LOCAL AND GENERAL.

"Gentle Spring" is a misnomer this year.

Tomorrow, May 1st, is another Ar-day.

If the many frosts left any fruit we're lucky.

A sixteen foot jaw was lately unearthed near Plain City, Ohio.

Butler is to have another brick and tiles works located on the East side.

Don't forget Arthur Love's entertainment in Y. M. C. A. hall, this evening.

Eugene Pape has refitted his billiard parlor, and now has a very handsome room.

The Water Co. is putting in a new 24-inch main from the dam to the pump.

Don't forget Arthur Love and family at Y. M. C. A. Hall, this evening.

It's high time we were getting some fine weather. Some of our farmers haven't their oats in yet.

According to the Times there will be several million applications for liquor at the June Court.

The County Commissioners are having trees planted in Diamond Square, and will endeavor to make it look like a Park.

Nick Hasenfus has a new house on Brown avenue nearly completed, and Herman Gruent is building on West D street.

A valuable horse belonging to Wahl Bros. jumped in front of a freight train, and was killed at Wahville, Sunday evening.

More hold ups and robberies, even the Court House was broken into by that of a married woman who is quite anti-social in her home.

W. H. McKee of Winfield twp., has an Indian spear or lance head made of hardened copper. It was found on the Paul Deeny farm at Coyleville.

For the benefit of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, the Ithica Concert Co. will appear in Y. M. C. A. Hall, next Tuesday evening, the 5th.

Two of Butler's Councilmen had to go to Greenville to buy the car a new team. What was the matter with a Butler county team, bought at home?

S. E. Cross of 329 West D St., (Dufyntown) Butler, postponed his sail till Saturday, May 9th, at 1 o'clock, at which time he will offer 25 colonies of Italian bees.

The old stone house on the County Home property has been torn down; and Sup'r Grahams, with the aid of the inmates and county prisoners, is beautifying the grounds.

Local youth and beauty, led by an accomplished actor presented a very fine rendition of "David Garrick," to well pleased Butler audiences, Monday and Tuesday nights of this week.

Cherry twp. is enjoying a mad dog scare. Several cows and dogs bitten by a stray dog have developed hydrocephalus and died. The Sarversville case seems to have developed from the bite of a dog that was not mad.

At Castle Shannon, in the Mt. Washington district, Pittsburgh, the 88 acres of Judge Bailey farm has been sold for $400,000. L. C. W. Wick owns three acres and the old homestead in the centre of the tract.

That Chinese-negro wedding seems to have occasioned a great stir among the press of the Indian Territory and Oklahoma. They are wondering if a new race of slant-eyed coons is to be foisted upon a long suffering public.

The editor of an exchange thus summarizes the situation in his neck of woods—it is said that a man who squeezes a dollar never squeezes his wife. In looking over our subscription accounts, we are led to believe that some awfully good women in this section are not getting the pressure they deserve.

One of our Harrisburg contingent reports Tom Cooper as being drunk nearly the entire session. This reminds us of the story told of Lincoln, when informed that Grant drank whiskey to excess. He wanted to know the brand so that he could get some for his other general.

Pittsburg was the scene of an unusually elaborate wedding, Monday, when Miss Thaw, a wealthy girl, married G. F. Alexander, Earl of Yarmouth, England. A great crowd gathered at the church to see the young couple, who went to New York that night and sailed for England next day.

Pennsylvania boys, unless they will take the risk of breaking the laws, will now have to give the greenhorns a rest between July 1st and Nov. 1st, as a bill putting the frog on the game lists has passed the Legislature and been signed by the Governor. The new law prohibits the taking or killing of frogs between the highest and the lowest.

New street sprinkler has arrived, the new team will be here in a day or two, and then, let us hope, this awful dust nuisance will be abated.

The assessment ordinance for the sewerage of New Castle street was passed Tuesday night, and an arc-light will be placed at head of E. Diamond street.
