Prospect.

Prospect is still on the map although the railroad seems to be going along slowly.

Clara Badger has returned from a visit to Butler.

Clara Thompson, of R. F. D. 44, spent part of last week in town, the guest of her friend, Clara Lepley.

The Lutherans will hold services in the I. O. O. F. hall while their church is being repaired.

Little Kenneth Riddle had a pet cat, which he named "Critic."

Bain Forrester hurt his wrist at school sometime ago, and had to miss a month of school on account of it.

J. C. Miller and Charles Henshaw went to Porterville, last week, to have their teeth fixed, and get some of Humphrey's bargains.

Sam Graham has gone to Culmerville, Allegheny Co., where he is pumping for oil.

James Gallagher, ex-carrier of No. 43 is attending Slipperyrock Normal this winter and says the rules and regulations are just what he needs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weigle recently entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heyl, Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Cole, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ralston.

Billie Clark has gone to Butterport to teach school and now Time Bohm will miss those stories and jokes which he and Billie were to crack.

Vest Shuff is running engine on Wilson street, and is being repaired by the school board.

Mrs. Wolford is spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Ralston of Slippery Rock town.

Plummer Badger has recovered from his sprained foot and walks as spry as ever.

Sam Beatty, Sr., of R. F. D. No. 44, was in town last week, and was very pleased to see "blowing" what last till the snow went off."

Martha Pennington is an early riser, and is one of the few who get up before the little girls are up. Good girl.

Clarence Riddle, who spent a year or so as locomotive engineer in N. M. and Colo., is now in town, and is very busy.

Lois Roth and Marian Thompson, two of our good little ladies, are getting up soap orders, and doing fine.

Teachers' Local Institute. One of the most enthusiastic educational meetings of the year was held in the meeting room of the school on Saturday, Jan. 24th.

The meeting was called to order by F. A. McClung at 10:00 a. m. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. E. J. Spach.

The address of welcome was given by Miss Lena Montag then followed by an excellent response by Mr. Thomas Cratty. There was an excellent program rendered.

There is a Question About It. It's a Plain Statement of Facts Made by a Butler Citizen.

Mrs. Finnell of 264 Centre Ave., Butler, Pa., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are so splendid. They brace one up so finely after a short time I felt so much refreshed—I presume because I slept so well. As far as the stomach is concerned they aid digestion finely. I have used them myself and given them to the children with equally good results."

It was fortunate that I was told Dr. H. Walker, District Attorney, Butler, Pa., is a member of the order.

Jonathan Durnell, a veteran of the Civil war, and a highly respected citizen, died on Wednesday, Jan. 24th, at his home in Butler, Pa.

He had been in poor health for some time, but on Wednesday morning he was feeling so much better that he had hitched up his team and sleigh and started on his way to work.

On the way home Mr. Durnell expired in his sleigh and the team kept their way along the road without a driver. A neighbor called to the help, and on investigation found Mr. Durnell dead in the bottom of the sleigh where he had fallen.

He was 62 years of age and is survived by his wife and eight children, five daughters and three sons.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.
