

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ADVERTISERS intending to make their ads. should notify us of their intention at least one week before the date of publication.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Holiday goods are coming to the front. —Douglas is closing out his Art Materials.

—Make a note of the new train schedules. —Richey's Thanksgiving dinner will be fine.

—Fidelity's "Artist Proof" photos are something new. —A steel collar-bone for footballists is the subject of the latest patent.

—The Park Theatre was crowded Monday evening to enjoy the King of Maro. —Curt Bricker bought the King trotting mare at public sale last Thursday for $75.

—Boston Elliott of 112 Elm St. has taken an auctioneer's license, and solicits orders. —An eight-foot python in the New York Central Zoo swallowed a three-foot alligator.

—Thirty new houses are to be built in Butler this winter to be ready for fitting time, next April. —The Butler Hide and Fur Co. wants to buy your hides at 833 E. Jefferson St. and pay the highest prices. See card.

—There will be dancing and refreshments in Forester's Hall, Costown, on Thanksgiving eve, the 27th. See bills. —Only eight Sheriff sales for the December term are surely an indication that Butler county is enjoying prosperity.

—At San Francisco last Friday night Rubio gave up at the end of the fifth round, and Jeffries continues as champion pugger. —Does anyone remember seeing school children's streets earlier than Nov. 15th? A number were out last Friday morning.

—The cold weather of last week spoiled the hunting, and as the pheasants could not nest last spring it is a mistake to kill any of them. —The Iodol Medicine Co. of Tarentum sends us word to continue their card. Their Care for Rheumatism has become quite popular here.

—County Supt. Painter will hold an educational meeting in the U. P. church of Mars on Friday evening, Nov. 29 at 7:30. All interested in school work are invited to attend. —The barn of Marion McCoy, south Grove City, near the Butler county line, was burned, Monday, with two horses and 18 cattle. The loss was $4,000 and insurance $2,000.

—During the war Rev. Passavant picked up a colored couple, who have been in and about his hospital ever since. The old woman died, a few days ago, while the man was lying abed with a broken ankle.

—Subscribers renewing their subscription to the Weekly Tribune should please change to the Tribune Farmer, at 25 cents a year more than the Weekly. The new paper is a first class agricultural journal.

Santa Claus is thinking over matters.

—Spron's mill at Anandale station is doing a rushing backward business. —Seven millions in gold went in one boat from N. Y. to Liverpool, the other day.

—If any of our local astronomers were on the lookout for Leonids last week they were disappointed, though a number were counted at the Harvard observatory at Cambridge, Mass. —When the Pennsylvania Railroad station and yards at Pittsburg are in working order the railroad management will be able to start fifty-one trains out from the Union station at the same time.

—The New York Weekly Tribune has changed to the New York Tribune Farmer—a first class agricultural paper—the price of which is $1, but we can club it with the CITIZEN at 75 cents extra, or $1.75 for both, one year. —The Hospital has eight patients at present, none seriously sick. The West Windfield Italian from whom a quantity of skull and brains was taken is now recovering. Visiting hours are from 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m., daily.

—The fat stock show at the East Liberty yards was a great success this year. It is now said that the East Liberty yards will be enlarged, and that the idea of building a new yards on Herd's Island has been abandoned. —A Sunday School teacher, during a talk to the children, said: "Now children, what are we to tell Santa when he comes to see you?" He was answered immediately, "Go way back and sit down."

—It is reported that two highwaymen attempted to hold up and rob Frank Gardner near Hilliard while driving home after dark. Gardner pulled a gun, a number of shots were exchanged, and the robbers fled. Gardner's buggy was smashed by his horse going over a bank. —Butler county is said to have produced more of any other county in the land, but after all it is the history of the oil business with a majority of investors has been the loss of hard earned dollars followed by a struggle against difficulty and discouragement to catch up with the financial procession again at your old job.

—Miss Ada Henry and Miss Thomas of Sharpsburg spent Sunday with Miss Leitch at McKean St. —John Smith, son of Smiley Smith, is expected home in January after three years service in the Philippines. —Mrs. Becker of Colorado visited the Chicago stock yards, and is now in a hospital for nervous prostration. —Robt. McFarland, Republican County Chairman, is ill at the home of his father-in-law, M. Green, in Buffalo township. —Dr. Showalter was in town yesterday, and intends visiting friends in Fayette county, and reaching Washington by Sunday morning.

