It is an immense satisfaction The lawyers of Pennsylvania are all interested in a decision made by the State Supreme Court, last month in a case in which a woman, although alive, was declared, legally dead. The de-cision reverses the opinion of the super-ior court and the common pleas court of Berks county, which declared an act of 1885 unconstitutional. A number of of similar cases have been pending. The litigation was started in Reading, Pa., when the Berks county orphans court, under the act of 1885, declared that Mrs. Margaret Cunnius, of Read-ing, who in 1888 had disappeared and, being not beard of afterward was legally dead.
