Butler County Land Titles.
One of the most interesting maps in Butler hangs on the wall of Engineer McQuinn's office in the Armory building.

Some Things as They Are.
Sunday afternoon, inspired by a desire to find out if certain things were true, your scribe took a walk through the West End.

Annual Convention.
Twenty-fourth Annual Convention of the Women's Missionary Society of Butler United Presbyterian Church, June 2, 1908, in the United Presbyterian Church, Broadview, Pa.

That Label Bill Signed.
Governor Pennypacker heretofore has handled the legislation that has come before him with intelligence and conscientiousness.

He thinks that every reputable newspaper ought to be expected to come to the aid of the State.

It won't. Under the law that did exist until the Governor attempted to exercise his right to issue a writ of habeas corpus.

Connecticut at one time claimed a right to the land in the West End, but released it to the United States, and by it to Pennsylvania.

It is a fact that the title to the land in the West End is now in the hands of the United States.
