COOPER,

Leading Tailor, With Newton, Piano Man.

THE MOST IMPORTANT question of the day is why Newton, "The Piano Man," can sell a better piano for less money than anyone else in Western Pennsylvania.

He represents the wealthiest manufacturers of Pianos. You pay direct to them for all the Pianos. The expense of selling them is 25c less than the ordinary retail man and you save his profit, which means to you $175 saved. My customers are my references. All pianos fully warranted. Prices from $250 to $1,500—10 per cent off for cash. All pianos fully warranted. My customers are my references. All pianos fully warranted. My customers are my references.

Not a voice answered. The Apaches had ridden down close to Johnston and were looking at him with a look of surprise. "You had an hour in which to get, and you didn't go," said the stranger, "and you didn't go." "You had an hour in which to get, and you didn't go," said the stranger, "and you didn't go."

REDHORN'S TENDERFOOT

By Charles Lee Taylor
Copyright, 1901, by J. S. Richardson

Redhorn was a tough town. Half a dozen "tenderfoots" among its highly picturesque population stood ready to shoot at the drop of the hat, and as many more professional bloodsuckers and gamblers were handy with their guns. It was a dull day when a killing was not reported and an off week that did not chronicle a lynching.
