Obnoxious Amendments.

The amendments to the Guffy ballot bill proposed by the Stalwart leaders, Incation of the principle of the bill. The first amendment is to retain the "party circle," and the second is to remove the safeguards which the Guffey bill aims to throw about the "assistance" given to yoters in the preparation of their ballots. The first is a measure to enable a dishonest election officer to invalidate a ballot by marking a single cross in the circle and to enable a watcher outside the booth to know whether the citizen votes a "straight" or "split" ticket. The second is intended to permit a briber to follow a voter into a booth to make sure his bargain is carried out.

The resistance of the Stalwart leaders to these two most important reform provisions is highly discreditable, both in impugning their good faith when they are making pledges and in disclosing their adherence to corrupt practices. carried out.

The resistance of the Stalwart leaders to these two most important reform provisions is highly discreditable, both in impugning their good faith when they are making pledges and in disclosing their adherence to corrupt practices. The plea that party voters desire the retention of the circle to make the act of voting easy is a mere assumption.

If it were true, then the circle would be in plain violation of the guarantee of the Constitution that every citizen shall have an equal show at the polls.

The Constitutionmakes no distinction between the party voter and the independent. Upon this point the Secretary of the Commonwealth once decided that candidates by nomination papers were as much entitled to a circle at the top of their column as candidates by certificates, and the courts upheld him. Despite that ruling politicians cling to the circle, so the inference is that its charm lies in the fact that after the voter has marked in one circle it is easy for someone else to mark in another and then throw out the ballot as defective.

The bill presented in response to Senator Quay's challenge to Mr. Guffey is entirely "reasonable." Senator Quay stands pledged to its support. If he intends to keep faith he ought to promptly inform his friends that ballot reform means the removal as far as possible of opportunity for fraud or bribery.—Dispatch.

A Wonderful Case.

Seventeen years ago Charles Washburn, then 24 years of age, had his side badly lurt in a railroad wreck near Chicago. He came back to Allegheny, and engaged in painting, and afterwards in the grocery business. For the past two or three years his side has frequently so pained him that he could not bear anybody or anything to touch it and his physicians treated him for abscesses of the liver.

The dominant faction in the Senate hus goes on record as bitterly apposed to the collection of fees by local officials not friendly to its political interests, but not opposed to the extravagant fees of its friends, the Secretary of the Commenwealth, the Insurance Commissioner and others on Capitol Hill. As a matter of fact, the neglect of the Legislature to substitute salaries for the fees of those offices is next door to a scandal. It is well known the fees of both far exceed the salaries of the Secretary and Commissioner, though their salaries are of inviting proportions.

When genuine economy is practiced about Harrisburg there will be no fees in addition to salaries, and some salaries will be cut in twain. Then the revenue of the State will be larger and its manufactures expeller than at its running expenses smaller than at present. There will be more money for the charitable institutions or schools, or a lower rate of taxation will be possible.

Mr. Editor—Having received a letter from Judge Greer, a short time ago, informing me that he is going to be a candidate for re-nomination and re-election as Judge, I began to inquire as to how long he will yet hold his office, and I learned that his present term don't terminate until the first Monday of January, 1903.

Under the circumstances it seems to me in very bad taste for Mr. Greer to force his name before the people at this time. Surely he could afford to wait time. Surely he could afford to wait the time to the present canvass is over before the present canvas is over the me. Surely he could need to be fore arusting his name before the public creek. He at once embarked in the producing business, and drilled the third ducing business. thrusting his name before the public again.

Our township (Clinton) has always given Greer a hearty support.

I voted for Greer, then a young man, for District Attorney; later on I voted for him for the State Senate. At the end of four years he insisted on another nomination to the Senate; and by some means he succeeded, though it placed us on bad relations with Armstrong county to which the nomination belonged. Later on he was made our candidate for Judge in this district, this time he was beaten. Will O' The Wisp.

WOMEN WHO ARE LED A-How many times that saying is illustrated by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's the last thing which is tried and the first to help. It's often the last resort of hopeless women and the first medicine to claim their gratitude by an absolute emancipation from the thraldom of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Evaporite Prescription STRAY BY MISCHIEV-OUS MARSH FIRES.

Illustrative of the baneful power of the marsh fire, there is told the stery of a woman who lost her way. She turned in this direction and in that, hopelessly puzzled as to her whereabouts in the murky night. Presently ahead of her she saw the gleam of a light. At once she saw in fancy the picture of home, the lamp in the window, the cozy comfort of those under the shelter of the protecting roof, "curtained and closed and warm." Steadfastly she moved towards the light. But as she moved it seemed to change its position. It was always a little far-tion and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I suffered for six years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of (Lake View Postoffice), Chicago, Ill. "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite, and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. A friend advised me to use Doctor Pierce's medicines, for they had helped her; so I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better ing Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discov-ery to any one suffering from the effect of impure blood and his 'Favorite Pre-scription' for female weakness."

"THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes womanly regularity, stops enfeebling drains, heals inflamma-tion and ulceration and cures female time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I can go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and all that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I have done—just give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial, and they will be sure to derive much benefit, as I

WHAT WELL WOMEN SAY.

Here a few brief statements culled from letters of women cured by the use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: "I feel like a different being and I look "I feel like a different being and I look well."—Mrs. Maggie Spelts, 410 Eighth Street, Mount Vernon, Posey Co., Ind. "When I think how I was five years ago and how I am now, I say, God bless Dr. Pierce's work for women. I have had no return of my weakness and am well and hearty."—Mrs. Fred Kempson, Cambria, Hillsdale Co., Mich., Box 57. "Two bottles of 'Favorite Prescrip-tion' and one of 'Golden Medical Dis-covery' made a new woman of me."

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is altogether free from opium, cocaine and in other narcotics.

Do not allow the dealer to push off on you a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" claiming that it is "just as good."
