Social progress has done away with a great many forms of punishment once administered under the laws of enlightened people. But nature never changes or modifies her penalties. She still has the same punishment for the man who neglects or abuses his stomach as she had in the far off days "when Adam delved and Eve span."

The physical discomfort, dullness, sluggishness, irritability, nervousness and sleeplessness and sleeplessness which are visited upon the man who eats carelessly or irregularly have been from the beginning the evidences of disease of

In the middle of the street, where the Calle Elias, or main business street, crosses the international avenue, stands a stone obelisk about twelve feet high, and in the vicinity of this green always one or two guards. of this are always one or two guards in civilian dress, who pay no attention to empty handed passersby, but will stop any carriage or any person who offers to cross with a burden that might contain dutiable material. Occasionally on the Mexican side one sees a Mexican soldier in uniform, but the cuartel near by is too small to hold more than a small detachment, and neither soldiers nor uniformed customs guards are ever in evidence along the border. The Americans live apart from one another in individual houses of all grades, most of which are very neat and some of which are quite fine and must have been costly. Their streets run up the sides of the mountain glen in which the town is situated. In among their houses are the adobe cabins of the Mexicans, who are their hewers of wood and drawers of water the state of the sta ter (these terms being literally correct here, for the fuel of the country is knotted and gnarled wood, brought

A CHURCH LIGHTHOUSE. Charleston, S. C., Has the Only One In the World.

The only church in the world so far as is known that is also a lighthouse is St. Philip's church, Charleston, S. C. St. Philip's, which is one of the oldes churches in America, is known as the "Westminster abbey of South Caroli-na," because within and about its walls so many distinguished men lie buried, including John C. Calhoun. The history of the old church is closely interwoven with that of South Carolina, and many of the most celebrated events in the selected. It is of the history of the province are connected with it.

It is one of the sights of Charleston. and strangers are always taken to see it and shown its graves and monuments.

The most remarkable feature of the old church, however, is the fact that its lofty steeple serves the purpose of a lighthouse and is used to guide the seafarer and mariner safely into the ort of Charleston. The use of the ste ple as a lighthouse dates back to 1894, when the United States lighthouse department succeeded by dint of repeated efforts in inducing the vestry of the old church to allow a lantern to laced in the upper story of the st o be used as a range light for ve ring the harbor through the jettie at its mouth.

The light used is very powerful and is placed at an altitude of about 125 feet above the ground, so that it is easily visible thirty miles at sea. Ships making for Charleston harbor at nigh always keep a sharp lookout for St Philip's light and as soon as they sight t get it into line with the beacon o Fort Sumter and then make a straight-away run for the mouth of the jettles and up through them into the harbor

St. Philip's church steeple is considered one of the handsomest architec-turally in the world and always atracts the eye of strangers entering Charleston from the sea by its commanding height and artistic propor tions.—St. Louis Republic.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Geo. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuvenating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age." "I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so bad my mind showed signs of weakness. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my life."

Dr. Nervine

Saved me from the insane asylum," Mrs. A. M. Heifner, of Jerico Springs, Mo., writes. "I was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself, could not sleep nor rest, would even forget the names of my own children at times. I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and it helped me from the first, and now I am perfectly well." Sold by all Druggists on Guarantee. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
