ACCEPT OUR THANKS! We appreciate the overflowing at tendance at our preliminary opening on Saturday last, and feel grateful for the many congratulations received. We will try to merit the continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed upon us on our first business day, and thank the cur first business day, and thank the public for such a truly generous welcome. Our formal opening will be announced later. To prove worthy of your continued patronage, we have laid down the following governing principles, in the sale of Dry Goods, Millinery and Ladies' and Men's Furnishings: Quality, price, truthfulness. We put quality first, because you want the best, price next, because you want the best for the least money; truthfulness at the bottom of it all, or the others count for bottom of it all, or the others count for nothing. Truthfulness is the founda-tion and corner stone of this store. Our word will be as good as our bond. Hold us to strict account. but give us your confidence, and watch the young store

CHURCH NOTES.

In Clinton twp. Wm Walker's barn was cracked and a horse killed in it and the barns of Wm. Snyder, Geo. Henry and W. Gibson were unroofed; and in Buffalo twp. P. Drain's horse, standing in front of a church was killed by a tree falling noon it.

The big stained glass window in the west side of the South Side church west side of the South Side church wavered in a dangerous manner during the big wind storm last Sunday. Had it gone in fatalities would doubtless have resulted.

A horse belonging to Henry Zimmerman of the Plank Road, which was hitched in the yard, pulled up its hitching post and started to run away, but was stopped and caught by Miss Annie Kalb

In the Montgomery oil field Eisler & O'Brien had 14 out of a total of 16 derricks blown down. In that field the storm made an almost clean sweep. T. W. Phillips has 64 rigs down in the county and the Forest over 300.

At Coylesville, Abe Flick's barn was blown down and Thomas Leech's house papeofed.

YOUR CLOTHES MAY BE shabby and look badly worn, but perhaps you haven't time to bother about them and perhaps no one will notice your clothes anyway, so you forget about them. But this forgetting is a mighty big task when your mother, wife or sister presists in reminding you of your seedy appearance; you'll begin to believe she's about right, out before you rush off to buy another suit which is quickly made and quickly worn out, take a little time to see our showing of new importations (exclusive styles) and learn for what little money you can acquire the habit of wear ing clothes made for you; made by hand in our tailor Shop in Butler. We take the pains to fit you.
