the highest praise from press and public wherever it has appeared, and it will no doubt duplicate its former success in our city.

and beautiful. The flight of the Emperor and the burning of Rome is an impressive stage picture. The burning of the Christians is also a scene that stirs the audience to the highest pitch of 'enthusiam. The singing of the Christians and the prayer and benedictions of the Apostle Peter are solemn and effective, while the original music adds much to its success.

"Quo Vadis" as a play has the honor of breaking all records as to receipts and attendance in Chicago, New York and Philadelphia. The company is a strong one and the scenic effect elaborate and the best services of the best services. Charles Zentz, of Zelienople, of German, have declared their in to become citizens of the U.S.
