A stranger giving his name as Edward Yates was arrested in the Post Office Tuesday, for picking pockets and was held for Court after a hearing before Justice McElvain.

Justice McElvain. At the continuation of the Wuller estate hearing Wednesday afternoon on the matter of appointing a committee for the estate, it was developed that great bitterness of feeling existed be-tween Charles J. Wuller, the son of D. H. Wuller and his uncle and annts, the brothers and sisters of his father. Tharles Wuller, brother of D. H., testified that, after his nephew had told them that he had had his father D. H. placed in No. 2 ward in which mild and curable cases are confined at the Warren Asylum, he visited that in-stitution and was at first refused per-mission to see his brother, and only suc-ceeded after a great deal of trouble. Instead of finding his brother in ward No. 2 he was in No. 10, surrounded by raving maniacs and idiots. After much controversy, Charles H. Wuller, the son, was appointed and bond in $60.000 was required.

Tremendous Demand for Houses.

The completion of the gig-ntic plant of the Youngstown Iron, Sheet and Tube Company will create a tremendous demand for houses near the works. Builders and individual investors who get in and supply this demand will reap a forture. This industry is already calling armies of operatives to the depart-ments which have been completed, and in the course of a few months will give emylogment to thcusands more. When the entire works are finished, there will be such a cry for homes that real estate prices in the East Youngstown Plan of Lots will advance anywhere
