Section 6th—regarding the disposition of the lists and ballots, brought some remarks; and, as these lists and ballots should be carefully and honestly kept, each precinct should be provided with a box suitable for the purpose, and that box should be sealed until the ballots are destroyed.

Section 7 was adopted as read.
Section 8—regarding the manner of voting, form of ticket, qualification of candidates, etc. brought on the liveliest discussion of the meeting.

Mr. Maxwell offered an amendment requiring to candidates to announce their intentions 45 days before the date of the primary, and pledge themselyes before a Justice of the Peace to support the nominees. He referred to the late mix-up in Butler and thought the County Committee should take some action regarding the politics of the town Mr. McCreary thought the time should be at least six-weeks:the Committee changed the wording of its resolution from "two weeks" to "thirty days;" Maxwell's amendment was lost, and the section, with the 30 days change, was adopted.

Hereafter all candidates for the Republican county nominations must inform the County Chairman of their intentions at least thirty days before the date fixed upon for the primary election, and pay him an assessment intended to cover the expense of printing the blanks and also a few ballots and placing them at the polling places of each precinct; these ballots will contain the names of all the candidates, who will also announce their names in the Republican papers, and distribute as many of their own tickets (all of which are to be facsimiles of the official ticket) as they see fit.

The meeting of the Republican County Committee in Butler, last Saturday afteracon was one of the most interesting and businesslike ever held.

Thirty-four of the sixty-seven members answered to first roll call, and enough others came in shortly after to make the number present about forty, which, considering the condition of the roads showed the interest taken in the matter.

The first matter decided was the date for the Primary election, and after some discussion, Saturday, May 16th—1 to 7 p.m. was unanimously agreed upon, the convention to meet the following Monday.

The report of the Committee on Rules, etc. was then called for, and Mr. Criswell read the rules agreed upon by himself and Messrs Brown and Shanor, and which consisted of fourteen sections;

If the inquirer's name had been required to the questions asked Dr. Feltwell in the Y. M. C. A. last Sanday afternoon, shame might have prevented some of them from being asked. They were of such a nature that the honesty of purpose and self respect the questioner might be seriously questioned.

The ladies of the M. E. church had charge of the monthly reception at the Y. M. C. A. to the men of Butler last Thursday evening. A male quartet consisting of Messrs Jamison, Williams Flack and Miller, Mrs. Chas. Herr and Master Ritts furnished music, Prof. J. A. Gibson gave readings from Burns and Mrs. John A. Heiner recited Reilley's poem on the naming of "Old Glory." Refreshments were served.

The young people of Grace Lutheran church will give a Birthday Social at the home of J. G. Gaiser, 223 Third St. Friday evening, March 27. All are in-vited.

22, 1903, Mr. Nicholas Mangel, in the 90th year of his age.

Mr. Mangel was among those who came from France to this country about 70 years ago and bought land upon the hills of Thorne creek. He has survived all the men who then settled there, the Lelevries, Gerards Vinroes, Mannets, Davrenvilles and others. He was an industrious, hard working man and acquired considerable property, and will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. His remains were buried in English Catholic church cemetery on Tuesday last.
