WASHINGTON.

The House of Representatives, Thursday, at the end of a long sitting, passed the army reorganization bill by a vote of 166 to 133. Three Democrats-Messrs Hall of Pennsylvania and Underhill and Clayton of New York voted with the Republicans for the bill, and Mr. McCall Republican of Massachusetts, with the was a strict party vote. There are now eight firms in this contry capable of building these things On Friday the House passed the Grout Oleomarganrine bill by a vote of 196 to 92. The substitute offered by the minority of the Committee on Agricui-tare, which imposed additional restric-tions on the sale of oleomargine to pre-vent its fraudulent sale as butter and increased the penalties for violators. The bill passed makes all articles known as olemargarine butterine, imitation but-ter or imitation cheese transported into any State or Territory, for consumption coloration in imitation of butter. Senators agreed to vote on the Davis amendment to the Hay-Paunceforte treaty on Thursday. The administration is not in accord with the feeling manifested in Congress in favor of a large reduction of the war revenue taxes. That the Ways and Means committee bill provides for a $40,000,000 cut. while certain 'promi-nent Republican Senators favor one of from $50,000,000 to $70,000,000, causes some alarm. But the President and Secretary Gage recommended a reduc-tion of $30,000,000 and they do not like the prospect of a greater one. There is uncertainty as to conditions in the Philippines, Cuba and China. and if the army is reorganized on the 100,000 basis the cost will be $70,000,000 more annually than was required before the Spanish war. The extra war revenues amount to but little over $100,000,000 annually, and if they are reduced $30,000,000 only, as the President and Secretary Gage recom-mended, the balance will no more than pay the additional army expenses.
