A Remarkable Suicide

While despondent and in pain from stomach and heart trouble, Ferdinand Feigel, took his own life, by shooting himself, at his residence on West North street, Butler, last Friday evening.

Mrs. Feigel and their two children, Ernest and Ollie, were away at the picnic held by the English Lutheran church, of which the Feigel family are members, at Cascade Park. Rev. Mountz, their pastor, and his wife accompanied them.

companied them.

During the afternoon Mr. Feigel went to Koch's grocery and inquired by telephone when the picnic train would leave New Castle. Nothing unusual was noticed in his conduct at the store, but it is thought he was in a spell of dendency at the time, as he went home and wrote two letters, one to his neigh-or and business associate, Milton Shanor, and the other to the public. In both he expressed his determination to Shanor, and the other to the public. In both he expressed his determination to end his life. He gave Mr. Shanor directions concerning business affairs. In his letter to the public he stated that life was rendered unbearable by heart and stomach trouble, that two weeks ago while on a visit to some oil wells south of Connoquenessing an attack of heart trouble came on him while walking in the woods from Reibold station to the wells. He became unconscious and lay in the woods in this condition from ten o'clock in the morning, the time he became sick, until four the next morning, when he recovered and dragged himself to shelter. He then stated that he felt another of these spells coming on him, he could not bear it and would end his life.

Mr. Feigel then took a bath, shaved himself carefully, put on a night shirt, and layed down on the floor of the bath room, his head resting on a pillow, and and stomach trouble, that two weeks

The first shot was in the middle of the forchead and glanced along the skull without penetrating. This must have stunned him for a time but on regaining consciousness he placed the muzzle to his abdomen and fired, the bullet taking an upward course and passing through the heart.

The shooting was done about 8:30 in the evening. Several neighbors heard the shots but could not locate them. About nine o'clock Mrs. Feigel and the children arrived home, and found the house filled with smoke from his night clothes which were slowly burning and would probably have set the house on fire within a few minutes. Physicians and coroner John L. Jones were at one called and a coroners jury consisting of William Stein, Louis Stein, William A. Mitzger, Esq. Jacob Keck, Henry Miller and Rev. Eli Miller was summoned. A verdict was rendered according to the facts.

Mr. Feigel was in his forty-eight year. He was a son of Valentine Feigel and abrother of William Feigel of Colorado, Mrs. Christiopher Troutman of Pittsburg, and Mrs. George Ketterer and Mrs. Christian Aldinger of Butler. He was a arember of the First English church.

RUTLER RUSINESS COLLEGE A. F. REGAL, Prin., 319-327 S. Main St., Butler, Pa. DEALERS in ready made clothing represent their wares as "Tailor made" "custor, made" &c., but they ask the regular prices of ready made and the boast is understood. But when they offer to take your measure, promise to have the clothes made for you and charge the tailors price, they impose upon your credulity Whether their nisrepresentation is wilful or negligent the result to you is the same, Most men want what they pay for and are willing to pay for the superio quality of made to measure clothes Our garments are cut and made to your measure in our own workshop in But ler, not by fair-to-middling workmen, but by expert tailors.

JELLIES.

Neither time, moisture nor mould can affect jellies that are sealed with paraffine wax. Fill sealed with paraffine wax. Fill your glasses or jars, pour a film of paraffine over the surface, and the jelly will keep for a century if you want it to.

Paraffine is white, tasteless and odorless, and is proof against moisture, acids, insects and germs It prevents evaporation, granulation or change of any kind. A pound of paraffine goes a long way and can be used over and over again year after year. Just as good for covering preserves, fruit butters and jams.
