Story of the Capture.

A. H. Briggs, of New York, says. My Dear Briggs—On Tuesday the 1st, a week ago, a large party of us were traveling from Bonsko to Djumajo. On our way we found ourselves surrounded by a band of men, about 30 in number, all armed with the latest rifles. They chose Miss Shone, an American mission-ary, and my wife, and taking two of our horses went further into the thick forest. Just at the time before the tak-ing of the ladies we had to witness a most horrible thing. They had captured a Turk, and while they tied his hands back they were beating him with the backs of their rifles, and finally, taking his own knife, they stabbed him seven backs of their rifles, and finally, taking his own knife, they stabbed him seven times and he fell dead. For a long time we had to wait and hear nothing. On, the agony and the sleepless nights that we have speat waiting and watching with no answer. Finally we got a letter telling us that the reason of their capture was to get money. Pray for us When my wife gets free you shall have a long story of her experiences. God grant her freedom. I would have written sconer, but I have been in the hands of the Govern ment, being examined and cross-ex-amined atmost every day. Many people have suffered terribly on this account Some have been beaten to death with William Garland and Sadie Payne o Harmony left Monday for McKeespor on a business trip. Some have been beaten to death with the hope that before they died they would tell where the missionaries are. The inhabitants all around the place where they were captured are in prison or have run away and deserted their homes. GREGORY M. TSILKA very desirable.