—Col. Haworth and wife lately returned from a trip to Jamestown, N. Y., back in a buggy, which they both got into a bad accident. —Ex-Sheriff W. B. Dods of Adamsville, Crawford county, is visiting his son, T. J. of Millin St. —A young man, injured by a kick from a horse. —Charles and Will Ritter and Earl Thompson are making their home at the Concord Hotel in Seattle, Wash. and report themselves well pleased with the Pacific coast. —Conductor McQuislin killed a large fat bear in the mountains, a few days ago, and had so many friends that he did not have a morsel left for himself.

—J. R. Moore of North Hops attended the trial as a witness in the Dods suit last Thursday. Mr. M. and his wife lately returned from a visit with friends in New York and Jersey City. —J. S. Bortz and Fred Imbrie of Harrisville started Tuesday for Los Angeles where they expect to make their homes in the County Hotel and Adams twp., but had a habit of wandering away at every opportunity. He was sent to Dixmont. —The will of Levin Wolford, dec'd., of Cherry twp., was probated in the letters granted to Milton J. Wolford.

—Letters of administration on the estate of Lewis W. Miller of Clay twp., have been granted to Stella J. Miller. —A charge of 18th has been entered against Charles Bowers of Butler. —Joseph Bennett pleads guilty to a charge of malicious mischief made against him for abusing a horse hired from the Roberts Livestock at Hensford. —A notice to appear and defend has been served on E. V. Latawah, in the case of Jos. Shaffer vs. Harmony horse. Latawah owns the property on the side-walk of which his Shaffer was injured. —The coroner's jury of Allegheny Co. held five men for the alleged murder of John E. Fank, who is supposed to have been pushed off the Leechburg bridge into the Kiskiminetz and whose body was found in the Allegheny, near Hartman. The case will probably be tried in Greensburg.

—The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Lawrence County Court in the case of R. F. Dean against the City of New Castle. —The jury returned a verdict for $900 against the city on account of breaking his leg by falling on the top of the Wilder property on Washington street. Mr. Dean was returning home one Saturday night when the sidewalk was covered by a mass of ice. The Wilder property there was a raised sheet of ice, caused by water flowing over the pavement from a water spout between the Wilder and an adjoining property. Mr. Dean fell on this with the result that his leg was broken. —John Meininger, aged 35 years and formerly of Jefferson twp., was arrested in Allegheny for horse stealing, a few days ago, and on Tuesday, attempted suicide in his cell by hanging himself with a rope made of strips of clothing, but was cut down before life was lost. The extent of his injuries against him by a lively stable keeper of Etna. John has a bad record and is a desperate character. —Judge Harry White of Indiana county, presided over the local Court Monday and Tuesday. —Wm. H. Miller was appointed guardian of Mary Gladys Shirley, daughter of Joseph Shirley, who is a minor. —A charter was granted Monday to the Cabot Institute at Saxton Station. —A charge of violating the liquor law has been entered against George Striding, a Parker wholesaler, who is said to have been taking orders from adults and minors in Hilliard and vicinity and delivering a two-horse wagonload of beer and whiskey every Saturday. —The will of Alex Bell of Senary was probated and letters granted to T. P. Bell. —Letters of administration on the estate of Jane Shanon, dec'd., of Prospect twp., have been granted to Ed. L. Linton. —On petition of Wm. W. Robinson, F. J. Forger, Esq., Dr. J. W. F. Moore and James C. Graham were appointed a commission to inquire into the estate of Slater of Butler. He was adjudged insane and committed to jail. —The will of Agnes Lusk, dec'd., of Zelephone has been probated and letters granted to W. H. Lusk, Esq. —F. M. Swartzgard has been released from jail. —A commission in lunacy has been appointed on Ed. G. Dietrich, a machinist at Larkin & Co's shop, who has been going about lately armed with a knife and threatening to attack fellow employees. —Four charges of a&b and two of malicious mischief have been entered against Joseph Wiles, a railroad man of the South Side, as a result of a general fight which occurred in the Bessemer Hotel, on Centre Ave., Monday afternoon. The fight arose on account of Thacker's meretricious Rublin and Jeffries.

