Health is a magnet which irresistibly draws the man to the woman in life's mating time. Health does more than tint the skin with beauty; it puts music into the voice and buoyancy into the step, as well as happiness into the heart. A great many women covet beauty and are constantly seeking aids to beautify them. Let a woman first seek perfect health and all other charms shall be added to her.

There can be no general health for women while there is disease of the delicate womanly organism. The first step to perfect health is to cure womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mountjoy, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everyone who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. To-day I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Dr. Humphreys.

After fifty years Dr. Humphreys' Specifics enjoy the greatest popularity and largest sale in their history, due to intrinsic merit. They cure the sick.

BUTCHERING TIME.

Curing Choice Bacon and Pork For Boiling Pieces.

Bacon is the most popular and the most easily digested of any pork meat. When new corn is ready to feed, select early spring pigs that are strictly healthy, but are thin in flesh. Feed them up rapidly, thus causing the flesh to be tender. Pigs weighing about 150 pounds make the best bacon. Cut the sides into strips three or four inches wide and put them for six weeks into a brine made thus: For 100 pounds of meat use six pounds of salt, two pounds of brown sugar and four ounces of saltpeter, with water enough to cover the meat when closely packed in a clean cask. Boil, skim and cool. Sprinkle a thin layer of salt in the bottom of the barrel, so the meat will not touch the wood. Put the skin side down and be sure the whole contents are covered with brine.

At the end of six weeks take up the meat and smoke it, using hardwood chips of hickory or apple. Smoke till light brown or tan color. Sew the pieces up in muslin bags and whitewash these. Store in a dry, cool place or pack away in dry hickory ashes.

Pork for boiling is cured in the same way, but as it is left in the brine the year round it is well to examine, and, if necessary, make fresh pickle. The pork barrel should be well scrubbed and aired before using and may be sweetened by charring lightly the inner surface by burning with lighted chips.—Farm Journal.

A POULTRY HOUSE.

Complete and Convenient—A Handy Nest Box Arrangement.

We have been asked for a plan for a convenient poultry house. The writer has built and used two according to the plan illustrated in the accompanying drawing and considered it as complete and convenient as can be designed. The building is 9 by 18 feet, eight feet high in front and six feet at back. As will be seen, the hither end is open. This was done to show the interior arrangement. Attached at this open end is an extension of four feet separated from the part shown by a latticed partition, as a storage room for feed, opening into the main part of the house. In the cut DB is the dropping board, twenty-eight inches wide, surmounted at a height of five inches by a three inch perch with pegs five inches high and eight inches apart to prevent crowding. Back of the dropping board is a partition of wire netting separating the house into two compartments, B for roosting and laying, 5 by 14 feet, and A for sitting hens, 4 by 14. The nest boxes marked N completely fill the space under the dropping board.

When a hen is done laying and wants to sit, give her the eggs and push the box back until it opens into the sitting compartment. She is then confined and safe from intrusion by other fowls. The cut shows one nest box thus pushed back. This house should front south and the front side should be closed with four inch strips three inches apart and have a door opening thence into the feedroom. The north side and the ends are boarded up and the joints covered with four inch strips.—Texas Farm and Ranch.

Export Cattle.

The bulk of cattle exported belong to the good and choice grades of steers and weigh from 1,200 to 1,500 pounds. For the Christmas market there is an active demand for a limited number of prime steers of strong weights, say about 1,500 pounds. At other seasons the lighter weights, from 1,200 to 1,400 pounds, are preferred. While 1,200 pound steers are a trifle light in weight to meet the demand of exporters, they are often taken in preference to steers weighing 1,500 pounds or more, provided, of course, their quality and condition are satisfactory. If a weight were to be fixed upon as being the most desirable for export at the present time, it would be 1,350 pounds. Exporters neither buy the best nor yet the cheapest grade of fat cattle.

News and Notes.

By shipping celery in the rough, the salable portion is protected from bruising, and the bunches look more fresh and clean when trimmed and washed but a few hours before being offered for sale.

Forestry on the farm is receiving much attention from the wideawake practical farmers.

George M. Clark, the eastern grass expert, makes the comfortable assertion that "there is no such thing as wornout lands; they are simply dormant."

The net decrease in the new beet and cane sugar crops of the world is estimated at 1,108,680 tons by the Sugar Trade Journal.

The rhubarb plant loves darkness just as well as light, and winter forcing in cellars is a new and profitable outcome of that fact.

His Query.

She—Do I really love you, Cholly? Why, I'd sooner be miserable with you than happy with some other fellow.

He—But are you sure you won't find some other chap that you'd sooner be miserable with?—Puck.

When a woman loves a man to the point of distraction, other women abuse her for not having "more pride."—Atchison Globe.

Her Blessings.

When a man begins to count his blessings, he can generally find plenty to be thankful for, although sometimes he may include things which might not be regarded by other people as altogether joyous.

"I'm thinking about the wonderful progress the world has made and how much we've got to be thankful for," said Mrs. Matthews, rocking in her old stuffed chair, with a pair of knitting needles in her hands and a placid smile on her face.

"It is wonderful," admitted her niece.

"Seems as if everything turned to good. There's lightning, now. If it hadn't been for that, I never should have had those fine rods on the house and barn that make me feel so safe in a thunderstorm. And there's smallpox. If it hadn't been for that, we never should have known the blessings of vaccination, and if there hadn't been nearsighted folks nobody would have thought to invent magnifying glasses and specs. I declare, there's a sight of things to be thankful for."

