SEPT. 19. "Ay don't want to go to yail-dat's why I quit des faller as soon as I get anoder yob," this is what Nels Nelson says in the new musical farce comedy, "Mr. Plaster of Pasis," a genuinely humorous play, full of new and bright laughable lines and tuneful music. The players have been selected with the utmost care, resulting in a combination of competent comedians, talented girls, musical hits and a farcical performance of the highest class.

DAVID HARUM. -TUESDAY, SEPT. 23 David Harum.—Tuesday, Sept. 23.

One of the reigning successes of the past two seasons has been "David Harum", which is to be presented at the Park Theatre, Sept. 23. The play, as everyone knows, is a dramatization of Westcott's novel and report credits it with being the best of all the works transplanted from between the covers of a book to the stage in the absolute faithfulness with which it reproduces its scenes and characters. Everyone who has ever had a whiff of new mown hay or lived within sound of the cow bells in the country can not help but like this play.

Grand Opera House, Pittsburg.

Anthony Hope's brilliant romantic drama, "Rupert of Hentzau", a sequel to The Prisoner of Zenda, will occupy the attention of the new stock company the week of September 22nd, at the Grand Opera House, Pittsburg. This play for a long time held a high place in the repertoire of Mr. James K. Hackett, but it has never before been presented in Pittsburg. It is a continuation of a fascinating story of The Prisoner of Zenda.