—A thing of beauty is a joy forever. —Xmas is just around the corner. —Did you see the New Royal Sewing Machine at Brown & Co's?

—The largest floor space. —It is the new B. & P. Cafe, in the Stein building, on S. Main St., Butler, that has the largest floor space and can seat the most people of any restaurant in Butler. The extension tables can be taken in and out at will. Try it once and you will become a regular patron of the B. & P., S. Main St., next door to Campbell & Templeton's furniture store.

—A thing of beauty is a joy forever. —Xmas is just around the corner. —Did you see the New Royal Sewing Machine at Brown & Co's?

PERSONAL.

Chiff Wick is an uncle. —Mrs. Sloan is in New York. —Hon. Jos. Hartman is on the sick list. —Mrs. J. H. Negley is visiting friends in Pittsburg. —Dr. Redick and family have returned from Cambridge. —Mrs. O. M. Leigler. —J. A. Andrew of Karns City served on the jury last week and this.

—G. Andrew Thompson of W. Sunbury, died with pneumonia. —G. E. Hilliard and son of Parker twp. drove in to Butler, yesterday. —Chas. Miller has gone into business for himself in Beaver county. —Philip H. Leonard has been appointed justice of the peace at McKean St. —J. D. Williams of Forward twp. was in town on business, Thursday. —Ellis Hesselesser of Windfield twp was in town on business, Friday. —John G. Thompson, of Brady township, is enjoying his term on the jury. —Silbert Hoop was taken sick at Millertown, Monday, but is getting better. —Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowers of Greece City are rejoicing over the arrival of a son. —Blair Hooks returned Saturday from an extended sojourn in the Ohio oil fields. —Linn Borland is convalescent, and now puts in an appearance at the store daily. —J. H. McCain, Esq., of Kittanning, is interested in a case on trial in Butler today.

—Mrs. D. B. Donthett, nee Brown, is lying seriously ill at her home in Harrisburg. —James Birtz and Fred Imbrie of Harrisville left for Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday. —P. T. Watts of Louisville has to eat bread and butter, as the result of an election pet. —Rev. Enterline attended the Baptist Young People's eighth annual meeting in Pittsburg. —"The Dred" sold out his fish market in Kittanning and is back in Butler. He's a "jolly good fellow."

—Miss Ada Henry and Miss Thomas of Sharpsburg spent Sunday with Miss Leitch at McKean St. —John Smith, son of Smiley Smith, is expected home in January after three years service in the Philippines. —Mrs. Becker of Colorado visited the Chicago stock yards, and is now in a hospital for nervous prostration. —Robt. McFarland, Republican County Chairman, is ill at the home of his father-in-law, M. Green, in Buffalo township. —Dr. Showalter was in town yesterday, and intends visiting friends in Fayette county, and reaching Washington by Sunday morning.

—Col. Haworth and wife lately returned from a trip to Jamestown, N. Y., back in a buggy, which they both got into a bad accident. —Ex-Sheriff W. B. Dods of Adamsville, Crawford county, is visiting his son, T. J. of Millin St. —A young man, injured by a kick from a horse. —Charles and Will Ritter and Earl Thompson are making their home at the Concord Hotel in Seattle, Wash. and report themselves well pleased with the Pacific coast. —Conductor McQuislin killed a large fat bear in the mountains, a few days ago, and had so many friends that he did not have a morsel left for himself.

—J. R. Moore of North Hops attended the trial as a witness in the Dods suit last Thursday. Mr. M. and his wife lately returned from a visit with friends in New York and Jersey City. —J. S. Bortz and Fred Imbrie of Harrisville started Tuesday for Los Angeles where they expect to make their homes in the County Hotel and Adams twp., but had a habit of wandering away at every opportunity. He was sent to Dixmont. —The will of Levin Wolford, dec'd., of Cherry twp., was probated in the letters granted to Milton J. Wolford.

