Early in the day the company began to arrived with well filled baskets, and greetings of good will and best wishes for our highly respected neighbor. By twelve o'clock a table was erected in the shady grounds and a sumptuons dinner was served. Guests were wait-ed upon by a willing cominitee of young folks. After dinner the meeting was called to order by Robert Barron, Esq. and W. B. Currie was appointed chairman and Verda M. Currie, secretary. After a brief prayer by Rev. Erby of Zion Baptist church, addresses were made by Mr. John Weigle, J. C. Snyder Rev. Erby and W. B. Currie. From these talks it was learned that our neighbor, Mr. Shaffer, is the oldest citizen born and raised in this school district; also since our "bees" are no longer necessary, these gatherings were highly recommended as a means of bringing farmers into closer fellowship with each other, and in keeping them them in sympathy with their brother workmen. The crowd was then dismissed to en-joy themselves in social intercourse, until the western sky reminded the farmers that evening chcres awaited them, when all departed thinking a day well spent and wishing Mr. Shaffer many happy returns. SECRETARY. Jaws Unlocked by Antitoxin.
