The statement of M. N. Greer of Buf falo township, regarding the Judicia agreement of ten years ago, makes r gets all about it, just as he now-a-day forgets the horse he rides to the station and postoffice, and walks home He is now well up in years and has be come feeble -physically and mentally; while Walker's affidavit is by a man in

It is now over a year since a certain citizen of Fairview township told us that he had "been pledged to Judge dreer for three years," which show that Greer conceived the idea of violat ing the pledges that secured his election as Judge, and of making an effort to re nominate himself about four years ago or about the middle of his ten year

Since that time he has taken advantage of every opportunity offered by hi position (and they are numerous) to make friends for himself by placing men under obligations to him for favors and numerous will be provided for the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and rescribed to the children and parents are invited and the companion and the companion and the companion are the children and parents are invited and the companion and the companion are the children and parents are invited and the companion and the companion and the companion are the children and the children and parents are invited and the companion and the companion and the companion and the companion are the children and the children and the children and the companion are the children and th rendered; and this has made him formidable candidate, notwithstanding the outrageous things he has don on that Bench, and his abomniable pri vate record.

To one acquainted with the dark side of John M. Greer's character, the hing ing of this campaign upon a mere ques tion of veracity between the candidate and their friends seems supremely ridio ulous; though Mr. Galbreath's letter to Mr. Hepler, and the silence of Messr Bowser and Goucher, both of whom we have quoted, fastened Greer's lie about the pledges upon him as closely as could without the aid of Walker's affidavit or Matthew's memory.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gates, an aged couple residing near Clintonville, were terribly tortured and robbed at an early hour Saturday morning. Friday, Mr. Gates drove to Emlenton and drew from a bank $550 to pay off a mortgage. The thieves were aware of this fact, for when they entered the residence they at once demanded this specific sum.

Gates refused to hand over the money when the thugs dragged him from bed and applied hot irons to his feet, burning them in a horrible manner. Mrs. Gates was treated in the same manner. but nothing could induce the aged couple to tell where the $550 was.

After taking a small sum of money, a few pieces of silverware and clothing the thieves left. Mr. and Mrs. Gates were unconscions by that time and To the Republicans of Butler county: I have received a number of letters from members of primary election boards in various parts of the county asking for instructions as to who will

Sabbath School Convention

The announcement of Col. Huff, in this county, as a candidate for Congress, comes as a surprise, and if the West-moreland county Republicans have har monized all their differences, and stand in with the State Committee, the outlook for the Butler county nominee is not very encouraging.

The Republican primary in Beaver county, last Thursday, was an unusually exciting and bitterly contested one. The three delegates to the State Convention—M. S. Quay, J. M. May and T. F. Jobe were elected without opposition, though Quay was cut in every precinct, and only saved himself from being instructed for Elkin, by a compromise. He spent several days in Beaver previous to the primary, but he and his friends called "the Court House ring" were completely routed at the polls.

At the primaries of last Saturday, Elkin carried Northumberland county by a 6 to 1 vote, and secured four delegates. The town of Sunbury gave in the M. E. church, are Adam M. E. church are Adam M. Rev. Robert Andley Browne, D. D., one of the oldest and best known ministers in Western Pennsylvania, died last Thursday at his home in New Castle. Death was due to heart trouble from which he has suffered for two years. He had been pastor of the First U. P. church for 50 years and witnessed the corner stone laid for two churches on the same site. During the civil war he was chaplain of the One Hundred Round Head regiment, and many stories are told of his bravery on the field. In 1866 he was elected to the State Senate. He also served for several years as president of Westminster college. He was in his 81st year and leaves a wife and three children.