—Letters of administration on the estate of Lewis W. Miller of Clay twp., have been granted to Stella J. Miller. —A charge of 18th has been entered against Charles Bowers of Butler. —Joseph Bennett pleads guilty to a charge of malicious mischief made against him for abusing a horse hired from the Roberts Livestock at Hensford. —A notice to appear and defend has been served on E. V. Latawah, in the case of Jos. Shaffer vs. Harmony horse. Latawah owns the property on the side-walk of which his Shaffer was injured. —The coroner's jury of Allegheny Co. held five men for the alleged murder of John E. Fank, who is supposed to have been pushed off the Leechburg bridge into the Kiskiminetz and whose body was found in the Allegheny, near Hartman. The case will probably be tried in Greensburg.

—The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Lawrence County Court in the case of R. F. Dean against the City of New Castle. —The jury returned a verdict for $900 against the city on account of breaking his leg by falling on the top of the Wilder property on Washington street. Mr. Dean was returning home one Saturday night when the sidewalk was covered by a mass of ice. The Wilder property there was a raised sheet of ice, caused by water flowing over the pavement from a water spout between the Wilder and an adjoining property. Mr. Dean fell on this with the result that his leg was broken. —John Meininger, aged 35 years and formerly of Jefferson twp., was arrested in Allegheny for horse stealing, a few days ago, and on Tuesday, attempted suicide in his cell by hanging himself with a rope made of strips of clothing, but was cut down before life was lost. The extent of his injuries against him by a lively stable keeper of Etna. John has a bad record and is a desperate character. —Judge Harry White of Indiana county, presided over the local Court Monday and Tuesday. —Wm. H. Miller was appointed guardian of Mary Gladys Shirley, daughter of Joseph Shirley, who is a minor. —A charter was granted Monday to the Cabot Institute at Saxton Station. —A charge of violating the liquor law has been entered against George Striding, a Parker wholesaler, who is said to have been taking orders from adults and minors in Hilliard and vicinity and delivering a two-horse wagonload of beer and whiskey every Saturday. —The will of Alex Bell of Senary was probated and letters granted to T. P. Bell. —Letters of administration on the estate of Jane Shanon, dec'd., of Prospect twp., have been granted to Ed. L. Linton. —On petition of Wm. W. Robinson, F. J. Forger, Esq., Dr. J. W. F. Moore and James C. Graham were appointed a commission to inquire into the estate of Slater of Butler. He was adjudged insane and committed to jail. —The will of Agnes Lusk, dec'd., of Zelephone has been probated and letters granted to W. H. Lusk, Esq. —F. M. Swartzgard has been released from jail. —A commission in lunacy has been appointed on Ed. G. Dietrich, a machinist at Larkin & Co's shop, who has been going about lately armed with a knife and threatening to attack fellow employees. —Four charges of a&b and two of malicious mischief have been entered against Joseph Wiles, a railroad man of the South Side, as a result of a general fight which occurred in the Bessemer Hotel, on Centre Ave., Monday afternoon. The fight arose on account of Thacker's meretricious Rublin and Jeffries.

—The coroner's jury of Allegheny Co. held five men for the alleged murder of John E. Fank, who is supposed to have been pushed off the Leechburg bridge into the Kiskiminetz and whose body was found in the Allegheny, near Hartman. The case will probably be tried in Greensburg.

