

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE-All advertisers intending to make space in their ads, should notify us of their intention at least ten days before the date of their advertisement.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The "Bessie" expects to change its time table next Sunday. A number of Evans City people were poisoned, last week, by eating "head-cheese."

The Butler High School football team was defeated 6 to 0 at Kittanning, Saturday.

A prominent Evans City Democrat worked so hard at the polls that he forgot to vote himself.

Farmers Institutes next month-Jefferson Centre 4th and 5th; W. Sunbury 6 and 7, and Slipperyrock 9 and 10.

The P. & W. R. Co. has leased its line from Foxburg to Mt. Jewett to the Bradford, Bordell and Kinross R. Co.

Several hundred people attended the Elks' benefit recital by the Pittsburg Concert Co. in the Park Theatre, Monday evening.

A B. R. & P. train made up 27 minutes between Puntaxetway and Butler the other morning-sixty-two miles with four stops.

Wagons will call on all streets about 10 o'clock for hospital donations, Thursday, November 31. Please have baskets on front porch.

The railroad men of the country are making an effort to improve the dietetics of their trains so as to prevent further freight congestion.

The first installment of literature advertising the "Louisiana Purchase Exposition" to be held in St. Louis, during the summer of 1904, has reached us.

Finance Keeper Thompson of the Supreme tent of the Maccabees, in a letter to Supreme Commander Markley, has confessed the embezzlement of $57,000.

Bradford had a $100,000 fire last Friday night. The City Hall, a large brick five-story building was burned.

The City Hall was comparatively new and cost $40,000.

The best thing the National Government could do with that hundred million a year surplus would be to acquire its own postoffice property in all the well established towns.

A team of football players gathered together, Saturday afternoon, and went to Zellenople where they were defeated by a score of 39 to 1. A return game will be played on Thanksgiving.

Forty thousand people saw the "mums" in the Phillips conservatory and the new pictures in the Carnegie library, last Sunday. A new "mum" of a delicate yellow shade is called the Admiral Dewey.

The Besemer intends making a new cut off for through freight from Kreams to Osgood, leaving Greenville about three miles to the west, shortening their route several miles and improving the grade.

The Penn. R. R. Co. is reported to have purchased the property between Liberty and Penn. Ave. from 19th to 26th street for an immense freight depot. The aggregate value of the properties is said to be $90,000.

On the P. & W. train coming up from Allegheny, a few days ago, there were one hundred and eight birds, dogs and rabbit hounds in the baggage car; all of which came to Butler and were dropped off at the stations between here and Kittanning.

Kavanaugh of Zellenople is to open a machine shop on the Ezra Campbell farm in the Speechley district. A big run of work is predicted for the new industry. The next embellishments of Campbell Hill will be a store, a hotel and a barber shop.

Saturday last the last day for the reception of bids for floor space for the Butler P. O. and we understand that a proposal was put in for the first floor and basement of the Koonce store building on S. Main St., with the addition of 25 feet off the rear end of the Newton Music Store.

Judging from the number that spend their time in the three "bucket shops" of Butler, doing the stock exchange hours of 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., at least a hundred thousand men in this nation spend considerable of their time gambling in stocks.

Wm. Walker has purchased the Eagle building, now occupied by the printing office and Douglas's book store. The office will be removed to the Cunningham Hotel property on the 1st of April next, and Mr. Douglas does not yet know where he will go.

At the meeting of Councils of New Castle, Monday night, a resolution offering $5000 reward for the arrest of the murderer of John Elvins, was adopted, and the whole town was talking about it next day. It is generally believed that the murderer or murderers are prominent men of the town.

A Committee of railroad men met in Pittsburg, Monday, to devise means and methods of relieving what is called the freight congestion, or freight jam, caused, it is said, by a car famine, though from the large lines of freight cars standing on the tracks about Pittsburg and Allegheny, and other centers of industry, one would suppose that better terminal facilities, more men and more engines were needed more than more cars.

One of the most unique signers ever made in the history of the Sheriff's office of Erie Co. N. Y. was made last Friday when Deputy Sheriff Howard went to the infant incubator building on the Exposition Midway and claimed possession in the name of the law of its contents. This included several of the incubators, five of them including living infants. The deputy did not care to take the responsibility of keeping the breath of life in the infants, so asked that the infants be removed, despite the fact that the action might result in their death.

