L. C. WICK

LUMBER

DAWN AT VENICE.

"The mater, you know, suffers, although she never complains. She has floor mazel! I thought of that long campaign of suffering, of privation, even doubtless at times of starvation, and Catarina knew it. We came near Princes road."

IN THE HOSPITAL.

John and shook hands with everybody and tried to make a speech, but all the time his eyes were seeking Tillie, and his heart was aching for another chance to greet her. At last the guests withdrew, and Tom and Jim and Mr. and Mrs. Crowder and—wonderous luck!—Tillie all piled into the big carriage and were driven up to the Crowder home.

WHY TOM CROWDER RE-ENTRUSTED.

By JOHN H. RAFFERTY.

THE SENSE OF SMELL.

Experts in the manufacture of perfume say that the sense of smell can be developed just as acutely as the sense of sight, hearing, taste and touch. This would seem paradoxical, for it is a well known fact that after smelling five or six different perfumes the uneducated nose loses its power that ability to distinguish odors is entirely lost.

THE NEW BOOKS.

M. Quad reviews Three of the Latest Novels.

Such a Bargain.

The whole town was at the station when Tom swung off the train step at Sugar Creek. The Silver Comet had with it all the Tomlasons, shake and all, at its head, was standing on the platform playing a game of Conquer with Here come and Great flags waving about the depot, and yards of banded stretched clear across the street from Crowder's grocery to the millinery.