—The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Lawrence County Court in the case of R. F. Dean against the City of New Castle. —The jury returned a verdict for $900 against the city on account of breaking his leg by falling on the top of the Wilder property on Washington street. Mr. Dean was returning home one Saturday night when the sidewalk was covered by a mass of ice. The Wilder property there was a raised sheet of ice, caused by water flowing over the pavement from a water spout between the Wilder and an adjoining property. Mr. Dean fell on this with the result that his leg was broken. —John Meininger, aged 35 years and formerly of Jefferson twp., was arrested in Allegheny for horse stealing, a few days ago, and on Tuesday, attempted suicide in his cell by hanging himself with a rope made of strips of clothing, but was cut down before life was lost. The extent of his injuries against him by a lively stable keeper of Etna. John has a bad record and is a desperate character. —Judge Harry White of Indiana county, presided over the local Court Monday and Tuesday. —Wm. H. Miller was appointed guardian of Mary Gladys Shirley, daughter of Joseph Shirley, who is a minor. —A charter was granted Monday to the Cabot Institute at Saxton Station. —A charge of violating the liquor law has been entered against George Striding, a Parker wholesaler, who is said to have been taking orders from adults and minors in Hilliard and vicinity and delivering a two-horse wagonload of beer and whiskey every Saturday. —The will of Alex Bell of Senary was probated and letters granted to T. P. Bell. —Letters of administration on the estate of Jane Shanon, dec'd., of Prospect twp., have been granted to Ed. L. Linton. —On petition of Wm. W. Robinson, F. J. Forger, Esq., Dr. J. W. F. Moore and James C. Graham were appointed a commission to inquire into the estate of Slater of Butler. He was adjudged insane and committed to jail. —The will of Agnes Lusk, dec'd., of Zelephone has been probated and letters granted to W. H. Lusk, Esq. —F. M. Swartzgard has been released from jail. —A commission in lunacy has been appointed on Ed. G. Dietrich, a machinist at Larkin & Co's shop, who has been going about lately armed with a knife and threatening to attack fellow employees. —Four charges of a&b and two of malicious mischief have been entered against Joseph Wiles, a railroad man of the South Side, as a result of a general fight which occurred in the Bessemer Hotel, on Centre Ave., Monday afternoon. The fight arose on account of Thacker's meretricious Rublin and Jeffries.

—The coroner's jury of Allegheny Co. held five men for the alleged murder of John E. Fank, who is supposed to have been pushed off the Leechburg bridge into the Kiskiminetz and whose body was found in the Allegheny, near Hartman. The case will probably be tried in Greensburg.

—The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Lawrence County Court in the case of R. F. Dean against the City of New Castle. —The jury returned a verdict for $900 against the city on account of breaking his leg by falling on the top of the Wilder property on Washington street. Mr. Dean was returning home one Saturday night when the sidewalk was covered by a mass of ice. The Wilder property there was a raised sheet of ice, caused by water flowing over the pavement from a water spout between the Wilder and an adjoining property. Mr. Dean fell on this with the result that his leg was broken. —John Meininger, aged 35 years and formerly of Jefferson twp., was arrested in Allegheny for horse stealing, a few days ago, and on Tuesday, attempted suicide in his cell by hanging himself with a rope made of strips of clothing, but was cut down before life was lost. The extent of his injuries against him by a lively stable keeper of Etna. John has a bad record and is a desperate character. —Judge Harry White of Indiana county, presided over the local Court Monday and Tuesday. —Wm. H. Miller was appointed guardian of Mary Gladys Shirley, daughter of Joseph Shirley, who is a minor. —A charter was granted Monday to the Cabot Institute at Saxton Station. —A charge of violating the liquor law has been entered against George Striding, a Parker wholesaler, who is said to have been taking orders from adults and minors in Hilliard and vicinity and delivering a two-horse wagonload of beer and whiskey every Saturday. —The will of Alex Bell of Senary was probated and letters granted to T. P. Bell. —Letters of administration on the estate of Jane Shanon, dec'd., of Prospect twp., have been granted to Ed. L. Linton. —On petition of Wm. W. Robinson, F. J. Forger, Esq., Dr. J. W. F. Moore and James C. Graham were appointed a commission to inquire into the estate of Slater of Butler. He was adjudged insane and committed to jail. —The will of Agnes Lusk, dec'd., of Zelephone has been probated and letters granted to W. H. Lusk, Esq. —F. M. Swartzgard has been released from jail. —A commission in lunacy has been appointed on Ed. G. Dietrich, a machinist at Larkin & Co's shop, who has been going about lately armed with a knife and threatening to attack fellow employees. —Four charges of a&b and two of malicious mischief have been entered against Joseph Wiles, a railroad man of the South Side, as a result of a general fight which occurred in the Bessemer Hotel, on Centre Ave., Monday afternoon. The fight arose on account of Thacker's meretricious Rublin and Jeffries.

—The coroner's jury of Allegheny Co. held five men for the alleged murder of John E. Fank, who is supposed to have been pushed off the Leechburg bridge into the Kiskiminetz and whose body was found in the Allegheny, near Hartman. The case will probably be tried in Greensburg.