Dec. 1, a good time to enter the Butler Business College. Jan. 1, 1902, the best time to enter for work in the new year. Send for a catalogue.

B. R. & P. GAS STOVES.

PERSONAL.

L. S. Dault of Zellenople was in town, yesterday.

Rev. Pleasant Tucker has gone to Youngstown, Ohio.

Edward Gumpfer of E. Fulton St. is ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Anna Young of Fleeper has been granted an $80 pension.

Wm. Bush and wife of Troutman were granted a pension of $60.

George Troutman of Butler was granted a pension of $60.

Chas. Mackey of Franklin twp. was in town on business, Thursday.

Dr. V. F. Thomas of Baldwin visited a patient at the Hospital, Tuesday.

J. J. Brown of Dayton is expected to arrive in Butler, Tuesday.

J. T. Wick of Concord twp. attended to some business in Butler, Saturday.

Andrew Carnegie gave two more millions to his Pittsburg Institutes, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

Mrs. Bertha Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore, died of typhoid fever, Tuesday.

G. G. and C. E. Shannon of Connoquessing were in town on business, Friday.

J. N. Dunn of Evans City has purchased the Allen grocery on W. Jefferson St.

Frank B. Black has moved from Harrisville to Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county.

Phil Schaul and wife returned from their wedding trip, last week, and are at the Willard.

Morg. Davis came home last week from a hunting trip at Anandale with a big string of birds.

D. H. Slater and wife of Allegheny twp. and three of their boys intend removing to California.

LEGAL NEWS.

Court convened Monday morning with 21 cases on the trial list and most of them were disposed of in very short order. The following were marked satisfactory: Elizabeth Moore vs. Elizabeth Moore; A. Kramle, adm'r of Catharine Glauco, dec'd vs. Elocotic Assembly; Third 24th Bank Allegheny vs. W. M. Brown; Robert Turnbull vs. Dr. L. V. Groves; C. H. Johnson vs. A. L. Knox; Jessie Barnhart vs. Cora Altitude; William Crozier vs. W. Ellenberger and wife vs. A. W. Hartig. These were continued to November 20. Maloney vs. Phillip Davis; John Kearns vs. Bernard Hager; and Maria Daubespек vs. E. H. Adams.

To January 7-8, H. Walker vs. N. D. Duncan; A. B. Hamel vs. Henry C. Weish.

The first case tried was the assumpsit suit of Chester L. Daubespек vs. G. B. Daubespек, for the price of a change and supply to a steep hill on the Kennedeeville road, at the residence of Samuel Williams.

John W. Conlter was appointed guardian of the estate of John A. Danlap, dec'd.

John Ryan has been held for court on charges of larceny and felonious assault with firearms made against him by Clyde Flanagan and others.

The will of Neyman Christley of Slipperyrock has been probated, no letters.

Isaac Meals, surveyor, John W. Shull and James Midberry were appointed viewers on the petition to change two or two new road from near the house of Izra McGinnis to that of L. C. Sloan.

The ballot box of Connoquessing borough will be kept by the house of Mrs. Tine Bur, instead of that of J. T. Purviance, dec'd.

Mrs. Mary M. Smith has petitioned for a Court order that Elizabeth Thomas Smith pay her $500 for counsel fees and maintenance pending their divorce.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The assumpsit suit of Jas. B. Wason of North Washington vs. Ben Totton, was tried Wednesday. The suit was brought to recover $200, which Wason claims he lent to Totton in cash, and Totton claimed Wason did not complete the job.

The jury returned a verdict of $200 for Wason.

The Kirker vs. Stratt case from Harmony was continued until Friday.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at the suit of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin and claimed by Mrs. Hanlin, the jury awarded a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of $100.

The case of Lyman C. Dodds vs. B. R. & P. Railroad for children.

Robert Orr Quigley, an aged farmer, living at Mosgrove in Armstrong Co., and father of B. C. Quigley of Butler applied Monday for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his two grand-children, Oliver, aged sixteen years and Daisy, aged twelve, who have been living with their step-mother, the widow of Marcus Watterson, deceased, near Maple Farm in Parker township. The writ was granted and the children were returned to their father.

In the case of Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin vs. Mrs. Bridget A. Hanlin, the court determined the ownership of horses, cattle, furniture, etc. levied on at