The bill introduced to make possible the erection of the hospital provided for by the late C. L. Magee is to have or Tuesday morning Senator Muchtbronner had it recommitted for a hearing. He says that M. K. McMulli and the Bigelows want to be heard. McMullin had the bill passed two years ago preventing the building of hospitals in built up portions of the city. He said to be opposed to any change in i now. The Bigelows are objecting be cause they do not want the East End Hospital to be erected on the site that has been selected.

On Tuesday the Snyder-Harris Ole bill passed the House by a vote of 146 to 38, greatly to the disgust of Senator Muehlbronner of Allegheny, who was They are a very aged couple. quoted as follows:

'This bill, should it become a law will cost me $25,000." 'I have been serving the administration in every po sible way and the leaders now retur the favor by throwing me down with brutal force. I am through with then and will not go along with them in the future. They wanted vindication, and got it at my expense. I have been goldbricked just as the second class cities of the State were gold-bricked early in the The labor organizations have been handed a brick or two and the farmers will be reached in the general distribution in good time.