LEGAL NEWS.

Dr. Samuel Graham, dec'd., for use of Mrs. Eleanor Graham vs Overseers of Corp. of Butler borough. O. C. Redick vs. Reuben Mesman for $656.29 claimed to be due on nine "poor" warrants issued on Treasurer Harvey Miller by secretaries Vogley and McElvain for professional services from the years 1895 to 1898. The total amount of the orders is $329 and of the interest $127.30.

A. C. & E. E. Price vs L. C. Hoon, Philip Burr, J. W. Miller and S. C. Hoon, doing business as the "Burr" and "Hoon" mechanics lien on the Park twp. on the Barr farm in Forward township for a claim of $54.38, claimed to be due for work on materials.

Thomas W. Phillips, Sr. vs Clarence Walker and T. W. Phillips, Jr., administrators of estate of Victor K. Phillips, dec'd., Wm. C. Kirtner vs. Wm. Craig and Annie Nanstell of Freeport. At Kittanning—Huston Elliott and Emily Best of Butler.

Robert Lawrence, aged 50 years, had his leg broken by being kicked by a horse in Bickel's livery barn. He was taken to the hospital in Germantown, where he is now mending. A son of Mrs. Coyle of Franklin St., was taken from a lunge, and broke his leg. An Indiana boy made a drum of an empty nitroglycerine can, and was blown to pieces.

Postmaster Black gives notice that hereafter by order of the Department the postoffice lobby will be closed when there are no employees on the floor or in the office. The lobby will be open from 5:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., week days; Sundays, 4:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Parents, the best Christmas present you can make your son or daughter, is a scholarship in the Butler Business College.

Banking by mail. —A special feature of our business. By our system you can transact all your banking business by mail. Persons residing in small towns where the banks cannot afford to pay interest on small deposits can send their money by mail and we will bring 4 per cent interest. Send for our booklet all about banking by mail or write to the PRUDENTIAL TRUST CO., 6124 Penn Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

Try Johnston's Beef, Iron and Wine, for your spring tonic. Music scholars wanted at 128 West Wayne St.

Real Estate Broker. Parties wishing to purchase or sell oil properties, farms, city residences or other real estate, or who wish to be entered against Charles Bowers of Butler. Joseph Bennett pleads guilty to a charge of malicious mischief made against him for abusing a horse hired from the Roberts Livestock at Hensford.

Notice to Hunters. The undersigned citizens of the following towns, hereby give notice that all persons are prohibited from hunting or trespassing on their premises and that they will shoot all dogs found on their premises.

Winter Heaters. When looking for Heating Stoves remember to get the best in the town. See our B. & P. Heating Stoves. WHITEHILL, Main St.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book. In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued its most attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading Winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book" is a model of typographical and clerical work. It is bound in a handsome artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for Winter tourists and travelers in general. It will be sent free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Thanksgiving Excursions. The Bessemer & Lake Erie R. Co. will sell tickets between all stations Nov. 27 and 28th, good returning the 29th, at a fare and one-third for the round trip. Inquire of agents for rates and time tables.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS.

Marjorie Pisor to Martin Menks lease of 24 acres in Centre for $50. W. J. McFadden adm'r to George B. Adams 45 acres in Mercer for $1. Mary A. Blier to John Grossman 10 acres in Slipperyrock for $200. J. C. Renfrew to Amanda J. Ewing lot in Mercer for $100. Sarah A. Mills to Catherine Ford lot in Millertown for $500. Margaret A. Russell to Centre twp. School District lot for $100. Mrs. O. M. Russell to A. E. Russell leases in Jefferson and Centre twps. 70 acres in Centre for $500. Idaella Hutchison to T. N. Barnsall 50 acres in Hilliard twp. for $2500. J. D. Marshall, trustee of S. Sahli estate to J. C. and H. C. Millman lot in Harrisburg for $250. Homer M. Young to Wm. J. Young 19 acres in Centre twp. for $500. Wm. J. Young to Sheldon S. Young 45 acres in Centre for $500. Wm. J. Young to Homer M. Young 70 acres in Centre for $500. Park McCoy and others assignment of leases in Oakland to A. O. Hepler for $4400. J. W. Glossner to L. A. Goldinger lot in Bruin for $1500. Wm. B. Leitch and W. W. Huffman St. acres in Jefferson for $3950.

