Consider the case of that landrath of Mecklenburg who, because he was made the subject of humoro he was made the subject of humorous poesy by the opposition, set the machin-ery of the law in ponderous motion against the author, the publisher and the reader and demanded two months' ent for the un itor who "grunted gleefully" and ap-planded the composition. After ten months of Htigation the writer was sened to 80 days in jail, the publish was fined $75 and the reader $12.50; but we are glad to observe that the gentle-man who grunted gleefully escaped. It is good to know that a jovial citizen can heavy hand of justice. The case arouses recollection of the more celebrated Irish recollection of the more celebrated Irish case during the palmy days of boycotting, where the Widow Flanagan was convicted of winking at Gallagher's pig and thereupon impressively bound over to keep the peace. It is apparent that, notwithstanding less majeste and the other medieval trimmings of the Kaiser's realm, there is more personal freedom in the Fatherland than in the Emerald Isle.—Ex.

No restriction, except write or see us, before you bring your Buckwheat, so that we have ample stocks of corn. The railroads are very slow hauling freight hailroads are very slow hauling these days.

As there are nearly 12 lbs of hulls on a bushel of Buckwheat, this enchange means 600 lbs. of solid Corn for about 375 lbs. of pure Buckwheat, after the hulls are removed. Is this a good exchange, with corn retailing at nearly 80c per bushel? Figure it out.
