EAU CLAIRE, PA, July 29, 1902. A mad female white bull dog came to the residence of Morace Wades and bit a cow; went from there to W Sloan's farm near Eau Claire and bit seven cows and six hogs; then went to Richard Sloan's and bit five cows; from there to John McJamison's near Murrinsville, Monday morning about 6 o'clock, and bit seven head of fine sheep.

The dog was killed by John Jamison. We don't know what other damages was done in the night. We also would like the owner of said dog to give us some information where the dog belongs.

The Circus.

Oh, come! Hear the drum; Hear the fife Full of life; Hear the band Playing grand Melodies— Loudly shout
And jump about:
Hear the steam
Whistle scream;
See the tiger full of rage,
Prancing up and down his cage:
See the lion foam and pant,
See the lourly elephant;
Then, oh! come, oh come to night,
When the stars are shining bright;
Come, oh come in fine array,
When the bands begin to play,
And the painted clown invokes
Laughter with his funny jokes;
And the boy in blue arrayed
Ladles out red lemonade;
And the people ridicule
Him who'd try to ride the mule.
Be light hearted—be as gay
As a butterfly in May;
All your care and sorrow drown
When the circus comes to twen. Then the circus comes to town.

Hard Luck in Large Lumps.

James Irwin of West Pearl street, left Monday a week for Wheeling, W. Va., where he entered the hospital to have an operation performed on an in-have an operation performed on an injured leg.

The story of Mr. Irwin's is one of of rock-bottom hard luck. Nine months ago, while working on top of a drilling machine at a well in the shallow sand territory below Wheeling he fell, was caught on the shaft of the machine, hurled around and received many injuries the worst of which was a compound fracture of the bones of the machine, hurled around and received many injuries the worst of which was a compound fracture of the bones of the lower right leg. Irwin was hauled over rough roads to the Wheeling I hospital, where the physicians told him the bones were broken in three places, and also splintered. He was deadened with opiates and when he awoke next day, all his injuries were dressed.

Two months later he was discharged the doctor telling him the bones had thoroughly united. As an extra precaution a plaster of paris case was put on the leg, which the doctor said could safely come off in three weeks.

Irwin came home, but the leg grew weaker instead of stronger and he has hobbled around on crutches for six months past. Morday of last week he went to Pittsburg and had the injured member examined under an X-Ray machine. It was perfectly shown that there were but two clean breaks, instead of three and that the bones were not crushed at all. It was also shown that the fractures had never been reduced and set. The broken ends extended past each other nearly two inches, while the ends of the smaller bone just touched and had united at the edges only. Irwin feels justly and greatly enraged. He started for bone just touched and had united at the edges only. Irwin feels justly and greadly enraged. He started for Wheeling to make the hospital keep him and the doctor cure him right or be sued for mal-practice.

Irwin's chagrin and indignation is deepened by the financial loss occasioned him. He paid the Wheeling hospital $180 and the doctor bills increased the total to $500. Add to this the loss of almost a year's drilling at $4 a day, and worst of all the loss of a very valuable lease for which he had already been offered $5000.
