POLITICAL. Rev. Geo. E. Reed, State Librarian, sent his resignation to Gov. Stone, last Saturday. Dr. Reed gives no reason for his action in his formal resignation, although it is thought he will supplement it with a public statement in favor of ex-Gov. Robert E. Pattison's candidacy.

The people of forty-two states will go to the polls next Tuesday, those of the other three (Maine, Vermont and Oregon) having already voted this year for State officials and their representatives in the Fifty-eighth Congress.

Major State officers and Congressmen are to be chosen in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, South Carolina, Alabama, Texas, Michigan, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, North Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Nevada and California. New Hampshire elects only a Governor; Tennessee, a Governor and railroad commissioner, and Pennsylvania, a Governor, two principal political parties, a dozen others have tickets in the field.

The terms of 30 United States Senators expire March 4, 1923. Five have already been filed by election. Aside from the two principal political parties, a dozen others have tickets in the field.

One month ago there was a very pessimistic feeling among Republican leaders over the results of the coming Congressional elections. There was a sentiment that the coal strike would have a disastrous effect on the voters. Just why this should have been so, even if it was, has never been demonstrated, but it probably arose out of the fact that the worst defeat the Republican party has had in a generation followed the Homestead strike. It is true that there is no parallel between the two cases, but since the Homestead strike had no real relation to politics and since the defeat that followed was simply incidental, the managers have felt that it might be repeated.

It is, however, a very different view that is taken just now. The strike is over and the fact that the President brought about the method of settlement has undoubtedly helped the party all over the country.

Mr. Babcock, who is chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, feels that the situation is so much relieved that he can safely predict a considerable Republican majority next week. The fact must not be forgotten that in nearly every State there has been a redistribution based on the new apportionment. The census figures were generally very favorable to those States where the Republican majorities are largest and most constant. It would seem that there is a great preponderance of evidence in favor of Republican majorities, and that there is little chance of defeat.

While Mr. Babcock is strong in his claims of success, he is not allowing the party to suffer from overconfidence. He has announced time and time again that the Republicans of the country cannot expect to win unless they vote. A month ago there was much apathy, not only in doubtful districts, but in those sections where Republicans have generally been elected without any trouble—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The ballot will be of the blank form again this year, containing ten columns.

The Panama Canal. On Saturday last Attorney General Knox handed to President Roosevelt his opinion on the validity of the title the new Panama Canal Company can raise for to the United States if it sells the canal to the Government for $40,000,000 as proposed last Spring. The Attorney General finds that the title is clear and cannot be successfully attacked.

The United States will now build the Panama Canal, if Colombia will make a treaty with the United States to build the canal to the United States to build it as the United States is to build it in the completion of the treaty now in process of negotiation and the construction of the canal seem assured.

The losses incident to the coal strike would nearly build the Panama canal.

While the funeral cortege of Michael Feigel, the teacher and pupil, paid a fitting tribute to the life and death of the deceased, the stars and stripes waving from the pole in the school yard, and while the procession was passing, teacher and pupils surrounded the flag and sang the national anthem. This simple act was the source of much favorable comment by the members of the Grand Army and also by members of the bereaved family.—Millerstown Herald. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the well-known woman suffragist, died at her home in New York, last Saturday. Old age was given as the cause of death. She was conscious almost to the last. About a week ago Mrs. Stanton began to fail rapidly. This became more noticeable and then it was known to the family that her death was only a question of days or hours. Card of Thanks. We kindly thank our neighbors and friends for their help, care and attention during the illness of our father, John Cypher. We will always remember it. A. C. MOSER AND WIFE. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania, in Bankruptcy. In the matter of No. 181, in Bankruptcy. Bankrupt. Creditors of Patrick Galdon, of Butler in the County of Butler, and district of Pennsylvania, are hereby notified that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of J. W. Hutchison, Attorney at Law, in Butler, Pa., on the 11th day of November, A. D. 1922, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the creditors will present their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the books and papers of the bankrupt, and such other business as may properly come before the court. J. W. HUTCHISON, Attorney at Law, in Bankruptcy. Public. ELECTION boards should remember that under the terms of the new amendment to the Constitution the ballots are not to be numbered. PUBLIC opinion is just now being strongly declared in favor of President Roosevelt. You may emphasize it by voting for a Republican Congressman. The Coal Strike. Lentz & Co. resumed operations last week, but when the Union miners discovered that fifty of their men were on the "black list" they quit. The 5th, 14th and 18th regiments broke camp and started for home Tuesday; the 16th received orders to spread itself over the entire region covered by the four regiments. Co. L will be located at Shenandoah. At Washington the anthracite coal strike commission decided to begin an investigation of the mines and houses of the miners, starting on Thursday in the vicinity of Scranton and covering the whole field. John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, presented the original demand of the miners for an increase of 20 per cent in wages, a similar reduction of working hours, the payment for coal mined by weight at a minimum rate of 60 cents per ton of 2,240 pounds, and a wage agreement between the operators and miners. George F. Baer, president of the Reading company, took exception to Mitchell's appearance as a representative of the mine workers' union, but said that he had no objection to his presence as a representative of the strikers in an individual capacity. The commission made no attempt to settle the controversy, but it was apparent that the recognition of the miners' union will be a knotty problem for the arbitrators. Orders were received Tuesday to prepare for the regiment voting in the field on November 4. Orders were received and protest guards have been removed and the camp guard only remains. HUNTING contests, in which the object is to see which side can sacrifice the largest number of happy and innocent lives, without even the excuse of wanting to appease the appetite for wild game, are no longer to be encouraged. It is not humane sport, to say the least. ACCORDING to an opinion given by Attorney General Elin in the halls used at the approaching election will not have to be numbered. The people of the State having adopted a Constitutional Amendment to abolish that feature, the law requiring ballots to be numbered is no longer constitutional, and need not be observed. LOOKOUT for a wholesale Republican victory next Tuesday. Turn out and vote, and thus share in the honor of victory. DON'T forget to vote next Tuesday. A Startling Report. One that Speaks Volumes—Tells of a Great Good Done—Of a Certain Cure—For the Nerves—Weak and Sleepless. Mrs. E. A. Page of 125 East Jefferson St., Butler, Pa., says:—"I am able to recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to others as a reliable nerve and general tonic. When I got some at Dr. H. Walter's Drug Store I was run down, restless, nervous and unable to get good sleep. The Nerve Pills soon demonstrated their power to give me strength, energy, steady nerves and restful sleep. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at all drug stores or at Dr. A. W.
