WASHINGTON NOTES.

On Monday the Fifty-seventh Congress organized, with but little excitement or feature of especial interest. The action of the Republican cancus on Saturday settled the position of the majority on the question of changing the rules, and although the Democrate made a perfunctory sort of an effort to have them amended, it was so apparent that it must fail that no one took it seriously. Representative Dalzell was the spokesman on the Republican side, while Mr. Richardson. of Tennessee, led the Democracy The only striking feature of the debate was Mr. Richardson's effort to goad Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, who has championed the Laovement for a change, into arraying him self against his party. He reckoned without his host, however, for Mr. Hepburn came back at him with the statement, which could not be denied, that when he had tried to have the Rev. Proceeding the members of the Grace Lutherau church, and heighbors of Rev. J. C. Nickolas, the new pastor of the Grace Lutherau church, and heighbors of Rev. J. C. Nickolas, and his wife a "Pound Social." at their home on Mercer, St. The affair was gotten up by members of his church and was a complete surprise to the couple About 7 o'clock they arrived at his home in a bunch and the Rev. gracefully surrendered the premises to them. The event was a most pleasant and enjoyable one. Wm. Stewart called the meeting to order, and Peter Kamerer made some remarks, which were happily responded to by Rev. Nicholas; remarks were also made by Mrs. Nicholas; and after the singing of a number of hymns and much pleasant intercourse, the meeting was dismissed by prayer by the pastor. Rev. Nicholas assumed charge of the church here about four weeks ago, coming here from Avonmore, Pa.

On Thanksgiving evening a family reunion was held at the home of Neison Fulton and wife of Middlesex twp. Four generations were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Allison and family, Mr. and Mrs. McCnrdy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and family, Mrs. and Mrs. Miller and family, Mrs. and Mrs. Kennedy, the Misses Thompson of Tarentum and Rev. A. P. Gibson and sister.

A sumptuous dinner was served at 7 to clock. After dinner the company enjoyed the evening singing and in social conversation. An interesting feature was the nursery, when the hour arrived to repair to our homes—to hear sleepy children laugh and cry, to see pas and grandpas and mas and grandmas put the shawls and quilts about the little ones, and then pick up their bundle, half human and half clothes and tilt it into a capacious wagon waiting with into a capacious wagon waiting with prancing steeds at the door. All said good night, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ful-ton many happy returns.

Old-tashioned Training

Its Strong and Weak Points.

The strong point of the old-fashioned training was the stress laid upon morality and virtue. "Be good and you'll be happy," was the common precept set before the growing child. But as the girl grew up to maidenhood she was often sorely puzzled to reconcile those past teachings with her present condition. She was good. Her soul was pure as the lillies of her garden. Her heart was undefiled. And yet she was desperatly unhappy by reason of physical ailments common to women.

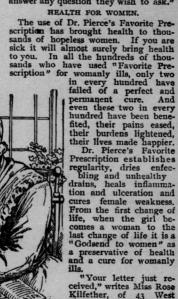

This was the weak side of old-fashioned training: It ignored the July. I took five bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and five vials of 'Pellets.' Have not had a single symptom of my old trouble so far. Can sleep good nights, work hard, and can eat solid and substantial food without distress. There are several of my friends taking your medicines with the best results since they have seen how they helped me.

"If any one wishes to know more of my case and will enclose a stamp I will answer any question they wish to ask."

HEALTH FOR WOMEN.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Preservice of the pr

Kilfether, of 43 West Sharpuack St., Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. "Words fail to express how thankful I am to you for your advice. I must confess that for the length of time I have been using your medicine I have found it to be the most wonderful and best remedy for female troubles that I ever have tried. Sorry I did not know of your 'Favorite Prescription' yera ago, but will gladly tell my friends who are suffering, of your wonderful medicine."

There is no alohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. Sick and alling women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence held as sacred and womanly confidences guarded by the same strict professional privacy which is observed in the perional consultations of Dr. Pierce and his staff (numbering nearly a score of physicians at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

It sometimes happens that the dealer tempted by the little more profit paid by less successful preparations, will try to press a substitute upon the customer, claiming that "it is just as good as Pierce's." It is well to remember at such a time, that the claims of superiority made for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not rest on mere words, rescription do not rest on mere words, but upon cures. Thousands of weak women made strong and sick women made well testify to its superiority over other put-up medicines for women.

is a title which has been aptly applied to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. In plain English it points the way to womanly health and happiness, and fully discusses and illuminates those great and grave questions which involve the well-being of women. This great work, containing 1008 large pages, and over seven hundred illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. For the volume bound in durable cloth send 37 one-cent stamps, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper-covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

W. C. FINDLEY, Att'y.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

when I met with an accident caused by a horse running away. From that time I did not see a well day. I suffered at every monthly period with terrible headache, irritation of the spine and pains in my heels so I could not bear them resting on the softest pillow. What I suffered pen could never describe. I had soreness through my hips and ovaries all the time and constant backache. Was afraid to be alone, imagined that every one hated me, and everything kooked like a mountain. One doctor would tell me one thing alled me, another would say something altogether different, but they only relieved me. I then wrote you in April, needs and requirements of the body.

All its effort was to guide the heart and mind. The body might stumble along anyhow, and it generally did.

Many a sweet-faced, modest-minded young girl has had her first doubts of the goodness of Providence come in through the door of pluysical suffering.

"Why must I suffer in this way?" she asks, "Why does my back ache, my head throb and my side pain, so that I am fain to creep away into a darkened room and forego the pleasures which belong to my season of life?"

NO ANSWER COMES

as a rule to these questions. The young woman looks around and sees scores of similar sufferers. She is told it is a part of the burden laid upon women, and she shapes her shoulders to her heavy load.

This is all a mistake. Proper training, proper physical care would many times prevent these miserable conditions. But in any case, however distressing the present condition, it can be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, if it is a disease curable by medicine.

"I write a few lines to thank you for by medicine.

"I write a few lines to thank you for remedies, to your advice and grand remedies, to which I owe my health, and perhaps my life," says Miss Flora I. Greer, of 107 Howe Street, Akron, Ohio. "My trouble started during my childhood, but did not prove serious until 1823, when I met with an accident caused by a horse running away. From that time