Marriage Licenses. Burton W. McMurry, New Castle; Mabel M. Rindler, Butler; Wick Harry E. Turk, Butler; Myrtle M. Cottrill, Butler; Samuel A. Frederick, Jefferson twp; Wm. J. Kirtner, Butler; William C. Wallace, Mercer; Della King, Butler; New Castle. At Pittsburg—Chas. B. Burkhalter and June Rine-wald of Butler. At Kittanning—C. W. Craig and Annie Nanstell of Freeport. At Kittanning—Huston Elliott and Emily Best of Butler.

Robert Lawrence, aged 50 years, had his leg broken by being kicked by a horse in Bickel's livery barn. He was taken to the hospital in Germantown, where he is now mending. A son of Mrs. Coyle of Franklin St., was taken from a lunge, and broke his leg. An Indiana boy made a drum of an empty nitroglycerine can, and was blown to pieces.

Postmaster Black gives notice that hereafter by order of the Department the postoffice lobby will be closed when there are no employees on the floor or in the office. The lobby will be open from 5:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., week days; Sundays, 4:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Parents, the best Christmas present you can make your son or daughter, is a scholarship in the Butler Business College.

Banking by mail. —A special feature of our business. By our system you can transact all your banking business by mail. Persons residing in small towns where the banks cannot afford to pay interest on small deposits can send their money by mail and we will bring 4 per cent interest. Send for our booklet all about banking by mail or write to the PRUDENTIAL TRUST CO., 6124 Penn Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

Try Johnston's Beef, Iron and Wine, for your spring tonic. Music scholars wanted at 128 West Wayne St.

Real Estate Broker. Parties wishing to purchase or sell oil properties, farms, city residences or other real estate, or who wish to be entered against Charles Bowers of Butler. Joseph Bennett pleads guilty to a charge of malicious mischief made against him for abusing a horse hired from the Roberts Livestock at Hensford.

Notice to Hunters. The undersigned citizens of the following towns, hereby give notice that all persons are prohibited from hunting or trespassing on their premises and that they will shoot all dogs found on their premises.

Winter Heaters. When looking for Heating Stoves remember to get the best in the town. See our B. & P. Heating Stoves. WHITEHILL, Main St.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book. In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued its most attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading Winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book" is a model of typographical and clerical work. It is bound in a handsome artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for Winter tourists and travelers in general. It will be sent free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Thanksgiving Excursions. The Bessemer & Lake Erie R. Co. will sell tickets between all stations Nov. 27 and 28th, good returning the 29th, at a fare and one-third for the round trip. Inquire of agents for rates and time tables.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE. Desirable building lots in North Pittsburg and Brinton place, East Braddock borough. Near Westinghouse and Carnegie works and Penna railroad. Will exchange for oil property or real estate. Must sell. A bargain. E. E. NEALEY, CHIEF OFFICE.

Died on Road Home.

A sad and sudden death was that of James Timblin, which occurred while driving from the Petrolia railroad station to his home in Concord twp. last Friday evening. Mr. Timblin, who was 68 years of age and feeble from palsy, had been in Butler for two days as a witness in the ejectment suit of Mrs. M. E. Murland vs Nancy Ellen Timblin, his wife, in which title to a small strip of land owned by the estate of Mrs. M. E. Murland vs Nancy Ellen Timblin, was involved. Friday evening he became so sick that he started home. He took the train to Petrolia and then started to drive home with John Murland. On the road he was seized with apoplexy. Murland took him to the residence of Thomas Banks where he died.

They may be kept white, but will still decay if you use the wrong dentifrice. They are sure to remain both beautiful and sound if you rely on Boyd's Peersweet Tooth Powder. It sweetens the breath, hardens the gums, polishes and whitens the teeth and destroys the germs that produce decay. Price 25 cents.

C. N. BOYD, Pharmacist. Butler, Pa.

THE COUNTY National Bank, Butler Penn. Capital paid in - $200,000.00 Surplus and Profits - $107,463.07

THE Farmers' National Bank, Butler, Pa. CAPITAL PAID IN, $100,000.00 Foreign exchange bought and sold. Special attention given to collections.