BOSTON HARBOR FROZE.

But That Didn't Keep the Britannia From Sailing on Time.

Boston harbor froze over in January of 1844, and the advertised sailing of the Britannia, then in dock, seemed surely to be impossible. But the merchants of Boston would not have it so. They met and voted to cut a way, at their own expense, through the ice that the steamer might sail practically on time. The contract for cutting the necessary channels was given to merchants engaged, like Frederick Tudor, in the export of ice, not from the harbor. Their task was to cut, within the space of three days, a channel about ten miles long. For tools they had the best machinery used in cutting fresh water ice, and horsepower was employed. The ice was from six to twelve inches in thickness. As the Advertiser of Feb. 2, 1844, described the scene: "A great many persons have been attracted to our wharfs to witness the operations and the curious spectacle of the whole harbor frozen over, and the ice has been covered by skaters, sleds and even sleighs. Tents and booths were erected upon the ice, and some parts of the harbor bore the appearance of a Russian holiday scene." On Feb. 3 the work was done, and the Britannia, steaming slowly through the lane of open water, lined on either side by thousands of cheering spectators, made her way to the sea.—M. A. DeWolfe Howe in Atlantic.

The Earthly Facts.

A story told of Lord Holt, who was lord chief justice of England in the eighteenth century, shows what a deadly enemy to wild superstition a sense of fact may be. A man presented himself to Lord Holt and said:

"A spirit came to me from the other world and told me that in your next case you must enter a plea of nol. pros."—that is, refusal to prosecute.

Lord Holt looked at the man a moment and then smiled.

"Do you believe that such a message is wise for a human being to obey?"

"It is absolute."

"And do you believe that the messenger had a full knowledge of the law of England?"

"Yes, and of all law. By following this heaven given advice you will be doing justice."

"Well, you tell your messenger if he comes again that he should have sent his message to the attorney general. The lord chief justice of England never prosecutes, and if the spirit knew anything about the English law he would know a simple thing like that."—Youth's Companion.

Helping Out a Poet.

Shortly after the publication of Tennyson's famous poem, "A Vision of Sin," the laureate was somewhat startled to receive from Mr. Babbage, the renowned arithmetician, a letter which ran as follows:

Dear Sir—I find in a recently published poem from your pen, entitled "A Vision of Sin," the following unwarrantable statement:

"Every moment dies a man,
Every moment one is born."

I need hardly point out to you that this calculation, if correct, would tend to keep the sum total of the world's population in a state of perpetual equipoise, whereas it is a well known fact that the said sum total is constantly on the increase. I would therefore take the liberty of suggesting that in the next edition of your excellent poem the erroneous calculation to which I refer should be corrected as follows:

Every moment dies a man
And one and a sixteenth is born.

I may add that the exact figures are 1.167, but something must of course be conceded to the laws of meter. I have the honor to be, sir, yours, sincerely, C. BABBAGE.

Nets Lure Athletes.

Races through deep snow are an attractive feature of winter sports in Germany, and athletes who take part in them do not always fare very successfully.

The reason is because over the ground which the runners must cross are laid nets with strong meshes, and as these are covered by the snow and hence are invisible the men's feet almost always catch in them, the result being that a race instead of being won by the swiftest runner is generally won by him who is lucky enough to escape the nets or who succeeds in freeing himself the most quickly from their meshes.

Races of this kind always attract large crowds, and there is much amusement when the nets begin to get in their deadly work.

Writers Whose Works Are Unread.

With care and precision the journal clerks of the senate prepare the daily chronicle of the senate's doings. They are proud of their achievements, and justly so. It is a cause of sore disappointment to the makers of that journal when some thoughtless senator, eager for the morning's business, moves to suspend with the further reading.

Other clerks around the desk enjoy the joke and when the proceeding is concluded repeat in an undertone from man to man:

"Another insult."—Washington Post.

She Wouldn't Make Trouble.

She was not one of these trouble making women. In fact, she had the greatest contempt for people of that kind. She said so herself.

"And she spoke of you, too," she said, in telling a friend of a call she had made.

"What did she say?"

"Oh, I'd rather not tell you, dear. There's no use making trouble, you know."—Chicago Post.

Mrs. New Wed—You don't like the dumplings, Harry? Why, I made them from Mrs. Snorer's cook book.

Mr. New Wed—Well, my dear, the book itself may be very palatable, but I must have been helped to a piece of the cardboard cover.—New York Times.

Our Carpet Department
Will be quite complete—oh! no; we don't have two "mammoth" floors full—like our competitors—neither do we do all the carpet business of the town, but then we sell carpets, and you will find the price here an inducement worth looking after. Anything from a Straw Matting—hemp and rag—to an Axminster, Velvet or Body Brussels, Rug, Drugget, in way of floor coverings. Also, Linoleums and Oil Cloths. We call your particular attention to our line of SUPER EXTRA INGRAINS and cheaper floor coverings : : : : :
Our Line of GO-CARTS
Will surprise you this season, not only in design, beauty, workmanship and convenience, but in price. All Go-Carts are made up with stamped steel, barrel hub wheels, with rubber tires and nutless attachments, rubber buffers that cannot come off on all wheels; patent inside parasol rod which can be raised, lowered or adjusted to any angle simply and securely. All carts will have handsome lace covered parasols, with gear and wheels in green enamel. The "Automobile" cart with heavy rubber tire will please you. It will be THE cart of the season. A partial invoice of the line will be on our floor this week—make a selection early. : : : : :
