PENNYPACKER IN BUTLER.

Notwithstanding the rain a large crowd of Republicans went to the P. & W. station last Friday evening, waited for an hour on a delayed train, and then gave Judge Pennypacker and his party hearty welcome to Batler.

They came in from Sharon and Mercer on the "Bessie," supped at one of our hotels, and then repaired to the Oper-House, where a large audience had assembled to see, hear and greet them. After music by the band Dr. Leighne called the meeting to order, Col. Thompson was elected to preside, and a long list of V. Ps. and secretaries named.

Col. Thompson opened with a few glowing and eloquent remarks on the prosperity of the Nation, and the glory of the flag, and then introduced Judge Pennypacker, who spoke, as follows:

Pennypacker, who spoke, as follows: "It is not my purpose to endeavor to enterthin you with a display of wit or eloquence, but rather to reason with you and to do what I can to sustain you in the support of the principles of the Re-publican party. I propose to discuss with you for a brief time tonight the much-mooted question of ballot reform, a question to which our worthy oppo-nents seem to devote the most attention. I am inclined to the belief their interests in the matter is not so much because of an effort to better our own condition, as it is the hope that some device will be discovered by means of which the ma-jority party may have increased difficul-ties in polling their votes and having them counted so that the minority party may thus diminish to that extent the distance between them. "If one inclined to the the ballef for the

And that purpose they have ex-pressed, no only in legislation, but in constitutional provisions. I have ob-served that the distinguished gentleman who leads the opposition party and who is seeking for an election as Governor, while spending days and nights in de-porneing the people of the great State of condemnation or these more pro-nonneed efforts in the Democratic States.

operators yet refuse to arbitrate, law-incomced efforts in the Democratic States. "The existing law upon the subject in Pennsylvania was devised in the inter-est of reform by others than politicians, and it was based upon a system which has been tried in Australia. It was thought that by placing the names of all nominees of all parties upon one ballot. by segregating the voters in separate booths where each one could mark privately the names of the nomi-nees for whom he intended to vote, and by printing the ballot and giving him number, fraud could be eliminated, in fluence be overcome and asfety assured "The gentleman who was then the Governor of the State, looking to the in-terests of the Commonwealth as well as to the interest of the Demoeratic party, which he represented, approved of the bill and under his signature it becames law. I think it must be admitted that the plan which was intended to aid in eliminating indecent yoting has in practice worked just the other way, noi because the means are not provided, but he coase the complications are such that the plany which hese interests of facility of the same right but I knew well what the usual result is when two. I assure you that if I am elected the such an act, if it can be pass d, shall have my support.' He was followed by Hon. William M. Brown of New Castle, Repulican nominee for Lieut. Governor, who made a rattling, old-time, Republican speech of the First and Second wards, excepton National questions. It was the first ing as to the inopportune time, for they

some funny stories which kept the audience in a good humor; the meeting adjourned and Judge Pennypacker went down on the floor and shook hands with and to the appointment of strangers on all who wished to meet him. Altogether the meeting was a success In drew hie internet was an a second of the second drive around Butler, Saturday morning and then took a train for Johnstown, Cambria county, where Attorney Gen-

CURRENT EVENTS.

CURRENT EVENTS. The deaths, lately, of two of the phy-Sicians of Butler, both of which were caused by consumption, directed the attention of this community to the ravages of that disease. Physicians tell us that it is caused by a microbe or bacillus; that it is caused by a microbe or bacillus; that it is contag-itus, and that, excepting in its last stages, it is curable; and yet statisticians tell us that one-seventh of the entire human race die of it. All over the civilized world its vic-tims try a change of climate for it. Of the two doctors referred to one went to Colorado and the other to Arizona in the hope of relief; in Europe the favor-ite resort for consumptives is the Ri-viera; while many English go to the is-land of Madeira. It may well be said that the whole fabric of our govern-ment rests upon getting out the vote of all citizens, and any measure which is proper should receive the support of every man interested in the welfare of our government. It seems to me that Orinoco river to make a second attempt at bombarding the city of Cuidad Boli var. In order to disarm suspicion and to avert attack it hoisted the Stars and Stripes, and in this way proceeded without opposition to the Customs House, from which point it opened fire on the centre of the city.
