Meeting of the Legislature.

Harmony was the chief feature of the meeting of the Pennsylvania legislature at Harrisburg, this week, there being no contests in sight for anything excepting some of the minor appoint-

The Republicans of the Senate held their caucus, Monday night, when John M. Scctt of Philadelphia was selected for President pro. tem. without oppos ion; the Republicans of the House o, met in caucus, and Henry F. Wal on of Philadelphia was selected for Speaker without opposition: and J. Frank Graff of Armstrong Co. and Edard James of Lackawanna county were named for Secretaries. A Slate nittee of one member from each of the Congressional districts (old apportionment) was then selected, a resolution tion providing for final adjournment, April 16th was adopted and the caucus djourned. Both houses met for organizatio Tuesday noon.

In the Senate, Mr. Scott, was elected Pres. pro. tem, over the Democratic nominee, Mr. Herbot, by a vote of 37 to ; and in the House Mr. Walton was elected Speaker, over Mr. Castner by a vote of 157 to 46.

The desks of many of the members of both houses were covered with flowers, which were gathered up and taken to the city Hospital, and some routine ness followed, included the reading the Governor's Message, and the fixing of April 16th as the date of final adjournment.

The Message was a remarkably short one, and in it the Gov. states the financial condition of the state, says the labor riots cost the state more than a million dollars, and strongly urges the passage of a compulsory arbitration bill. He attributes the financial condition of the state treasury to the good work of the Attorney General and Auditor General, in collecting amounts due the state, and of the new Capitol speaks as "The Capitol Building commiss best experience that could be secured. A contract has been awarded to George F. Payne & Co. for the construction of the building for $3,505,656.

"This magnificent building will be enstructed out of the general revenues of the State without borrowing a single dollar or subjecting the people to any additional burdens whatever. You can rely upon the commission's statemen that it will be completed within the time specified and for the amount apted, and that the state will have he best value obtainable for the money

Yesterday the legislature made the formal count of the vote of the recent tate election, and then adjourned til Monday the 19th; when they will again able, and be present at the inauguration of Gov. Pennypacker, the next day, 20th-"the third Tuesday of January" fixed by the Constitution as beginning of his four-years term.
