OIL NOTES. The Yacht Races THE MARKET-After remaining The first of this year's yacht races for The Market—After remaining stationary for more than two months at $1.25, the credit balance market for Pennsylvania crude was advanced last Saturday to $1.30. North Lima was advanced from 9ic to 94c, and South Lima and Indiana from 86c to 89c. The advance was not in the nature of a surprise. The wide margin between the runs and shipments and almost total failure to find new pools in the local state of the ure to find new pools in the lower southwest, have for some time inspired the hope for a better market. It is an open question, however whether an advance can change the existing fold explicitions. The appearant of work and the southwest whether the time limit of 5½ hours and the southwest the time limit of 5½ hours and the Saturday's race was a good one, in a stiff breeze from the sea, and the Shamfield conditions. The amount of work rock had the best of the start, but the pleted from month to month is lence that there has been no small rt made to develop old territory Columbia came in 35 seconds ahead; winning the race, with the time allow effort made to develop old territory and find new.
