NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisements to be placed in this paper should be paid for in advance. Mrs. Thomas B. White of Fairview Ave. is ill and unable to attend to her business.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

All our subscribers who are being served by Rural Free Delivery, who have not already done so, are requested to notify us at once. If you will drop us a postal card, giving the name of your present office as well as the new office and the number of the route, it will greatly simplify matters and aid both us and the postal authorities.

—New stores of all kinds. —Summer birds are taking their departure. —Somehow politics does not warm up very rapidly. —Electric cars have conductors and non-conductors. —Now is the time to put your "No Trespassing" signs.

—A rolling stone gathers no moss, but neither does a rolling mill. —It is proposed to have the American flag raised over all the postoffices. —The B. & O. has resumed possession of the narrow gauge road from Foxburg. —Quite a number of our people are repairing their sidewalks—getting ready for the winter. —Several postmasters have lately sent us lists of new addresses for which we return thanks.

—Picnics, lawn tennis and excursions are being supplanted by dances, excursions and tea parties. —Rainy noon had an interesting time arming an Italian at McKee's Rocks, Monday, but secured his man. —The late wreck on the "Bessie" is said to have been caused by a blunder made in the dispatcher's office in Greenville. —The Union Pacific R. Co. has ordered 1,700 cars from the Steel Car Co. here, and the works are now running night and day.

—This is "Millinery Opening" week, and our milliners offer all the prettiest things in the market. Look over their cards in this paper. —(A white dog) that the "week shall inherit the earth, but in these days the fellow who wants the earth isn't built on these lines. —Some peach orchards in Lawrence county have been condemned on account of the "yellows," and the state inspector ordered the trees destroyed. —Considering the crowd there were but few "drunks" on the streets Saturday evening, but wait till next Saturday—day and show day. —Just now the Court of Dauphin Co. is occupied with election cases to the exclusion of all other business. Our primary election laws seem to need revising.

—The sun crossed the equator last week, and the nights and days are now of about equal length, with the days growing shorter. It has been a "peculiar" summer. —A country editor who was not asked, "Do dogs pay?" replied, "Not often. They usually borrow the paper from their neighbors, or beat the publisher out of his money in some other way." —Several openings for coal mines have been made on the Wasell farm, near Kaylor, by the Great Lakes Coal Co., which will open its mines in electricity, and is building a large power house. —Seven of the family of Jacob Wyant of Jefferson twp., (on the old Samuel Barr farm) were down with typhoid fever a few days ago. Miss Myrtle came home sick from Pittsburg six or seven weeks ago, and died. Mr. Wyant and two of his daughters escaped the disease, and are now recovering. The sick ones are all recovering. Alex Hays recited a lot of poetry to them the other day, and the neighbors gathered and did Mr. Wyant's plowing.

—The County Commissioners of Westmoreland Co., on last Saturday, awarded the contract for the erection of the new County Court House to Caldwell & Drake of Indianapolis. The contract price is $872,000, and the structure, it is understood, will be of Webb granite. The award was not made unanimously, Commissioner W. D. Reamer supporting the New York firm of Norcross Brothers. Commissioners Gay and Earnest stood by the Indianapolis firm. But while the contract has been let there are stories afloat in Greensburg which, if verified will probably have a tendency to again set the award aside. —The following graduates of Butler Business College have just recently accepted positions as follows: Ewerly Boyer, stenographer and book-keeper, Kittanning Plate Glass Co., Kittanning, Pa.; Harry Shiver, book-keeper, Harmony Mills, Harmony, Pa.; J. L. Enrick, Clerk, West Penn R. Co., Butler, Pa.; Grace Tobay, Stenographer, Standard Steel Works, Butler, Pa. —The Remington Typewriter Company of Pittsburg have this to say about the Butler Business College: "You have the largest and best equipped school in our territory, outside of Pittsburg, save one and you will do that one now, and you know of no school that we think more of nor that is doing better work than yours. The territory embraces Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and part of West Virginia. Students can enter at any time, but it is especially advantageous to enter on the first of each succeeding month. Send for catalogue and circulars. Address A. F. Bissel, Principal. —FOR SALE—A good driving horse. See G. M. Graham, Clerk of Courts. —"Perfect" Ovens and Good Bakers. Get them at Whitehill's.

A lively fight took place last Friday night for Jennilla and Marie Barnes—two little girls of Mrs. Margaret Barnes whom the latter left with their aunt, Mrs. Robert Holmes and grand, Mrs. Albert Waters, when sent to the Work House. Mrs. Holmes was caring for the children in the home of Mrs. Waters. On Friday Ballard Page and wife, Josephine, who is an older daughter of Mrs. Barnes came to Butler from the Work House and demanded the children. They were refused and invited to leave the house. Instead they forcibly carried the children away in their night clothes after knocking Mrs. Holmes down and throwing Mrs. Waters over a bed. On getting outside they clothed the children in garments of the Waters' children which had been thrown out of a window during the fight. Mrs. Waters called the police and made information for larceny and kidnapping. The Pages were arrested with the children when about to board a n. a. train Saturday. A very lurid hearing was had before Esq. Keck. Twenty-four names were added to the registry list of the third ward and two to that of the Fifth ward and seven to that of First ward. James Taylor was appointed minority inspector of Harrisville.
