Vote on the Amendments. Thursday. The total vote was unusual by a special messenger to Pittsburg:

for an off year and was many thousands ahead of the off election in 1899. The fact of strongest interest is the vote on the Constitutional amendments. It was Hon. A. M. Brown:

No. 1-Yes, 213,798; no, 45,601.

No. 2—Yes, 194,053; no, 41,203. No. 3—Yes, 180,521; no, 48,634 No. 2—Yes, 180,521; no. 48,634
While the total vote for the amendments fell far below the total vote for the candidates, that was to be expected.
Voters simply did not take the trouble to mark their tickets. Another illustration of this negligence is seen in the smaller vote for the second amendment, which was closely related to the first. Over 25,000 electors who voted for the first neglected to vote for the second. The further reduction on the third is explained partly by the fact that at the last moment in some of the counties a fight was made against it, on the ground that the possible introduction of voting machines under its permission would increase county expenditures.

Upon reflection it occurs to me that it might be quite as well for us to waive our right, under the law, to make an election to that office. During the official term of our present incumbent—J. M. Greer—a period of nearly nine years—we have had the pleasure of having most of the Judges of western and southern Pennsylvania administer the law to us. During this time at least a dozen of our neighbors was here: the next week another gentleman was here. He took charge on Monday and remained all week. fortune and founding a fortune. Pew men chance upon fortunes. The fort-unes we know about are not found but founded on a certain substantial basis. The nature of that basis of fortune is well set forth in the advice given by a successful merchant to a young man who asked, "What is the first requisite to making a fortune?" "The first re-quisite to making a fortune" said the rich man, "is health." "The idea that fortunes are made suggests toil and inquisite to making a fortune" said the rich man, "is health," "The idea that fortunes are made suggests toil and industry and skill. Nothing can be made without these. But a weak man cannot toil, and industry is incompatible with iil-health. If you want to be strong remember that all physical strength comes from food and that the amount of strength extracted from food depends upon the ability of the stomach to digest food and assimilate its nutrition. The man who takes care of his digestion is, in general, taking care of every other organ of his body." SUCCESS AND THE STOMACH.

The merchant who gave the above opinion may not have been much of a physician but he was a good deal of a physician but he was a good deal of a philosopher. He had seen men with success almost within the grasp, break down because of "stomach trouble." He had theorized the saying that the "weakest must go to the wall" into the saying that "the man with the weakest stomach must go to the wall," because no man is stronger than his stomach. The man who will learn this lesson of success has taken a great stride to his goal. Health is the first prerequisite of success and health in general means a sound stomach and a good digestion.

Look at the logic of the matter. Food is a man's life, his strength. Physical life is sustained by food. But the fact that a thing can be eaten doesn't make it food. Many a physician practising in the tenements of a city says of failing men or women, "What they need is nourishing food." Shipwrecked men eat scraps of leather, the bark of trees, anything to satisfy hunger. But this is not food in any true sense because it contains no nutrition. All food must be considered in relation to its nutritive NORTH BOUND. EASTERN TIME. | +22 | *6 | +8 | +14 | *2 P. & W. Finding a Fortune and Founding a Fortune.

A TRAMP'S LUCK AND AN EN-ERGETIC MAN'S PURPOSE.

It is perhaps true as told that a tramp, searching a garbage barrel for scraps of refuse food, found a fortune in good United States currency. Such a thing value. When the stomach and the allied organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased the nutrition contained in food is imperfectly extracted and the body fails of nutrition adequate to its needs. The shipwrecked sailor living upon scraps in which there is no nutrition is on a level with the man who eats abundant nutritions food but whose stomach with its allied organs is diseased and therefore fails to extract from the food eaten the nutrition which is the body's need.

with a sound stomach and good digestion will in ordinary be a sound man, because the nutriment of food is the life and strength of heart, lungs, liver, kidneys and every organ of the body.

The first need of a weak man is to look after his stomach and his digestion. There is the common seat of physical weakness. How-weak men have been made strong; strong of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, and other organs by being made strong of stomach and strong of digestion has been told thousands of times by those who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, "I write to tell you of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. G. B. Bird, of Byrnside, Putnam Co., W. Va. "It cured me of a very bad case of indigestion associated with torpid liver. Before I began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery's I had no appetite; could not sleep nor work but very little. The little that I ate did not agree with me, bowels constipated, and life was a misery to me. I wrote to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery's of Dr. Pierce giving the symptoms, and asked for advice. You advised me to try the 'Golden Medical Discovery's of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery's of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in connection with the 'Discovery,' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in connection with the 'Discovery,' and some of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases which seem remote from that organ but which have their origin in disease of the stomach and its allied organs.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

Persons suffering from disease in chronic form are invited to consult Dr. Pierce's Holden and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no similar offer of free medical advice which has behind it an institution such as the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, assisted has hearted and