WE OWN AND OFFER $8,000 3-1/2 per cent. Third Ward School District, School bonds due June 1, 1917. Assessed valuation about $2,500,000. Bonds free from State tax. Price to yield 3.20-100 per cent. Write us if you wish to buy or sell choice municipal or school bonds.

CR WILLIAMS & CO., Bank for Savings Bld'g, Pittsburg, Pa. DEPOSIT FIVE DOLLARS AND GET A LOCK SAVINGS BANK

For Xmas presents in musical goods see us. We have two pianos that have been used at concerts we will sell at a great bargain.

E. Otto Davis, Armory Building.

More Time Than Money. Some people have to spend but if you have no time, possibly you might like to have one of our fine time clocks as they do not require much money for the investment. Our stock of Watches and Chains for ladies and gentlemen is complete. Prices from one dollar up. We also carry complete line of Cameras, Photo Supplies, Victor, Edison and Columbia Talking Machines and Records.

R. L. KIRKPATRICK, Jeweler and Graduate Optician Next to Court House

Selling Out! We are closing out all our Art Material to quit the business. Now is your opportunity to secure a large stock of old-style Art Supplies. Plaques, panels, cell-oid, aluminum and glass novelties; sketching boxes, easels, etc., at 1/2 price. Paints, canvases, stretchers, and all supplies for either oil or china painting, at 1/2 price. All White China goes at 25 per cent. Any art study in the store, your choice for 10c or 25c. Formerly 15c and 25c. All White China goes at 25 per cent. to 35 per cent. discount. Call early or write to DOUGLASS' BOOK STORE, 241 South Main Street. Karl Schluchter, Practical Tailor and Cutter, 125 W. Jefferson, Butler, Pa. Busheling, Cleaning and Spinning a Specialty.

Tooth Truth.

Teeth are bound to be unsightly and are sure to decay if you use no dentifrice. They may be kept white, but will still decay if you use the wrong dentifrice. They are sure to remain both beautiful and sound if you rely on Boyd's Peersweet Tooth Powder. It sweetens the breath, hardens the gums, polishes and whitens the teeth and destroys the germs that produce decay. Price 25 cents.

C. N. BOYD, Pharmacist. Butler, Pa.

THE COUNTY National Bank, Butler Penn. Capital paid in - $200,000.00 Surplus and Profits - $107,463.07

THE Farmers' National Bank, Butler, Pa. CAPITAL PAID IN, $100,000.00 Foreign exchange bought and sold. Special attention given to collections.

WE OWN AND OFFER $8,000 3-1/2 per cent. Third Ward School District, School bonds due June 1, 1917. Assessed valuation about $2,500,000. Bonds free from State tax. Price to yield 3.20-100 per cent. Write us if you wish to buy or sell choice municipal or school bonds.

CR WILLIAMS & CO., Bank for Savings Bld'g, Pittsburg, Pa. DEPOSIT FIVE DOLLARS AND GET A LOCK SAVINGS BANK

For Xmas presents in musical goods see us. We have two pianos that have been used at concerts we will sell at a great bargain.

E. Otto Davis, Armory Building.

More Time Than Money. Some people have to spend but if you have no time, possibly you might like to have one of our fine time clocks as they do not require much money for the investment. Our stock of Watches and Chains for ladies and gentlemen is complete. Prices from one dollar up. We also carry complete line of Cameras, Photo Supplies, Victor, Edison and Columbia Talking Machines and Records.

R. L. KIRKPATRICK, Jeweler and Graduate Optician Next to Court House

Selling Out! We are closing out all our Art Material to quit the business. Now is your opportunity to secure a large stock of old-style Art Supplies. Plaques, panels, cell-oid, aluminum and glass novelties; sketching boxes, easels, etc., at 1/2 price. Paints, canvases, stretchers, and all supplies for either oil or china painting, at 1/2 price. All White China goes at 25 per cent. Any art study in the store, your choice for 10c or 25c. Formerly 15c and 25c. All White China goes at 25 per cent. to 35 per cent. discount. Call early or write to